BECAUSE—"In it I can get a good idea of what is going on in the world that is best worth knowing, without having to wade through a whole library of current literature to get at it, is the reason why I like the Review of Reviews best of all the many periodicals I see," said a subscriber to it in this city the other day. "Life is short, and my time is so taken up that I can't read one-fiftieth part of what I want, and with this one periodical I can manage to keep fairly abreast of the times."—Cleveland Plaindealer.
