Mercantile Summary.

MR. DUGALD GILLESPIE of Argyle whose career as a general storekeeper has been one of incompetency and failure has disappeared and the Sheriff is in possession of his late premises.

IT TURNS OUT that the harrowing tales of shipwreck and destruction among the sealing fleet so widely circulated by the daily press last week are mere figments of some one's imagination. The casualties appear to be limited to the three vessels previously reported.

A WEEK ago the prospect was that the Treaty of Washington would be accepted by the powers interested; but it appears that amendments have been introduced by the U. S.
Senate which are unsatisfactory to England, and a settlement now seems as difficult to make as ever. The uncertainty on the subject has a marked effect on the New York money market, causing a firmness in gold, and an abundance of loanable capital, owing to the indisposition to enter upon new enterprises in the present position of affairs.
