

Wherefore your Petitioners earnestly pray Your Excellency to be pleased to take their petition into consideration and grant them such relief as Your Excellency in your wisdom may deem meet.

And they will ever pray.

Quebec, 23 March 1861.