Of Interest to Women

IN MEMORIAM.

Queen Victoria—Died Jan. 22, 1901.
Put back the stone. Unseal the sepulchre,
Reeve, on kindly earth, Victoria's form;
Which shined perfected virtue—absolute,
So far as Eve could will, not clay, nor air,
Nor ruddy blood, nor life, could e'er create
The paragon we mourn; for haply it is
What wise men say, that as the cycles whirl,
The Sculptor's hand, incarnates higher
Types;
Such was our Queen, august, and throned in love;
Such was the mother of our mothers'
sons;
Wise Alfred planted, princely Shakespeare
And Good Victoria's sun matured the oaks;
Whose branches arch the world. Not
William's march,
Nor Edward's sword, nor Henry's lance,
could carve,
So deep a line upon the towering cliffs—old
England—home—
As she, whose orb outshone the centuries;
And stamped her seal on peer and peasant's heart.
Four hundred million mourners guard her
ber;
But chief in honored place, her pall is borne
By British mothers, bent and grey, whose tale
Of years are measured by a sad fourscore.
They kept alive the Druid altar's fire,
And taught our infant tongues to bless the Queen.
—W. H. Taylor.

Hard on the Ministry.

A case of real hardship has been reported to The World of two sisters, aged daughters of a former well-known clergyman of Toronto, now residing here. These sisters are in straitened circumstances, and, as age is against them living in a hardship. It is a case for equity on the part of those having more of this world's goods than they need.

Organ Recital.

Mr. Blakeley will give another of his popular organ recitals on Saturday afternoon next (Jan. 21) at 4 o'clock in the Sherbourne-street Methodist Church. Mr. Blakeley's subject will be "Shakespeare in Music," showing the influence of the great dramatist upon musical composition. He will also use an old fashioned organ by way of illustration, playing on it the incidental music to "The Tempest," composed by Dr. Arne for David Garrick. Incidental music will also be played to "Romeo and Juliet" from the orchestra suite by Massenet, the great French composer. "Henry VIII" by Edward German, composed for Henry Irving. "Palastrini" composed by Verdi in his eightieth year, and "Midsummer Night's Dream" and "The Merry Wives of Windsor," and will also include Mendelssohn's "March in G Major," which promises to be one of special interest.

Louis XV. Design in a Piano.

One of the leading styles of pianos that the old firm of Heintzman & Co., Limited, 115-117 West King-street, Toronto, have on exhibition in their warerooms is that known as Louis XV. design—a piano that reflects in most perfect manner this famed ruler of the seventeenth century. The lines and scrolls are all of the most artistic character, and there is something graceful in every turn. Ask to be shown this particular design of piano.

Their Special Make of Piano.

The transposing piano, which is a special make of the old firm of Heintzman & Co., Limited, 115-117 West King-street, Toronto, is a unique instrument. Lovers of music should make request to see this particular make of piano.

La Grippe Epidemic

La Grippe has Toronto, in fact the whole province, in its clutches again. Every one knows it. The dreaded disease is the forerunner of pneumonia and consumption, which carry away more people yearly than the Spanish-American war did. A good recipe which acts quickly and is said never fails to cure La Grippe, Colds, Coughs and Lung Trouble is: One half ounce of Fluid Extract Licorice; One ounce of Compound Syrup of White Pine; One ounce of Glycerine; One ounce of Water.

These ingredients can be procured at any drug store, and by adding three ounces of boiling water you have the mixture in right proportions to take a desiccatingly every two or three hours. This mixture is harmless, but sure.

JURY CENSURES PRESS ADVERTISING "WILD CATS"

In Presentment Say Keep Out Undesirable Immigrants—Judge Delivers Sentences.

The presentment of the grand jury in the court of general sessions, which was made to Judge Winchater yesterday, recommended that, in view of the difficulty of obtaining a copy of the building regulations in regard to the erection of scaffolds, a poster be prepared to put up, wherever construction is being carried on.

The jury went after the newspapers for publishing advertisements of "wild cat" mining companies, and recommended special legislation to keep undesirable immigrants out of the country.

Special attention was called to the need of more street car accommodation in Toronto.

In connection with the accidents on the Grand Trunk Railway crossing at Bay-street, the jury recommended that the derailing be removed several feet further from the tracks, and expressed the opinion that the accidents which have occurred there might have been prevented had this been done before.

Norman and Albert Hopkins and Cyril Elliott, who were charged with conspiracy to defraud the Toronto St. Railway and various insurance companies by means of bogus accidents, were remanded to jail without bail, until the court of appeal hands down its decision in the case.

Arthur Munna, charged with perjury while testifying in a police court on a charge of frequenting a house of ill-fame, was sentenced to three years in Kingston penitentiary.

His companion, May Dines, cried "My God! my God!" and fell unconscious on the floor when Judge Winchater named the punishment.

"You have been living a most unfortunate life," said his honor to Munna. "You can't get satisfaction from what you have, but in addition you have added the curse of perjury, and this crime is getting altogether too common and must be stopped. I sentence you to three years in the penitentiary."

Albert Stephenson, who stabbed his wife in the breast at the Central in the building on Adelaide-road, where James Rigby was killed by the breaking of a scaffold, was allowed to go on suspension.

Eva Johnston of Newmarket had to be carried from the courtroom when informed that she must spend six months in jail for obtaining $200 under false pretences from E. B. Osler by representing herself as a sister from a charitable institution.

The sentences were also given: Leon Barash, theft, six months in the Central; Leonard Goodwin, forgery, six months in the Central; Fred Tallman, assault, $5 or two months in jail; E. Brazier, theft, one month in jail.

AT THE THEATRES

"Monte Cristo" and James O'Neill inseparably linked, for the distinguished actor has been portraying the character for over a quarter of a century with unvarying success. Last night at the Grand Mr. O'Neill was seen in the role of Edmond Dantes, and the audience, which completely filled the house, followed the fortunes of the hero with every evidence of delight. The actor's impersonation has changed but little. He has not grown middle-aged with frequent repetition, but plays easily and forcefully and with that technical skill born of long experience. It is a good sign when the interest never wavers. In the supporting company Norman Hackett in the part of No. 1 remains conspicuous. He gave the character with admirable judgment, avoiding exaggeration, and making the most of the various telling situations which fell to him. Alice Fleming made a charming Mercedes, and James O'Neill, Jr., a manly Albert.

De Pachmann in his program at Massey Hall next Monday will include seven selections from Chopin, Mendelssohn, Mozart, Weber, Schumann, Tschaiakovsky and others are represented in their most attractive mood. The opening number is Scarlatti's Sonata in A Major. Mr. De Pachmann avoids as much as possible the purely technical, and is a composer in order to illustrate the beautiful and the poetic. The sale of seats begins this morning.

Olivet Congregational Church.

At the annual meeting of this church reports from the several departments, which showed good results and especially when taken into consideration that during the past year the church had been without pastor from May to Nov. 1, the reports were very encouraging. Since Rev. A. Margrett's coming as pastor the congregation has steadily increased. Receipts from all sources were $3955.95, and expenditures $2879.52. The primary school has given a new roof, and the room redecorated and other repairs had been done to the premises. The election of officers resulted: John Wightman and Wm. Toms were deacons, and C. E. Nourse, H. Amos, H. Crossen, E. Palmer, H. Stewart and Alfred Dunbar elected fill vacancies on management board.

Gets Equal Share.

In the non-jury assizes yesterday Chief Justice Meredith gave judgment on behalf of Mrs. Lydia Brion of Newmarket in her case against John Sharp, a plaintiff of Toronto Junction, to recover half interest in lots Nos. 17 and 18, Argyle-road, Toronto Junction, which the plaintiff and defendant had jointly occupied for nine years.

College Cars Nearly Run Down a Clergyman.

What nearly resulted in a fatal accident happened at the corner of College and Shaw-streets yesterday morning at 8.30. The clergyman had his hand on the bar and was dragged several feet before the uttering of forged cheques tucked on them.

SEVEN YEARS FOR FORGER.

Toronto Man Gets Heavy Sentence at Hamilton.

HAMILTON, Jan. 21.—Judge Snider this morning sentenced H. T. Wesson, who was arrested here recently in the Merchants' Bank while in the act of cashing a forged cheque for $450 on the Dineen Co. of Toronto, to seven years in Kingston Penitentiary. The prisoner pleaded guilty to seven separate charges of forgery, three of which had the uttering of forged cheques tucked on them.

Wesson said he had wealthy and respected relatives in Jackson City, Tenn. Last September he went to Toronto, and took over the publication of The White Lyre. Wesson swore that another man, whom he named, supervised the issuing of the forged cheques and received half the profits. He took his sentence coolly.

COLD SETTLED ON THE LUNGS

Mrs. Irwin Bennett, Parsboro, N.S., writes: "I feel it my duty to write a few words in praise of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I took a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, and made it almost impossible to breathe at times. I coughed constantly and could not sleep at nights. A friend told me how Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup had helped her, so I procured some, and before I had taken one bottle my cough was gone and I could lie down and sleep at night."
