

REV. A. J. LEBEAU.

Marieville.—REV. A. J. LEBEAU writes a cheerful report of his work in Marieville. The services are well attended; fifty to seventy-five French converts being usually present. The Night School has been re-opened and 10 or 12 young men, all Roman Catholics, are taking advantage of it to learn English, and then the Missionary devoutly hopes they will read something better than the mass book. Bro. Lebeau visited this summer his old home which he left 28 years ago, Mr. Therrien accompanied him. They visited a Protestant family who opened his house to their services. The gramophone attracted a company of 32 Roman Catholics. As there was a fitting occasion, Bro. Lebeau told them of the confession to God, contrasting it with confession to the Priest, and Bro. Therrien preached Christ unto them, it was a grand opportunity, faithfully improved; may God water the seed.

South
strain than comers hav
In all there
these, bein
their pastor
The report
especially at
to attend F
church mak
all purposes
own hands,
the Grande