

LONDON IS EVEN WITH HAMILTON

In Games Played at Tecumseh Park on Saturday.

The Londoners and Tigers made an even break of it in the double-header at Tecumseh Park Saturday. The Tigers took the first game by 5-1, the second going to London, 7-3.

Both games were fast and interesting. The attendance was big, there being approximately 1,500 people present.

The feature of the first contest was the perfect batting of Johnson, who singled twice, made a double-sacker, and reached his base on a pitched ball.

In the second contest Payne, who twirled for London, fanned three batters in the seventh inning.
