WHOLESALE FRUIT AND VEGETABLES

Receipts were quite heavy again on the wholesale fruit market yesterday, but trade was very slow, especially in the moraing, becoming slightly better in the afternoon.

Peaches—The quality of the peaches varied greatly, some extra choice ones being received, while some were almost unfit for use, the choice lots bringing from $1 to $1.25. per 11-quart leno basket, and 50c to 65c per six-quart leno, the other grades going at 45c to 65c per 11-quart leno, and 25c to 40c per six-quart leno, Hiscott Bros, of Niagara-on-the-Lake shipped in over seven hundred six-quart leno baskets of especially fine ones to Stronach & Sons, which brought from 40c to 65c per basket.

Pears—Shipments were extremely heavy and consisted mostly of Keiffers, which sold at 30c to 40c per six-quart basket and 50c to 65c per 11-quart basket, the better grades selling at 60c to 85c per six-quart leno basket. Hiscott Bros. of Niagara also shipped in some extra choice Anjous, and Smith Bros. of Niagara Falls exceptionally fine Sheldons to Stronach & Sons, which brought 70c and 85c per six-quart leno basket respectively, but both these shipments were some of the choicest seen on the market his season.

Plums—Shipments were light, and the quality mostly poor, high prices being obtained for any good ones.

Grapes—The quality continues to be very poor, and prices keep practically stationary, blues and greens selling at 20c to 27½c per six-quart basket, and Red Rogers at 30c to 35c per six-quart basket.

Eggplant—There was some very good continued for any good ones.

COLDER WEATHER IS HELP TO CORN

Prices Average Lower Chicago—Oats Also Sell Off.

Chicago. Oct. 19.—Corn prices average lower today, influenced largely by season able weather for putting the crop in readiness for shipment. Prices closed us settled, varying from %c dectine to % advance, with December $1.15% and Ma $1.10% to $1.10%. Oats finished %c to 4c down. The outcome in provision ranged from a setback of 40c to a re of $1. A temperature drop that seemed what was needed to dry out new kept bulls almost constantly at a divantage. Forecasts of a return of war vantage. Forecasts of a return of warm and moisture tomorrow, however, tend to lessen pressure on the December of livery, and made that option relative firm. Reports of prospective liberal busing for the Mexican Government count a little also to harden value. There we good selling, tho, on all the hard spoin the market. Investment demand a peared to be absent and support can nearly altogether from shorts.

Oats were easy with corn. Receive saild farmers showed more disposition sell, so as to provide storage room foorn Shipping calls for nearby delivertes provisions was assumed to result in hoisting of maximum quotations at Derpool. On the other hand, severe in breaks in log values here made the loptions comparatively weak.
