

THE LEADERS FOR 1899

A Book That Will Live.

David Harum

By Edward Noyes Westcott.

Paper, 75 cents. Cloth, $1.25.

"One of the best sustained and most humorous stories yet produced on this side of the Atlantic."—Saturday Night.

A Book of French Canadian Stories and Sketches,

BONHOMME

By Henry Cecil Walsh.

Paper, 60 cents. Cloth, $1.25.

"Redolent of the soil, the spirit and the personality of Lower Canadian Life."—Canadian Home Journal.

How Twelve Churches Became One.

The Miracle at Markham

By Rev. Charles M. Sheldon.

Paper, 30 cents. Cloth, 50 cents.

"The Miracle at Markham" is said to be Mr. Sheldon's best.

By Harold Frederic.

Paper, 75c. Cloth, $1.25.

The Market Place

This last work of the noted Correspondent and Novelist, fated to posthumous publication, is said to be the most powerful he had written. "It is a great study of the world of finance which will probably rank with Zola's 'L'Argent.'"

A Double Thread

By Ellen Thorneycroft Fowler, author of "Concerning Isabel Carnaby."

Paper, 75 cents. Cloth, $1.25.

Miss Fowler's "Concerning Isabel Carnaby" was one of the most successful books of the past year. The London Speaker remarked of it: "'The novel of the season' will probably be the verdict upon this amazingly witty and brilliant story. The book positively radiates humor."

By A. W. Marchmont,
Author of
"By Right of Sword."

Paper, 60 cents
Cloth, $1.00

A Dash for a Throne

A book that will hold its own with the most interesting novels of the day.

—THE—

Two Standards

By Dr. Barry, author of "The New Antigone."

Paper, 75 cents. Cloth, $1.25.

"The descriptions are graphic and imaginative, the language is picturesque and fiery."—London Daily News

The Cruise of the Cachalot

Round the World after Sperm Whales. By Frank T. Bullen, First Mate. Illustrated.

Paper, 75 cents. Cloth, $1.25.

RUDYARD KIPLING wrote the author: "It is immense—there is no other word. I've never read anything that equals it in its deep sea wonder and mystery. . . . It's a new world you've opened the door to."

The Cross Triumphant

By Florence M. Kingsley, author of "Titus," "Stephen," etc.

Paper, 60 cents. Cloth, $1.00.

Worthy of the excellent series to which it forms a complement.

WILLIAM BRIGGS, Publisher, 29-33 Richmond Street West.