SNOOKUMS AT THE OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT

Come and See The Newlyweds-Fun Galore; Bright Music

The musical comedy of "The Newlyweds and Their Baby" will be presented at the Opera House tonight for the first time in St. John. The characters are familiar to local people, to readers of the comic supplements where the doings of "their only child" have caused roars of laughter. It is even more humorus to see the characters from George McManus' cartoons in real life and as depicted in the comedy in question, they are mirth-provoking indeed.

The company carries a particularly bright and pleasing chorus of pretty girls and dancers, and the various song numbers interpolated add to the enjoyment of the piece. There are still some choice seats remaining for tonight's production, and if you want to have one good long laugh for two hours or more, just help yourself.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rupert and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morrison, of Boston, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gillen, at their home, 23 Victoria street.

John A. Kinsella has returned home after a visit to Montreal, where he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Ross.

Husband—"Are you aware, my dear, that it takes three-fourths of my salary to meet your dressmaker's bills?"

Wife—"Good gracious! What do you do with the rest of your money?"

When a circus refused to pay its license to the city of Kenosha, Wis., Mayor Head rang in a fire alarm and turned the hose on the circus parade. The license was soon paid.
