LADIES' MISSIONARY ASSOCIATION.

The Ladies Missionary Association has suspended its ordinary work for raising money for local purposes, during part of the last year, in favour of a more general effort, in which it was hoped the whole congregation would join, for paying the floating debt, of long standing, now happily cancelled. Its receipts have, therefore, been only $27.95.

The more important part of its work, collecting for the "Schemes of the Church" has, however, been regularly carried on, and $808 for Missions, &c., been raised by its collectors.

E. MOWAT, Secretary L.M.A.
