The board of works met to-night. Councillor Ham presided. Councillor Howell, Whetter and the mayor were present. Accounts to the amount of $4500 were passed. This includes the bill for lumber for the Weston-road bridge. A number of Toronto citizens Humberside-avenue rejuested water service on the east side of the street, which belongs to the town, and the city has no right to lay a main on the street without the consent of the town. This was thrown out, as the city refused a similar request from the town on Bloor-street some months ago. The request of C. W. Batt that the sewer be extended 306 feet southerly on High Park-avenue was granted, Mr. Batt to pay half of cest. $154. The sewer on North Keele-street, to be extended as far as J. W. Haggas reported 90 applications for services have been received, and that the department is behind with the work because he cannot get men on account of the low wages paid to town laborers-18 cents per hour. This was referred to the executive on Thursday night. The superintendent also recommended some minor repairs at the pumping station, and that an-other 12-in, main be laid on Elizabethstreet in order to provide efficient fire protection. He thinks if this is not done fire engines may be necessary to protect high buildings. The repairs were granted, but the 12-inch main was not entertained. BRITISH WELGONE LEAGUE

Hon. Nelson Monteith and Others Express Appreciation of New Movement.

From to-day forward new citizens of Canada from the British Isles, who are in need of assistance, will find a welcome at the quarters of the British Welcome League at Front and Lorne-streets. The men will be kept only over night, and the women no longer than two days, but the league officers wisely think that those who are seriously anxious to get on should in the time allowed them be able to in the time allowed them be able to make arrangements to go to work. The formal opening of the institu-tion took place last night, and was tion took piace last night, and was attended by a large number of weil-known citizens, among whom were Hon.
