

must radiate out into the countries of the developing world.

4. Canada is uniquely fitted to play a useful part in promoting understanding and co-operation between Europe and North America.
5. The bicultural character of Canada is an important factor in the shaping of our foreign policy and is an immense asset in our diplomacy. I appeal to qualified bilingual Canadians to join our foreign service so that we may enhance our country's international stature and ensure that the heritage of Canada is fully reflected in our foreign policy.

We are living in a revolutionary age, where our system of government and our basic values and ideals are being challenged both from without and sometimes even from within. I am convinced that with good leadership and by remaining true to the great heritage of our country, Canada has a vital part to play in the age old pursuit of mankind -- a pursuit all the more hazardous today -- the search for a world where men and women everywhere can live in peace and security.
