Miss Gladys McEvoy has a beautiful

Miss Gladys McEvoy has a beautiful contraito voice, and her numbers were rendered with great expression. Her "Danny Boy" was greatly appreciated for its sympathetic rendering, and her other arias gave evidence of fine technique and voice control.

Miss Bessie Kerr has a brilliant manner of execution. She gave several fine interpretations of the piano works on the program, but perhaps her best number was the Concertstuck by Weber, accompanied by the conservatory string ensemble. The orchestra, also, gave a group of pieces which were enthusiastically received.

The three ladies were showered with bouquets, little Mary Percy and Peggy Willgoose acting as flower girls.

PAYS $5 FINE FOR SPEEDING, ANOTHER FOR DAMAGING CAR

eonard Erskine Alleged To Have Had Wild Ride.

Leonard Erskine was fined $5 in poce court this morning for speeding. and also paid the street railway company $5 for damaging the fender of one of its street cars which he struck while trying to beat Barney Oldfield's records for fast driving.

Frank Buchanan and Matthew J. Easton, both employed on the car that was struck, stated that they were coming along Beaconsfield avenue after making, a trip to Springbank, when Erskine tried to pass them before they reached an auto that was standing by the side of the road. Both the street our and Erskine's car reached thereat car and Erskine's car reached there at the same time, and in turning out to avoid the standing car the accused struck the street car. Easton declared that the speeder was going about 20 miles per hour.

Other Evidence,
Charles Johnston, a passenger on the Springbank car, stated that Erskine also hit the other auto, striking the that the top of the auto in which the young man was driving, was hanging along the side of the car. It struck a horse and buggy, in which a man and woman were driving, he added. The autoist did not stop, however.

Calvin S. Parker, who witnessed the accident, thought that the speeder showed very bad judgment. "If he HAS PASSED WONCION submitted a new schedule of working conditions and wages to their employers, but at a late hour last night the rumor could not be confirmed. Arthur W. White, a member of the above firm, last night stated to The Advertiser that he had not seen or hear anything of the schedule in question. "I know nothing about it," was his reply, when questioned regarding the schedule, and further than the above he refused to be quoted.

The demanded schedule is said to include 80 cents an hour for skilled employees and 60 cents an hour for their
