Who But Has Heard of It? Who But Would Be Quick to Recommend it After Experiencing the Quick Cool Shave It Gives?

There are reasons for such satisfaction. One is the fact that the blade may be adjusted for a medium or close shave.

Another is the splendid balance of the handle, which enables one to sense the correct cutting angle.

The wafer-like blade is of a keen Sheffield steel—a few strokes and the task is over.

Such a razor is a boon to the traveling man, or the man whose time for the morning shave is limited.

The handle and guard are silver-plated; 12 blades go with the outfit, in a nickel-plated, celluloid or leather-covered case, for $5.00.
