Clauses inserted in consequence in the Charter of 1698. To maintain a minister and schoolmaster at St. Helena, and ministers at their factories in India, and a chaplain on board every ship of 500 tons. They are obliged to learn Portuguese and the native language	r	AGE maintain a minister and schoolmaster at St. Helena, and ministers at their factories in India, and a chaplain on board every ship of 500 tons. They are obliged to learn Portuguese and the native language		AUE ministers at their factories in India, and a chaplain on board every ship of 500 tons. They are obliged to learn Portuguese and the native language board every ship of 500 tons. They are obliged to learn Portuguese and the native language Portuguese and the native language
Schoolmusters to be provided. Their non-observance	Posturnova and the native language	400
The Church of England no party to this neglect. Prideaux's renewed appeal, on the same subject, to Archbishop Wake. 482 The Church of England at home from 1684 to 1702	School unctage to he provided. Their non observence renewed appeal, on the same subject, to Archbishop Wake. 482 The Church of England at home from 1684 to 1702		401
The Church of England at home from 1634 to 1702		400
Her treatment by James 11
Trial of the seven Bishops	***
The Revolution of 1688. The Non-Jurors	military and a second Evil results of the divisions thereby created Toleration Act
Failure of the attempt to reconcile the Nonconformists. Religious persecution and its consequences in Scotland ligious persecution and its consequences in Scotland		492
Archbishop Tillotson
The death of Robert Boyle
His conduct as Governor of the Company for the Propagation of the Gospel in New England of the Gospel in New England		495
CHAPTER XIX. THE CONDITION OF THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND AT HOME, DURING THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY. A.D. 1700—1800. Relations between the Church Colonial and the Church at home
CHAPTER XIX. THE CONDITION OF THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND AT HOME, DURING THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY. A.D. 1700—1800. Relations between the Church Colonial and the Church at home		496
THE CONDITION OF THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND AT HOME, DURING THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY. A.D. 1700—1800. Relations between the Church Colonial and the Church at home	His charity and piety	497
THE CONDITION OF THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND AT HOME, DURING THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY. A.D. 1700—1800. Relations between the Church Colonial and the Church at home
THE CONDITION OF THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND AT HOME, DURING THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY. A.D. 1700—1800. Relations between the Church Colonial and the Church at home
THE CONDITION OF THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND AT HOME, DURING THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY. A.D. 1700—1800. Relations between the Church Colonial and the Church at home	CHAPTER XIX.
HOME, DURING THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY. A.D. 1700—1800. Relations between the Church Colonial and the Church at home
HOME, DURING THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY. A.D. 1700—1800. Relations between the Church Colonial and the Church at home	mild dollarmon on our average on distance
A.D. 1700—1800. Relations between the Church Colonial and the Church at home	THE CONDITION OF THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND	AT
Relations between the Church Colonial and the Church at home	HOME, DURING THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY.
Relations between the Church Colonial and the Church at home home	A.D. 1700-1800.
home
The most celebrated Clergy of the Church of England in the eightcenth century	Relations between the Church Colonial and the Church at eighteenth century	home	500
Her difficulties. Effects of the Non-juring Schism	The most celebrated Clergy of the Church of England in the Political influences	eighteenth century	50I
Political influences	Her difficulties. Effects of the Non-juring Schism	502
Sacheverell Atterbury. Religious feuds		503
Hoadley. The Bangorian Controversy	Sacheverell Atterbury. Religious feuds	504
Convocation. Its previous acts	The state of the s	506