Mr. Stuart Leggatt (New Westminster): Mr. Speaker, I rise under the provisions of the same Standing Order. In view of the information revealed in last night's excellent CBC special on organized crime concerning, particularly, the Hong Kong connection, and in view of the fact that ex-Hong Kong police officers Lui Luk, Choi Bing Lung, Chen Cheung You, Nam Cong and Hon Sum have—the Five Dragons—received landed immigrant status in Canada and that extradition proceedings have been sought against Nam Cong, I would move, seconded by the hon. member for Nanaimo-Cowichan-The Islands (Mr. Douglas):

That the Minister of Manpower and Immigration conduct an immediate inquiry into the circumstances of their admission to Canada to determine whether each individual has properly complied with all immigration rules, regulations and standards and, secondly, that the minister inquire whether any charges have been laid or are pending against these individuals in Hong Kong or elsewhere, and that the minister report to the House within two weeks from this date by way of a statement on motions so that the Canadian public can be reassured that the immigration service is not being subverted.

ADEQUACY OF RCMP RESOURCES TO COMBAT ORGANIZED CRIME—MOTION UNDER S.O. 43

Mr. Elmer M. MacKay (Central Nova): Mr. Speaker, I rise under the terms of Standing Order 43 to present a motion of urgent and pressing necessity. In view of the increasing awareness of the pervasive influence of organized crime in our country and the necessity for a greater priority by governments to counteract this alarming state of affairs, I move, seconded by the hon. member for Saskatoon-Biggar (Mr. Hnatyshyn):

That the Solicitor General and the Minister of Justice take steps to reassess the adequacy of resources available to the RCMP in terms of personnel and equipment, and examine the priorities whereby so many RCMP officers are engaged in the policing of municipal and provincial statutes rather than directing their expertise to a more pressing and urgent need, that is, the combatting of white collar and organized crime as well as intelligence activities.

Mr. Speaker: The motion requires unanimous consent before it can be put. Is there such consent?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Some hon. Members: No.
