Newark and Rochester Break Even, While Baltimore Walloped Buffalo - Orioles Here To-day.

McGinley, outside of the fourth, had it on his elongated opponent. Southpaw Barry, and if the locals had got an even break it's a safe bet they would have won the game; but it's the old story of when a team get down in the ruck they always get the worst of it.

Foronto started the scoring, Thielman being passed up in the second, advancing on Whitney's sacrifice, and after Vandy had popped out and two strikes were on McGinley, Thielman startled the natives by making a clean steal home. Duffy was put out of the game for chewing on this play.

by making a clean steal home. Duffy was put out of the game for chewing on this play.

The fourth was unlucky for Toronto. McHale and Hoffman singling in succession. Abstein popped to Whitney, but Arndt doubled to deep right, scoring the base-warmers. Frock popped to Schafly, but Peterson dropped a Texas leaguer over first that tallied Arndt. Peterson was out stealing, and this ended their only chance, as only one Grey got to second in the remaining five innings. Guess it wasn't tough chaese!

Umpire Toft's bad decision came in the locals' half of the fourth. With two down, Thielman walked, going to third when Whitney got a life on Abstein's fumble. Vandy hit to third, but Arndt's throw was wild, Abstein overrunning the bag, and then catching the ball. Umpire Toft called him out, even before the player caught the ball. Vandy kicked on the Bochafly remonstrated he also was benched. Thielman, who was on third when Schafly remonstrated he also was benched. Thielman, who was on second; so, with two men on bases, the Leafs had a chance to add another run.

So, if Toft had seen rightly, Thielman would have scored and the locals would have scored and the locals would have tied it up in the sixth, when Widthy Changles and Changl

So, if Toft had seen rightly, Thielman would have scored and the locals would have tied it up in the sixth, when Wiedy singled, with one down; Keenan advanced him. Gettman scoring him with a safety. Gettman went to second on a passed ball, but Phyle failed to get on. Score:

Dicky Rudolph evidently had not got over his birthday celebration when he went in to pitch the second game for the Leafs, the result being the Greys found him for six hits in three innings, from which five scores resulted, and, as the visitors scored as many as the locals did in the remaining innings, they maintained this lead to the last, winning, 7 to 2.

Applegate relieved Rudolph in the fourth, and twirled good ball, one run in the flifts being the result of a wild heave to first by Brown, that sent the runner to third, from where he scored on a long sacrifice fly. The other happened in the seventh. With two out and Donahue on first and Phelan on third, a double-steal was attempted, Phelan scoring, as Brown's short throw to Schafly went too high for him to return in time.

Toronto's two runs came in the third wiedy walked and went to third on Schafly's hit to right, Schafly making second on the return. Gettman singled, scoring Wiedy, and then stole second, but Umpire Black called him out, another puink decision, and Jake showed his disgust by doing the cowboy act riding into town. Needless to say, Black canned him. Phyle grounded to Abstein, Schafly scoring. Cockman singled, but Thielman whitfed.

Old, reliable Bill Phyle was forced to quit after this innings, as he was suffered.

GIANTS ONCE MORE WIN

Firemen 12, World 12.

A friendly game of baseball was played yesterday afternoon between the Firemen and The World, which resulted, after eight innings' play in a tie, 12 to 12.

They were favored by Mr. Harris with the use of Diamond Park and they made good use of it.

In the initial stages of the game the firemen must have thought they were fighting fire the way they put The World men out, but they overlocked something that was smouldering and which burst into a blaze in the third and fourth and much damage was done before it was extinguished. However, they later started some fireworks of their own accord, with the result that the game ended even in the eighth, when it was called for the players to catch a car. D. McGuire umplied to everybody's satisfaction. Score:

The visitors made one run in the eighth innings, and came back in the ninth with two more. Pittsburg made their three runs in the sixth innings with two men out. In this innings the game was stopped for about fifteen minutes on account of an argument as to whether Leach had been hit by a batted ball. Young pitched a good game, but was weak with men on bases. Taylor did well. McGinnity pitched the eighth innings and Mathewson the ninth. Gill, Pittsburg's new first-basemen, played a good game and made good as a pinch hitter. Score:

It's Up to Baltimore.

To enable foronto to have Boston Nationals here as an attraction on Monday, and incidentally give the fans a chance of seeing Joe Kelley and his big leaguers, the local club agreed to have the Monday game here transferred to Newark Sunday, but to do so the consent of the other clubs had to be obtained. Baltimore and Buffalo objected to this, but last night Buffalo gave in, and it only remains for the local club to obtain Baltimore's consent to-day.
