Studebaker
Established 1898Economy is Cost Divided by TimeThe reason why the Studebaker Four is the most economical four is because of the extra quality, the extra safety, the extra power, the extra low upkeep.Extra safety means the extra feature of strength which takes the strain of the shock which wrecks the small cheap car.Extra power means smooth, vibrationless operation, not the jarring, jerking, racking strains of over exerted power.Extra low upkeep is the sum of the advantages mentioned above, and it is the sum of economy, and that is why Studebaker believes it is better to put a little more money and a great deal more quality in manufacturing a car like the Series 18 at $1375, and at the same time give you genuine leather upholstery and the same quality of fittings and equipment that you find in cars costing more than twice as much as the Studebaker Four.We repeat that the Studebaker Series 18 is the most economical four in the world.

ald Tracey, who was in the police court yesterday, was not charged with drunk-ness, but only with assault.ICE GIVING WAYTraffic across the ice on the Kennebecasis river from Millerville to Somerville and Baywater has been suspended owing to the risk involved. The ice is badly honeycombed and is hardly strong enough to sustain the weight of pedestrians. Indications are that if mild weather continues it will soon break up. Daily large quantities of ice come down the St. John river.MICHAEL McLEODMany will learn with regret of the death of Michael McLeod, a well known grocer of Main street, which occurred early this morning in the General Public Hospital. Mr. McLeod, who was ill but a short time. He was about sixty-three years old and is survived by one brother, John McLeod of this city. The funeral will take place on Saturday morning from the residence of his brother, 87 Main street.RECEPTION AT MANOR HOUSEMrs. MacLaren Brown, the distinguished guest of the Women's Canadian Club, will be the guest at a reception at the Manor House at Glen Falls this afternoon at half-past four and members of all the patriotic societies will have an opportunity to meet her.
H. A. Powell, representing the Women's Canadian Club, will receive and other ladies will assist at that promise to be the most interesting and enjoyable affair.MRS. MARY WILLIAMSWord of the death of Mrs. Mary Williams, which took place at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Yuskowsky, in Brooklyn, N. Y., on March 19, was received here last evening. She was recently a resident of this city and moved to Boston some twenty years ago. She had been in poor health for some time. She is survived by two sons, Michael of New York and Louis of Boston, and four daughters, Mrs. Thomas McDonald of East Boston, Mrs. Charles Deane of Boston, Mrs. Frank Hobbs of East Boston, and Mrs. Yuskowsky of Brooklyn.
Interment took place in Boston.DIED IN AMESBURYMany will learn with regret of the death of Mrs. Hartley McBeath, of Amesbury, Mass., a former resident of this city, which occurred at her residence yesterday afternoon. She removed to Amesbury twenty-two years ago with her husband. While residing in this city Mr. McBeath was an employee of the A.
G. Edgcombe carriage factory as a painter. Besides her husband, Mrs. Mc-Beath is survived by two daughters, Elizabeth M. at home, and Miss Jean M. now studying nursing in a hospital in Haverhill, Mass. Mrs. R. D. Lewis of this city, is a sister-in-law. She will leave this evening for Amesbury to attend the funeral.FUNERALSThe funeral of Hugh J. McElroy took place this morning from his late residence, 608 Main street, to St. Peter's church, where high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. Peter Costello, C.
S. R. Interment was made in the new Catholic cemetery.The funeral of Mrs. Bridget Ferris took place this morning from the residence of her son-in-law, I. C. Brown, 228 City road, to the Cathedral, where high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. Miles P. Howland. Interment was made in the new Catholic cemetery.The funeral of Mrs. Jennie Devine took place this afternoon from her late residence, Prince William street. Services were conducted by Rev. W. Brown and interment was made in Fernhill.THE CITY-WIDE MISSIONSThe Methodist churches of the city are throwing themselves enthusiastically into the city-wide mission effort. Last evening the attendance at the services, particularly at Queen square, Esmouth street and Portland was unusually large while at Centenary, Carmarthen street and Zion above the average number were present.The pastor for the most part conducted by their own services, but were assisted by their officials and choir. Rev.
Neil McLaughlin reports a profitable altar consecration service and Rev.
Hammond Johnson mentions that several persons made confession of their desire to live a better life. The services at Carleton and Fairville are also being well attended. In the latter place a union service was held in the Methodist church, which was addressed by Rev. Percy R. Hawson.FAIRVILLE W. M. S. MEETINGYesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock a meeting of the Fairville W. M. S. was held at the residence of Mrs. W. A.
Nelson, Manawagonish road, by the Fairville Methodist branch of the Missionary Society, and was well attended.
Mrs. Gilbert Earle, president, occupied the chair, and after devotional exercises conducted by Mrs. I. O. Beatty and Mrs. John Johnston, an illustrated map talk on "The Work in Canada and Japan" was given by Mrs. Hickson of Carleton, which proved very interesting and instructive.An appropriate reading, "The Story of Grandma's Thank Offering," was rendered by Mrs. Beatty and a clever paper by Mrs. E. A. Westmorland on "Sacrifice."The annual Easter offering in aid of missions was taken up the result being most satisfactory. During the afternoon Mrs. W. C. Good of St. John delighted the gathering with several vocal solos.Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the service.NEW I. O. G. T. LODGEOn Tuesday evening, March 27, Rev.
R. H. Staver gave a temperance lecture in the public hall, Midland, Kings county, N. B. Walter Baxter occupied the chair and introduced the lecturer. For about half an hour Mr. Staver used a stereopticon and threw on the screen slides showing the evil effects of tobacco and intoxicating liquors on the human system. At the close of the lecture an I. O. G. T. lodge was organized.
The work of organization was done by Heber Huggart, Murray Harmer, and Frank White. The following is the list of officers that were elected:—Lodge deputy, R. G. Price; chief templar, Anos Day; vice templar, Mrs. Bertha Price; past chief templar, Clarence Walker; recording secretary, Left St. John; assistant secretary, Miss Bernice Walker; treasurer, Miss Ethel McKenzie; financial secretary, Mrs. R. G. Price; chaplain, Merritt Jones; marshal, Walter Baxter; deputy marshal, Mrs. Herbert Sherwood; guard, Herbert Sherwood; sentinel, John Hall. This lodge starts off with a membership of thirty-five and gives great promise.MORE ABOUT THE NEW HEAD TAXIts Effect on Canadians Going to United StatesMATTER OF REFUNDThe $8 Will be Returned if Traveler Returns in 30 Days—Under Certain Conditions Tax Will Not be Enforced—A Suggestion of Way to Save TroubleSome days ago it was announced that on May 1 the American Immigration Department would put into effect a regulation under which all people entering the United States, other than American citizens, would be required to pay a head tax of $8.Some further information has since been received. We, in St. John, are particularly interested in its application to this city, and to the province of New Brunswick. It is learned that any Canadians well known to the inspectors and satisfying the officials that they do not intend to remain permanently in the United States, will not be required to pay the tax, but it will be required of all who are not known or who intend to remain permanently in the United States.On payment of the money, a refund receipt will be given. On this will be the name, description and other information about the person. If this receipt is presented on return to this country within thirty days the money will be refunded.The object of this tax is not known to local officials, they simply act on information. They express a desire to make the application of the order as easy as possible to all and for this reason they suggest that all people travelling to the United States should first call at the local office of the department at 89 Union street. By doing this, they will avoid questioning on the trains and possible detention if found not able to comply with the regulations.The new tax will be effective on May 1, unless orders to the contrary are received in the meantime, but meanwhile the suggestion of a call at the Union street office applies to all times.Ottawa, Ont., March 29—Some misunderstanding seems to exist as regards the proposed head tax on Canadians entering the United States. It is not a Canadian but an American regulation.
Heretofore foreigners entering the United States, excepting Canadians, have been subject to a head tax of $8. There has been no tax on Canadians or any person who had resided a year or more in the country. Under the new American regulations to take effect on May 1 the head tax is increased to $8 and it is understood that it may be applied to Canadians entering the United States for residence.Authorities here are in doubt as to the exact effect of the regulations, but it is understood that Canadians visiting the United States may obtain identification cards, otherwise they may have to pay the head tax, which will be refunded if they return within a certain specified period.The new tax is not yet in effect and not yet been applied of the regulations to be framed.PTE. W. J. NASH OF HAVERLOCK HAS GIVEN HIS LIFEWord reached the city yesterday that Private W. J. Nash of Haverlock, N. B., had been killed in action. Private Nash was a young Englishman and so far as known, had no relatives on this side of the water. He enlisted in Haverlock, Nov. 10, 1915, in an infantry battalion.
He had many friends in this city, who will regret to hear of his death.PRIVATE SOMERS MEETS DR. C. M. PRATT AT FRONTIn a letter received from the front from Pte. Wm. Somers to his wife at 49 Paradise row, he spoke of seeing Dr. C.
M. Pratt, of North End, and having a long chat with him; also some boys of the 28th Battalion, among whom was Wm. Mackay. Pte. Somers is enjoying good health, and also were all the St.
John boys whom he has seen so far.G. E. ROBERTS DIES SUDDENLYGeorge Edward Roberts of 88 Metcalfe street, while at his work last night in the Purdy & Green lime quarry in the Millerville road, died suddenly. He was apparently in the best of health when he left his home in the evening to go to work. About twelve o'clock he remarked to a fellow workman that he felt faint and he went over to a chair and sat down. No sooner had he reached the chair than he fell in a faint and died in a few minutes. The cause of death is thought to be heart trouble.Mr. Roberts is survived by two sons, Cecil W. and Clarence, both at home; four brothers, T. B. Roberts and F. P. of Fair Vale, and D. S. and W. W. of this city.Parke-Hughes.A quiet, but very pretty wedding, was solemnized last evening by Rev. R. P.
McKim at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Catherine E. Hughes, when her youngest daughter, Annie Kate Montgomery, was united in marriage to Melvin Wallace Parke.The bride was unattended, and was given away by her brother, Allan R.
Hughes. She was formerly employed in M. R. A's Ltd., and was suitably remembered by the young ladies in her department with a beautiful cut glass wedding set.The groom, who is local manager for Furnishers Limited, was given a silver wedding day by the bride, and also received a substantial check from the president, W. E. Earle. The young couple were also recipients of many beautiful presents of cut glass and silver.
Mr. and Mrs. Parke will reside in St.

ST. JOHN, N. B.WONDERSMISTAs the name implies, is a wonderful preparation, applied by a sprayer in the form of a mist, for the cleansing, polishing and beautifying of furniture, floors, wood-work of all kinds, marble, bronze; in fact, every surface which becomes dull and needs reviving.For use on automobiles it provides the quickest and most satisfactory method of polishing the highly finished surfaces and preserves their lustrous appearance to a remarkable degree.The method of applying makes it very economical, and a given quantity goes four times as far as other liquids applied in the ordinary way.
