

IF WOMAN WOULD

Take in hand the temperance cause,
The cause would be in good hands, . . .

Become the apostle in the home circle, Man would remain or at least become temperate, . . .

Set, by good example, to make her father, husband, sons and brother, more God-fearing,
He would indeed become more religious and would never become a drunkard, . . .

Put into practice the "Banquet of good resolutions",
She would be happy and God would bless her home, . . .

Would that I could conclude,

WOMAN WILL !
