

NEWS OF DAY, HOME AND ABROAD

Commercial League. In the City League tonight the Wanderers will roll the Imperials.

Victoria Alleys. On the Victoria alleys last evening Howard and Tufts took five points from Berton and McLeod.

In the second game, Johnston and Simpson took three points from Labbe and Featherstone.

These two teams made the same pitfall, 83, and therefore only five points were available.

In the two-men league Berton and McLeod will roll Howard and Tufts tonight.

Shirley Peters won the daily roll-off in the Victoria bowling alleys yesterday with the total of 117.

BASKETBALL. Game Last Night. The St. Andrew's church team defeated the team of the St. John (Stone) church, at a game of basketball last night.

The St. Johns and Caledonians will meet tomorrow afternoon on the Maritime grounds in the St. John and District Soccer League match, and an interesting struggle is expected.

Football. To Meet Tomorrow. The St. Johns and Caledonians will meet tomorrow afternoon on the Maritime grounds in the St. John and District Soccer League match.

Nationals. The St. John's and Caledonians will meet tomorrow afternoon on the Maritime grounds in the St. John and District Soccer League match.

Table with 3 columns: Name, Score 1, Score 2. Includes McLeod, Campbell, Cosgrove.

Table with 3 columns: Name, Score 1, Score 2. Includes Berton, McLeod, Johnston, Simpson.

Table with 3 columns: Name, Score 1, Score 2. Includes Labbe, Featherstone.

Table with 3 columns: Name, Score 1, Score 2. Includes Howard, Tufts.

Table with 3 columns: Name, Score 1, Score 2. Includes Shirley Peters.

Table with 3 columns: Name, Score 1, Score 2. Includes St. Andrew's, St. John.

Table with 3 columns: Name, Score 1, Score 2. Includes St. Johns, Caledonians.

Table with 3 columns: Name, Score 1, Score 2. Includes St. John's, Caledonians.

Table with 3 columns: Name, Score 1, Score 2. Includes St. John's, Caledonians.

Table with 3 columns: Name, Score 1, Score 2. Includes St. John's, Caledonians.

Table with 3 columns: Name, Score 1, Score 2. Includes St. John's, Caledonians.

WINONA ARROW Notch COLLAR 2 for 25 cents

EVERYBODY'S DOING IT!-- DOING WHAT? BUYING THEIR Suits and Overcoats AT THE 20% Discount Sale!

BRAGER'S CASH STORE 185 and 187 Union Street

The Mirror of Fashion Ward & Cronin MEN'S TOGGERY

man, A. Spearman, D. McCrae Miller, Robertson, Burton and Shepherd.

At a meeting of the golf and tennis clubs held this evening, with First Vice-President A. E. Jones in the chair, the prizes won during the season were presented.

Dullin cup, presented by H. V. Dalling--Won by W. M. McCaughey.

Men's championship cup, presented by A. D. Holyoke--Won by J. S. Creighton.

Ladies' championship cup--Won by Mrs. A. D. Holyoke.

Men's bogie match--Won by A. D. Holyoke.

Ladies' tennis championship, cup presented by B. M. Hay--Won by Mrs. H. G. Deedes.

Men's championship, cup presented by A. D. Holyoke--Won by Charles Jones.

BASEBALL. Exhibition Series. New York, Nov. 20--A spring exhibition series between the New York American League and the Brooklyn National League teams was arranged today.

The Brooklyn. New York, Nov. 20--Wilbert Robinson, new manager of the Brooklyn National League team, announced his training plan for next season at a luncheon attended by officers of the Brooklyn club today.

Agree on Tender. Governor Tener's term of office as governor will not expire until January 1, 1916, so if he is elected to a second term he will serve only one year.

ATHLETIC. The English Problem. Oxford, Nov. 21--A. N. S. Jackson, dean of Oxford University athletics and treasurer of the Oxford University Athletic Club, denies that the new rules limiting the eligibility of Rhodes scholars to compete in the university sports are the direct outcome of recent victories by students.

TURF. For a New Type. New York, Nov. 21--C. K. G. Billings of New York, owner of the champion trotter "Ellen," 1:28, and other famous champions of the grand circuit, has purchased from Vermont farms four high bred Morgan mares, with a view to developing a new and distinct type of an American trotter.

WAISTCOATS. ("Kit" in November Canada Monthly). The Suffragettes are gradually gaining ground. Mrs. Pankhurst has decided that militant methods must be abandoned, and a Castle of Pease, so to speak, is erected upon a Collar of War.

embroidered with golden bees, worn by Queen Elizabeth's Essex, or with Jos. Sedley's magnificent crimson satin sewed with gold butterflies, or with the great and good Dr. Johnson's vest of scarlet and gold lace which he wore the first night of "Fanny".

These were waists as were waists. Which reminds us of Dickens. The cult of the waistcoat is a favorite one with the Genius of London.

But what were those in splendor as compared with the scarlet waistcoat, embroidered with golden bees, worn by Queen Elizabeth's Essex, or with Jos. Sedley's magnificent crimson satin sewed with gold butterflies, or with the great and good Dr. Johnson's vest of scarlet and gold lace which he wore the first night of "Fanny".

How Do You Like This Overcoat? It's the Fit-Reform "BLIZZ"

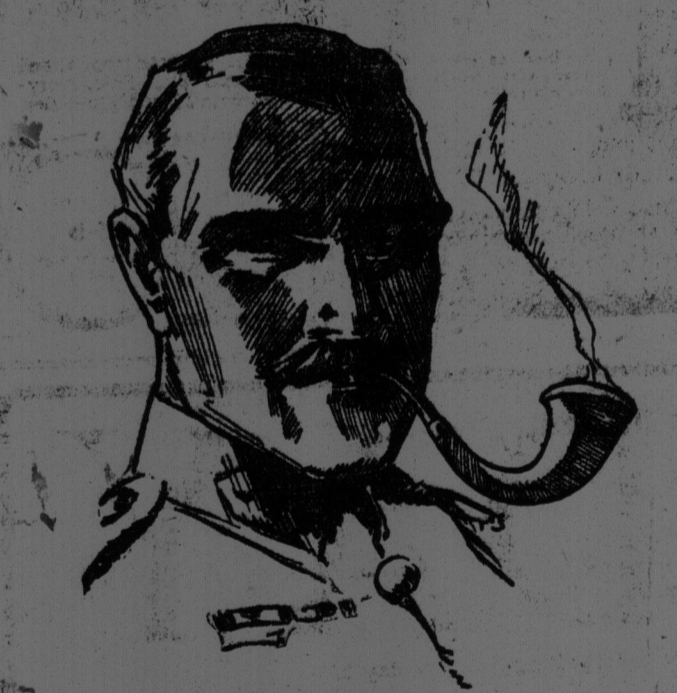

A storm defier—a protector against wind and weather. Yet, as you see, it is an extremely smart, dressy Overcoat for any wear.

The convertible collar makes it doubly useful, as well as doubly attractive.

If you prefer a Combination Overcoat like the "Blizz", we are sure to suit your ideas of color and effect with our Chinchillas, Naps, Whitneys, Heather Mixtures and Scotch and Irish Tweeds.

We have these big, roomy, comfortable Overcoats, as low as $15—and up to $40.

Henderson & Hunt, St. John.

Tuckett's "Our Seal"

In "piping times of peace," or "fighting off a sea of troubles," a pipeful of "Our Seal" is a genial comforter, an unfailing friend.

10 cents a package

AT THE NEAREST TOBACCO SHOP MADE BY TUCKETT'S, HAMILTON

BRETTON A new White Satin Striped Madras Collar Higher than the popular Badminton. Unmatched for beauty and comfort.

Geo. F. Ide & Co., Makers, TROY, N. Y. Creators of Smart Styles in Collars and Shirts over forty pronounced irreconcilable "without his right waistcoat." Once when giving one of his famous readings, Dickens appeared in a white and black or magpie waistcoat which created a strong sensation.

Not satisfied with his own, and Sam Weller's waistcoats, Dickens once wrote to Macready about one. "You wore it," he says "in 'Money'."

These were waists as were waists. Which reminds us of Dickens. The cult of the waistcoat is a favorite one with the Genius of London.

But what were those in splendor as compared with the scarlet waistcoat, embroidered with golden bees, worn by Queen Elizabeth's Essex, or with Jos. Sedley's magnificent crimson satin sewed with gold butterflies, or with the great and good Dr. Johnson's vest of scarlet and gold lace which he wore the first night of "Fanny".

These were waists as were waists. Which reminds us of Dickens. The cult of the waistcoat is a favorite one with the Genius of London.

But what were those in splendor as compared with the scarlet waistcoat, embroidered with golden bees, worn by Queen Elizabeth's Essex, or with Jos. Sedley's magnificent crimson satin sewed with gold butterflies, or with the great and good Dr. Johnson's vest of scarlet and gold lace which he wore the first night of "Fanny".

These were waists as were waists. Which reminds us of Dickens. The cult of the waistcoat is a favorite one with the Genius of London.

But what were those in splendor as compared with the scarlet waistcoat, embroidered with golden bees, worn by Queen Elizabeth's Essex, or with Jos. Sedley's magnificent crimson satin sewed with gold butterflies, or with the great and good Dr. Johnson's vest of scarlet and gold lace which he wore the first night of "Fanny".

These were waists as were waists. Which reminds us of Dickens. The cult of the waistcoat is a favorite one with the Genius of London.

But what were those in splendor as compared with the scarlet waistcoat, embroidered with golden bees, worn by Queen Elizabeth's Essex, or with Jos. Sedley's magnificent crimson satin sewed with gold butterflies, or with the great and good Dr. Johnson's vest of scarlet and gold lace which he wore the first night of "Fanny".

These were waists as were waists. Which reminds us of Dickens. The cult of the waistcoat is a favorite one with the Genius of London.

But what were those in splendor as compared with the scarlet waistcoat, embroidered with golden bees, worn by Queen Elizabeth's Essex, or with Jos. Sedley's magnificent crimson satin sewed with gold butterflies, or with the great and good Dr. Johnson's vest of scarlet and gold lace which he wore the first night of "Fanny".

These were waists as were waists. Which reminds us of Dickens. The cult of the waistcoat is a favorite one with the Genius of London.

But what were those in splendor as compared with the scarlet waistcoat, embroidered with golden bees, worn by Queen Elizabeth's Essex, or with Jos. Sedley's magnificent crimson satin sewed with gold butterflies, or with the great and good Dr. Johnson's vest of scarlet and gold lace which he wore the first night of "Fanny".

These were waists as were waists. Which reminds us of Dickens. The cult of the waistcoat is a favorite one with the Genius of London.

But what were those in splendor as compared with the scarlet waistcoat, embroidered with golden bees, worn by Queen Elizabeth's Essex, or with Jos. Sedley's magnificent crimson satin sewed with gold butterflies, or with the great and good Dr. Johnson's vest of scarlet and gold lace which he wore the first night of "Fanny".