

No. 54. (eight) (inquiry)

10th December, 1992—Resuming the debate on the inquiry of the Honourable Senator Simard, calling the attention of the Senate to the need for the federal government to retain at least the linguistic component of Canada's Court Challenges Program.—(Honourable Senator Molgat).

No. 43. (fifteen) (inquiry)

29th September, 1992—Resuming the debate on the inquiry of the Honourable Senator Frith calling the attention of the Senate to the disastrous record of the Conservative government.—(Honourable Senator Frith).

N° 54. (huit) (interpellation)

10 décembre 1992—Reprise du débat sur l'interpellation de l'honorable sénateur Simard, attirant l'attention du Sénat sur la nécessité pour le gouvernement fédéral de retenir, à tout le moins, le volet linguistique du Programme canadien de contestation judiciaire.—(L'honorable sénateur Molgat).

N° 43. (quinze) (interpellation)

29 septembre 1992—Reprise du débat sur l'interpellation de l'honorable sénateur Frith, attirant l'attention du Sénat sur le bilan désastreux du gouvernement conservateur.—(L'honorable sénateur Frith).

No. 54.

Par l'honorable sénateur Marshall :
26th January 1993—That he will call the attention of the Senate to the need for the federal government to retain at least the linguistic component of Canada's Court Challenges Program.—(Honourable Senator Molgat).

No. 43.

Par l'honorable sénateur Marshall :
29th January 1993—That he will call the attention of the Senate to the disastrous record of the Conservative government.—(Honourable Senator Frith).

No. 54.

Par l'honorable sénateur Marshall :
26th January 1993—That he will call the attention of the Senate to the need for the federal government to retain at least the linguistic component of Canada's Court Challenges Program.—(Honourable Senator Molgat).

No. 43.

Par l'honorable sénateur Marshall :
29th January 1993—That he will call the attention of the Senate to the disastrous record of the Conservative government.—(Honourable Senator Frith).

No. 54.

By the Honourable Senator Marshall:
26th January 1993—That he will call the attention of the Senate to the need for the federal government to retain at least the linguistic component of Canada's Court Challenges Program.—(Honourable Senator Molgat).

No. 43.

By the Honourable Senator Marshall:
29th January 1993—That he will call the attention of the Senate to the disastrous record of the Conservative government.—(Honourable Senator Frith).

No. 54.

By the Honourable Senator Marshall:
26th January 1993—That he will call the attention of the Senate to the need for the federal government to retain at least the linguistic component of Canada's Court Challenges Program.—(Honourable Senator Molgat).

No. 43.

By the Honourable Senator Marshall:
29th January 1993—That he will call the attention of the Senate to the disastrous record of the Conservative government.—(Honourable Senator Frith).