These Worsted Suits are Great Favorites

If men would allow their wives, sisters, cousins or aunts to choose their clothes, about three out of four of them would be wearing blue worsted suits. There's a touch of refinement about them that most women like; manufacturers seem to take more pains in making up blue or black worsteds, and the result is that the best looking ready-to-wear suits on the market are made up of this material, and in these colors. Here are three lines at three popular prices that should start quite a goodly company of men into the winter months with a new blue suit.

Men's Fine Quality English Clay Twill Worsted Suits, in thoroughly fast navy blue and black shades; cut in the latest three-button single breasted sack style, nicely tailored in every way, and perfect fitting, lined with good quality twill mohair linings. Sizes 34 to 44. Price $12.00.

Men's Dark Navy Blue and Black English Worsted Suits; a soft, firmly woven, smooth finished material, with a fine diagonal twill; cut from the popular 3-button single and double breasted sack models, slightly conforming to the figure, and with broad shoulders; carefully tailored and perfect fitting. Sizes 34 to 44. Price $15.00.

Men's Extra Quality English Worsted Suits; a soft clay twilled material, in rich dark navy blue and black shades; also a fine quality black vicuna cloth, cut from the new fall and winter models, in single and double breasted styles, with nicely moulded shoulders, and long, shapely lapels, finished with A1 quality twill mohair body lining, and haircloth, and thoroughly shrunk duck interlinings; tailored with first-class workmanship. Sizes 36 to 44. Price $18.00.
