

own, and of persons and things of which you know nothing, should be declined.

5. Unity and the same tone should pervade the whole service. This will maintain interest and produce a decided impression. On successive Sabbaths you will thus have not only new sermons but also new services.