

In preparing this draft the requirements of the Bar as to the number of lectures to be given in each subject have been ignored and in consequence it is not possible to put the suggested curriculum into effect until the existing Bar By-laws have been amended. Your committee expresses no opinion as to whether it is feasible to obtain an amendment to the By-laws at the present time but thinks that steps should be taken quietly to ascertain whether the time is now ripe to approach the General Council for this purpose. Realizing that this may take some time, your committee submits an alternative curriculum, Schedule "B", adapting that contained in Schedule "A" to the existing Bar regulations. It recommends that this alternative curriculum (Schedule "B") be adopted until such time as the Bar regulations are modified. A table showing lectures now given, Bar requirements and those proposed to be given, is appended as Schedule "C".

The re-arrangement of the curriculum will render necessary the preparation of lists of suggested readings on which the examinations will be based. This will involve careful study in order to ensure satisfactory courses and close-co-operation to ensure proper proportion between them. We suggest that in addition to the regular sessional readings summer readings be prescribed as an integral part of the course.

Your committee feels that a re-consideration of our examination system is desirable. At present a student attends a number of lectures, reads a few cases or extracts from
