Note No.119

Sir,

I have the honour to refer to the Agreement between the Government of Canada and the Government of the Kingdom of Thailand on Air Services (the "Agreement"), signed at Bangkok on 24 May 1989, and to propose, on behalf of the Government of Canada, the following:

1. The following new paragraph 4 shall be added to Article 9 of the Agreement:
 4. There shall also be exempt from all customs duties and/or taxes on a reciprocal basis "airline documents" imported into the territory of either Contracting Party for the exclusive use by the designated airline of the other Contracting Party. The term "airline documents" is deemed to include air waybills/consignment notes, passenger tickets, excess baggage tickets, exchange orders, damage and irregularity reports, baggage and cargo labels, time-tables, and weight and balance documents.
2. (a) The provisions set out in Articles 4, 5, 8, 9, 10, 12 (except the sale of transportation for passengers), 13, 16 and 17 of the Agreement shall be applicable also to non-scheduled flights operated by an air carrier of one Contracting Party into or from the territory of the other Contracting Party and to the air carrier operating such flights.
