

| | |
|---|---------------|
| Party and faction, history of, a desideratum | 45 |
| Party men, thorough-going, rarely honest politicians | 10 |
| Parties change names and principles | 334 |
| Patriotic proceedings, statement of | 149 |
| Peace party, ruinous effects of their exertions | 333 |
| Peace party, composed of warlike materials | 243 |
| Pelham's essays, extracts from | 271 |
| Pennsylvania line, sufferings and heroism of | 339 |
| Perceval, Spencer, assassination of | 364 |
| Perry, consequences of his victory | 41 |
| Philadelphia, citizens of, as religious as those of Boston | 275 |
| Philadelphia, ingratitude of | 339 |
| Pickering, Mr. Timothy, vote of, against British depredations | 169 |
| — against impressment | 110 |
| Pickering, T. objects to Mr. Liston's project of a convention respecting deserters | 206 |
| Pickering, T. wonderful contrast of the opinions of | 133, 196, 206 |
| Pinkney Wm. character of | 364 |
| Popular delusion, influence of | 30 |
| Popular delusion, extraordinary instance of | 304 |
| Population of the U. States, progress of the | 431 |
| Power of congress over the militia, inquiry into the | 393 |
| Preparations, neglect of | 59 |
| Preparations for war | 229 |
| "President Madison to Elba," a favorite idea with many | 8 |
| Pretensions of Great Britain exposed by Boston merchants | 88 |
| Pretensions of England, extravagant | 184 |
| Printer at Reading scourged by a band of Philadelphia volunteers | 241 |
| Proceeding of Congress, imbecility and folly of | 63 |
| Profits of commerce 50 per cent. | 325 |
| Prosperity of the United States, view of | 427 |
| Prosperity of the United States, progress of the | 427, 442 |
| Pulpit politics, seditious and treasonable instance of | 309 |
| Pulpit politics, a hideous abomination, 327—various instances of, 328, 329 | 330 |
| Quincey, Josiah, seditious speech of | 373 |
| Reflections on the mercantile memorials | 101 |
| Religious factions, remarks on | 29 |
| Religious fanaticism, instances of | 32 |
| Repeal of orders in council, very equivocal | 57 |
| Republics, history of, not duly studied by the democrats | 40 |
| Retaliation, a mere pretence on the part of England | 105 |
| Revenues of the United States, increase of the | 435 |
| Rider annexed to Monroe and Pinkney's treaty | 43 |
| Road to Ruin, delusion and misrepresentation of | 326 |
| Rule of 1756, utterly abandoned by the British government, 34, a mere pretext to cover predatory seizures | 99 |
| Russian mediation, misrepresentation respecting | 63 |
| Senatorial representation, iniquitous arrangement of | 415 |
| Separation of the states, project of a, in 1796 | 7 |
| Separation of the states steadily advocated in Boston | 50 |
| Separation of the states, various efforts to effect a | 268 |
| Smuggling carried to great excess in Boston | 313 |
| Sober character of the Americans no security against civil war | 36 |

South
ver
South
South
Specie
Specie
Thay
Tonni
Thom
Trans
Trans
Unite
Unite
mer
Unite
Unite
Virgini
War, c
War vi
War, in War pr
War w ac
War, r
Washin
Washin
Wealth
Welling
Whitby
Pe
Wolcott
Yeas an