HIGHER PAY FOR THE STORE GIRLS

Minimum Wage Set by Board in S. k. chewan $9.50, Rising to $12.50 Before End of a Year

Regina, Sask., July 29.—Minimum wages for female employees in retail stores in Saskatchewan have been fixed at $9.50 for beginners during the first three months, $10.50 the next three months, $11.50 the third three months, and $12.50 for the balance of the first year. Thereafter the employees are to be deemed experienced and to receive a minimum wage of $15 a week. The hours of work are to be forty-eight. These were the decisions announced tonight by the Saskatchewan Minimum Wage Board, following sittings at which evidence was heard at Moose Jaw, Prince Albert, Saskatoon and Regina.

Out of 689 adult women and girls reported employed in this class of work in this province, 841 are being paid wages from $6 to $15 a week, and a large proportion will have their pay automatically increased when the board's order becomes effective, which will be about the middle of September. Provision is made for an extension of the hours of work under special circumstances, when permits may be issued by the secretary of the board not to exceed thirty-six days in any one year. The minimum of $15 is higher for those in effect in the other western provinces, the figure being $12 in Manitoba, $12.75 in British Columbia and $8 in Alberta.

The board will meet again to fix hours and minimum wages in other classes of employment provided for in the act.

RECENT WEDDINGS

Stevens-Morrell.

In the Baptist church at Springfield, N. B., on July 16, Gertrude T. Morrell, daughter of Anna Jane and the late Solomon Morrell, was united in marriage to Fay O. Stevens, of Lancaster, N. H. The service was performed by Rev. J. E. Gosline, pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. J. Shand, pastor of the Methodist church, Belleisle Station. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Edith Morrell, of Cambridge, Mass., and the groom was supported by Avar C. Northrup, a nephew of the bride. After a short honeymoon trip they returned to Belleisle Station, where a reception was given in their honor by Mrs. E. A. Northrup, a sister of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Stevens will reside in New Hampshire.

The marriage of Elijah Shaw of Bath (N. B.) and Mrs. Adelia I. Currie, formerly of Bath, was solemnized at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the residence of George W. Currie, 76 Queens street, Rev. S. S. Pugh, of the German street Baptist church, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Shaw will make their home in Bath.

RECENT DEATHS

Alexander Duncan.

The death of Alexander Duncan, who for many years was a faithful employ of the C. N. R. in St. John, occurred yesterday. Mr. Duncan had been in poor health for a long time but he bore his sufferings with great patience. He was the only son of the late Stephen Duncan, of this city. He is survived by his wife, one daughter, Miss Marion, two sons, James and Frederick, all at home and one sister, Mrs. John Willis, of Amherst (N. S.), besides a number of relatives. He has many friends who will mourn his death.

Many friends in St. John and elsewhere will hear with regret of the death of Mrs. Eliza J. Payne, which occurred yesterday at 70 Wentworth street. Deceased was a highly respected resident and leaves one daughter, Mrs. Logan, two sons, Ernest B. McDonald, of St. John and Albert E. of San Francisco. One brother and one sister also survive. The funeral services have been arranged for Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. The body will be taken to Chipman for burial Wednesday morning.

The death of Rev. Canon F. S. Sills occurred in Cohoes, New York, recently. He was formerly of this city, having been assistant to Rev. Canon DeVeber at St. Paul's previous to 1884.

TWINS CELEBRATE 68TH BIRTHDAY

Penobscot, July 26.—On Wednesday Mrs. Elkanah Hall of Penobscot celebrated her sixty-eighth birthday. A unique feature of the celebration was the presence of her twin sisters, Mrs. Thomas Taylor of Salisbury. It is seldom that twins of their age both live to hold their sixty-eighth birthday anniversary under the same roof tree.

Among those present, beside the immediate members of the family, were her brother, William Chittick, Annapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Taylor, Salisbury; her other sisters, Mrs. Sarah Smith, Annapolis; Mrs. Emma Manning, Lowell, Mass.; and Mrs. Margaret Chittick, Penobscot; also Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Pearson, and Miss Carrie Hall, Sussex, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hall, Lonsdale.

An unusual fact was that it was also the birthday anniversary of the third member of the immediate family, her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Byron Hall.

The birthday cake was set in a wreath of sixty-eight roses and was jointly cut by the twin sisters. Their many friends wish them many happy returns of the anniversary.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

In further riots between white and colored people in Chicago yesterday, five of the former and two of the latter were reported killed.

Dr. P. J. Stryker, secretary to Cardinal Mercier, has arrived in New York to arrange for the visit of the Belgian prelate in September.

Mrs. Gladys Dunn pleaded guilty to manslaughter yesterday in St. John, Mass. She said she had intended to shoot herself following a quarrel with her husband. The bullet struck her child.

The Owen expedition to Labrador has arrived safely at Battle Harbor. A former St. John boy, Joseph Halpin, is with the party.

Arrangements have been made whereby the Prince of Wales will invest Royal Air Force members in Canada with decorations won in the war, but not yet received. It is announced that it will be accompanied by the Royal Marine Light Infantry Band.

Mayor Gray of Winnipeg gave evidence yesterday in connection with the trial of the eight strike leaders under arrest there, saying the strike committee had ruled the city for ten days.
