owards settling nd it to you, torich I should be for the cost ly, whatever it the captain's

be as serious

manager for and departed. colleagues on board id not offer he paused proceed in his right the other somewhat wearing a go paid but eet and be-

was walkstruck

man when I e said to him-stopped at a ood for some he contents. reet was reas a mirror. can be his swear I've d on a few

turn, also ore to make ank what he g my footsteps

the print shop before, and ito a narrow tht him into y dingy ofthe further de his way. nd while the e looked out t disappointllowing him ridge left the a discussion inexplicable rowbridge to o know what g. Surely he the man who message? By if so, what ppeared and r to make up him, he hail-ne driver take In less than detective the interest called "The e letter he y his movethat the anwn into your ehold had reggest that the neighborhood What seems to at they should at all. If your South America, uld they have ret, especially y that he was een following an your move-uly solution I ed to get you does that strike hing in it," Jack end, however, to dle. The whole in make neither not seem to be arked the ofe man is who d his reasons. plished, we way a little t surrounds ility he will ere. You are he does not es not." Jack tackle him lisappeared. quierly as I

er. "If you ee the length seen by any-another room window. He nd down but. sign of the man

he said. "He

for the time be ment," said the keep watch outside your hotel ft the room, and when he returnccompanied by a quiet, solemn master rather than a detective. perior briefly furnished him with of the case, after which Jack m as good a description of the was to watch, as he could well must keep your eye on him until it who he is and where he hails and then report to me," said the ective. "You say you are returnon, Mr. Trowbridge, by the

and I will show you the man hat is my intention, unless it is ne-In that case I will willingly 33 postpone your journey," said the ... "We cannot take any action stothis man even if we do find out ele affair. If my surmises are ot he will watch you until you leave, then communicate the fact of your rn to the South, to those who are fter thanking the detective for his made his way down the street he look-This caused him to wonder her he had not been mistaken in sing that the other had been wing him. When in the middle of mcheon, however, he chanced to other side of the street, be felt I that his original supposition was t. The house immediately behind lower was a restaurant, and, seata table at the window, Jack obdetective, whose services had been er he had finished his meal he e his way to the writing room, where Then, having signed a cheque n in favor of the Mitcham Steam-Company, he placed it in an en-, together with the telegram, and ched it to their offices by one of the el servants. Then he was at liberty isport himself as he pleased until the should arrive for him to make his to the railway station. How to se himself he did not know, but attually he left the hotel, engaged a cab, and informed the driver that he and half while he space of an ur and a half. While he was giving cabman his directions, he glanced tally across the street and noticed at his shadower had become aware of

Then he entered the cab and drove off, I in an aimless fashion explored street fter street, made the acquaintance of a ariety of shipping, a large number of savory back streets, and at last found "If you like to wait for ten minutes ou can drive me to the railway station," id Jack to his cabman. "I shan't be er than that." 'All right, sir," said the man, touch-

As Jack observed, there was someone else waiting too. The little man in the coat had made his appearance on opposite side while he was speaking, vas now staring into a shop window, preparatory to buying all it conpavement, and on the same side as hotel, talking to the constable on the was the detective from the policestation, who, from time to time, glanced at the man he was so carefully k made his way into the hotel, called for and settled his bill, tipped the r and hall porter, and, when his bag had been brought from his bedroom, made his way into the street. His spy the act of engaging a hansom as

Upon reaching the station he made inries as to the platform from which train would leave, and made his way fore the man he was expecting put in an appearance, followed by the The former, after having satisfied himself that he had not made a ake, seated himself by the book stall urning his head now and again in the awn up beside the platform. The de as if he were awaiting the arrival

Having procured all the literature he ld require for the journey, Trow-ge seated himself in a first-class carand lit a cigar. From his corner s able to see both men.

with one change and another it midnight by the time he Great Brackford. As may be gh he was, glad enough and tell his sister all that had during his absence from her. oor girl, had passed a miserable tunately the news he had been bring back with him was not of cter calculated to afford her morning he was smoking a pipe tudy when his butler entered with upon a salver. He glanced at it me of "Gonsaivez Ferdinand

(To be continued.)

tie agents of Germany have proof the Chilean battleship Capat and the armored cruiser Esand have offered to take over ships now being built in Europe

TIMES FASHION HINTS.

Swell Monte Carlo coat of French broadcloth in a delicate shade of biscuitcolor. It has the full baggy sleeves so much in vogue for garments of this sed the telegram suggested by, description, with shaped cuffs, ending in points. Around the lower end of the anager of the Mitcham Steamship coat there is a wide band of heavy lace, which is also used for trimming the In it he asked the captain of sleeves. Broad straps of this linen lace extending over the shoulders, ending in Marwhal to post a notice requesting of this fine lace extending over the shoulders, ending in an appliqued design of grapes and leaves. The hat worn with the coat is of white beaver with a lace crown. It is trimmed beneath the upturned brim his absence was causing the keen- with a wreath of white velvet poppisa-

Theatre waist for a young girl, in an effective combination of pale pink and black. 'The foundation of taffeta is covered with rufiles of chiffon edged with He had not been there many narrow black velvet. The waist is made in blouse style, with a yoke and bishop sleeves, and fastens at the back.

The yoke, cuffs and fitted girdle are decorated with rows of narrow velvet ribben, and the yoke is finished with medallions of black lace.

BUILDING SOCIETY MET.

The Annual Meeting of the Victoria Organization on Saturday

Organization on Saturday Evening.

The Victoria Building Society held friends are asked to kindly provide the its fifteenth annual general meeting on sweets and jellies as on former occasions. Saturday night in Sir William Wallace of arrangement, and will contain a new ph office.

Swiring his friends that I have iverpool," he said to himself. "I rif the police will be able to find he those friends are?"

Northost; vice-president, Ald. Stewart; secretary-treasurer, A. St. G. Flint; auditors, J. E. Church and W. Scowcroft; directors, G. A. Carleton, W. J. Anderson, and for the time heing, at least, and for the time heing.

solicitors, Fell & Gregory.

The 88th and subsequent drawings resulted as follows: 236 A and B, John Creed: 236 C and D, withdrawn; 61 D, Ald. Goodacre; 61 A, B and C, with-and for the time being, at least, son, W. Atkins, Geo. W. Anderson, and land for the past.

John Fullerton; surveyor, John Taylor; fined to the Native Sons alone, but all OFFICERS INSTALLED.

Local+Rews. GLEANINGS OF CITY AND PROVINCIAL NEWS IN A GONDENSED FORM.

-Mrs. John W. Pattison died at St. Joseph's hespital Friday. She was a native of Lincolnshire, England, and 2 years old.

The following are the officers of the postmaster at Extension. Victoria Literary Society for the ensuing year: President, Rev. J. H. S. Sweet; vice-president, Capt. Clarke; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Hardie. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. Hardie's residence, Belleville street, on February the machinery. The mill will be com-17th.

-Hon, W. W. B. McInnes will proba-Hon, W. W. B. McInnes will probably leave on Sunday evening for West Yale, where it is said he will take part in the preliminary arangement for the election campaign in the interests of Dr.

—The regular weekly meeting of Victoria ledge, No. 1, I. O. O. F., was held on Friday evening, when the first degree election campaign in the interests of Dr. Sanson, Nomination will be held on Samson. Nomination will be held on Friday the second and third degrees will February 19th, to be followed by the be given. election on February 26th.

simple affair, and consists of a short length of lumber about two inches thick, in which a number of anger holes of an inch diameter are sunken. The grease containing the poison is placed in these holes, and the device fastened where required. The openings allows of rats eating from them, but are too small to enable a dog to take any out.

—The Fernwood Athletic Association have deedled to signer another, dance in the A. O. G. W. hall. It will take place on the 11th of Perbrary, and will be carried out largely upon the lines of the former dance. The committees having it in charge are as follows: Decoration, it is nearly a decided to signer another. However, the carried out largely upon the lines of the former dance. The committees having it in charge are as follows: Decoration, it is nearly a decided to give another. However, the mustellished colors by the Fifth Regiment, R. A. Dalby, Thrail and A. Marronnini, programme, A. Peden and P. Marchant; Goor, Marchani, A. Peden and M. Marconnini, programme, A. Peden and P. Marchant; Goor, Marchani, A. Peden and M. Misson, Ohly a limited number of the constituent was won by the J. B. A. A. A freed and M. Misson, Ohly a limited number of the constituent of S07,900 for ordinary appropriation of $60,000 for new school buildings. This is really a new school buildings. This is really a ordinary appropriation of $50,000 for new school buildings. This is really a modest request beside that handed to the Vancouver council by the school board of that city. They have asked for $98,000 for ordinary expenses and $125,-800 for buildings, $90,000 of which is to be expended on a new High school, Victoria's total for ordinary and extraor-

-The Victoria No 2 Building Society held its first annual meeting Friday in the Pioneer hall. J. H. MacLaughlin in the Pioneer hall. J. H. MacLaughlin presided, and a large number of members were in attendance. A gratifying financial statement was submitted, and bers were in attendance, A gratifying financial statement was submitted, and the following officers elected: President, P. R. Brown; vice-president, J. H. Mac-Laughlin; directors, P. R. Brown, J. H. MacLaughlin, J. Forman, Charles R. Gardiner, P. J. Riddell; secretary-treasurer, A. St. G. Flint (re-elected); auditors, F. Elworthy and J. E. Church.

Thursday handed down by Mr. Justice
Martin on a motion to declare H. H.
Jones, the purchaser of the Blakeley at the marshal's sale, and to charge him with loss on a subsequent resale which was rendered necessary by his repudiation of this purchase. It was contended that a further order should have been made before resale took place, that there was no contract on Mr. Jones's part, and no written evidence of it to satisfy the ing particularly anxious to eclipse all former attempts.

The supper committee has arranged with a well known caterer, with 27 assistants, to take entire charge of this important department, and the lady important department, and the lady in the lady in the lady is sistants. The court over-ruled these objections and ordered Mr. Jones to pay the loss of $100, the expenses and costs, amounting to $170, and the cost of the motion. L. Bond for plaintiffs, Frank Laughton, H Buckle and L. Agassiz.

The remains of the late Mrs. John W. ing particularly anxious to eclipse all to written evidence of jobses part, and on Sunday afternoon from the family former attempts.

The court over-ruled these objects and on Sunday afternoon from the family residence at 2 o'clock. There was a very

-Passengers by Thursday's Charmer were entertained in a delightful manminutes later the porters were upon passengers to take their upon passengers to take their and 5ack had the pleasure of see spy make his way towards the photofice.

The following officers were re-elected with the polar two steps by a young Native Son, and will contain a new two-step by a young Native Son, and with critics say is one of the very best dividend of $2 a share was declared above all expenses.

The programme will be published in a week's time.

The general committee meets next Friday were, were George, Fred, Arthur and Ernest Percitained in a dengatrul manner on the voyage down from the Terminal City by a quartefit of little singers from far off Wales. The boys, for such they were, were George, Fred, Arthur and Ernest Percitained in a dengatrul manner on the voyage down from the Terminal City by a quartefit of little singers from far off Wales. The boys, for such they were, were George, Fred, Arthur and Ernest Percitained in a dengatrul manner on the voyage down from the Terminal City by a quartefit of little singers from far off Wales. The boys, for such they were, were George, Fred, Arthur and City by a quartefit of little singers from far off Wales. The programme will be published in a week's time. from far off Wales. The boys, for such they were, were George, Fred, Arthur and Ernest Petch, and have come to Victoria to rejoin their father, a jeweller of this city. They were accompanied on their long journey by their mother and Miss Wallace, of Belfast, Ireland, The committee wish their friends to know that the sale of tickets is not conare asked to join in making the event one to be long remembered.

Output

City. The boys belong to a family of seven, every one of whom are musicians their father is leader of the city. James church, James Bay. The eldest of the quartette referred to possesses a beautiful treble voice, while his bittle drawn; 223 A, B, C and D, Geo. Phillip Victoria Lodge, Loyal True Blue, Held an brothers take an alto part when all sing Interesting Session.

Ald. Goodnere; Ul. A. B. anu contact and D. Geo. Phillip Weller; 117 A. J. A. Thomson; 117 B. Mrs. Thomson, wife of the former; 117 B. Mrs. Thomson, wife of the former; 117 B. Mrs. Thomson, wife of the former; 117 B. Mrs. J. When the former is the former; 117 B. Mrs. J. When the former is the former; 117 B. Mrs. J. When the former is the former in the former is th at the same time wishing their late sec- JANUARY WAS LIGHT tary a pleasant voyage home to the Old Country.

-A meeting will be held in the assembly rooms of the High school on Friday evening, when steps will be taken Only Half a Dozen Alarms and No Loss The Full court did not sit on Saturfor the organization of an alumni asso---0--

-W. W. Southin has resigned the posiion of postmaster at Ladysmith. He will be succeeded it is expected by Cory S. Ryder, who has recently noved from Extension to that town. Mr. Ryder was

-The Ladysmith Lumber Company are opening a shingle mill in that town. The Schnake Machinery & Engineering

muir, M. P. P., yesterday, to ascertain his views upon the subject of building a railway to the north end of Vancouver Island. Mr. Dunsmuir expressed himself as heartily in favor of the scheme of building a railway, and said he would do all he could to assist in this work.

—The S. P. C. A. Society are distributing a number of the devices intended to be used in poisoning rats, and at the same time avoid the danger of dogs getting access to the poison. It is a very simple affair, and consists of a short length of lumber about two inches thick, in which a number of anner heles of an appointed to collect certain data relationship in which a number of anner heles of an appointed to collect certain data relationship is views upon the subject of building a railway to the north end of Vancouver Island. Mr. Dunsmuir expressed himself and A. Friend, reading matter: Mrs. Milligan, milk; Mrs. Minto, shirts; Messrs. D. Sepencer & Co., hats and socks.

D. Spencer & Co., hats and socks.

—On Tuesday, February 10th, an entertainment will be given under the autient of the month are as follows:

January 1st, 7.15 a.m., fire in Tait's hay barn on Moss street; cause, cow kicked over lamp; extinguished by No. 2; have been tried at the first tap of the beil. The appeared at the first tap of the month are as follows:

January 1st, 7.15 a.m., fire in Tait's hay barn on Moss street; cause, cow kicked over lamp; extinguished by No. 2; have been tried at the month are as follows:

January 1st, 7.15 a.m., fire in Tait's hay barn on Moss street; cause, cow kicked over lamp; extinguished by No. 2; have been tried at the first tap of the beil. The appeared at the first tap of the month are as follows:

January 1st, 7.15 a.m., fire in Tait's hay barn on Moss street; cause, cow kicked over lamp; extinguished by No. 2; have been tried at the first tap of the beil. The administration of the actions must be disminsed without appeared at the first tap of the month are as follows:

January 1st, 7.15 a.m., fire in Tait's hay barn on Moss street; ca

The death occurred at the Jubilee hos pital on Sunday of W. S. Mills, a native of Liverpool and 36 years of Deceased has been ailing for some time, having been at the Marine hospital for a number of months before go-ing to the Jubilee. He was the first dinary expenditure is $117,300; Vancouver's is about $223,000.

The Victoria No 2 Building Society living in England. The funeral argument for the submeter of a vessel which touched at this port, and leaves a widow and family living in England. The funeral argument for the submeter of the submeter of rangements have not yet been made.

Mrs. Helen M. Sparrow died Sun has not yet been arranged.

Miss Florence Nellie Mallette, youngest daughter of James and Mrs. Helen Mallette, died on Saturday afternoon at the residence, No. 5, Queen's avenue. Deceased had a wide circle of friends, and the news of her death came as a shock to all. She was a constant at The first drawing for an appropriation tendant at the Metropolitan church, and March. tendant at the Metropolitan character and the roung people who attend that the roung people who attend that -In Admiralty reserved judgment was

Thursday handed down by Mr. Justice
Again to the control of the land that building of boats worthy of upholding the second of the land that building of boats worthy of upholding the second of the land that building of boats worthy of upholding the second of the land that building of boats worthy of upholding the second of the land that building of boats worthy of upholding the second of the land that building of boats worthy of upholding the second of the land that building of boats worthy of upholding the second of the land that building of boats worthy of upholding the second of the land that building of boats worthy of upholding the second of the land that building of boats worthy of upholding the second of the land that building of boats worthy of upholding the second of the land that building of boats worthy of upholding the second of the land that building of boats worthy of upholding the second of the land that building of boats worthy of upholding the second of the land that building of boats worthy of upholding the second of the land that building of boats worthy of upholding the second of the land that building of boats worthy of upholding the second of the land that building of boats worthy of upholding the second of the land that building of boats worthy of upholding the second of the land that building of boats worthy of upholding the second of the land that building of boats worthy of upholding the second of the land that building of boats worthy of upholding the second of the land that building of boats worthy of upholding the second of the land that building of boats worthy of upholding the second of the land that building of boats worthy of upholding the second of the land that building of boats worthy of upholding the land that building of boats worthy of upholding the second of the land that building of boats worthy of upholding the second of the land that building of boats worthy of upholding the second of the land that building of boats worthy of the land

The remains of the late Mrs. John W. Pattison were laid to rest Monday morn-

MONTH FOR FIREMEN Deadman's Island Appeal Still in Pro-

- Returns of Customs Department.

light month, there having been only six in re M. B. Lang. deceased, the adminalarms. The blazes were minor ones, some of them being of freak erigin. For instance a refractory cow kicked over a lamp in a barn on Moss street on New Year's day out the changest apparatus.

ports for the month totalled $201,272, of which $27.819 represented free and programme of music being given. $173,453 dutiable goods. The revenue for the month was made up as follows: tic exports amounted to $37,092.

INTERNATIONAL YACHTING.

Favorably Considered.

Both Victoria and Vancouver are taking up the suggestion of Pacific coast international races with great enthusiasm. As Seattle yachtsmen were the first to take active steps in this direction it is but natural to suppose that the Americans are equally auxious to carry the write of great the auxious to carry the consist to a processful large. With both COWE—At Possiend the wife of Market Parket Resigned the wife of Market Re but hathral to suppose that the Americans are equally anxious to carry the project to a successful issue. With both the Canadian and American yachtsmen in favor of the proposition those interested may look forward to developments in the near future. Seattle as well as Tacoma is ready to go ahead with the brilding of heats worths and with the brilding of heats worths and with the brilding of heats worths. KHRKPATRICK—At Nelsen, on Jan. 23rd, the wife of J. A. Kirkpatrick, of a son. LOWE—At Rossland, the wife of W. E. D. C. Lowe, of a daughter. SPARR—At Victoria, on the 30th list, the wife of W. E. Starr, of a daughter.

cessary arrangements.

It is likely, if the proposal meets with the success ariticipated, that Vancouver and Victoria beats will first hold a series of races in order to decide which is en-

W. H. Langley, captain of the Victoria Yacht Club, has written to the Vancouver Province as follows:

k Reid, G. Wälliams, D. McCaskell, G.
Laughton, H. Buckle and L. Agrasiz.
The remains of the late Mrs. John W.
Pattison were laid to rest Monday morning, the funeral taking place from the parlors of W. J. Hanna at 10.15, and content in the columns of The Province as follows:

Early of W. J. Hanna at 10.15, and content in the columns of The Province of W. J. Hanna at 10.15, and content in the columns of The Province of W. J. Hanna at 10.15, and content in the columns of The Province of W. J. Hanna at 10.15, and content in the columns of The Province of W. J. Hanna at 10.15, and content in the columns of The Province of W. J. Hanna at 10.15, and content in the columns of The Province of W. J. Hanna at 10.15, and content in the columns of W. J. Hanna at 10.15, and content in the columns of W. J. Hanna at 10.15, and content in the columns of W. J. Hanna at 10.15, and content in the columns of W. J. Hanna at 10.15, and content in the columns of W. J. Hanna at 10.15, and content in the columns of W. J. Hanna at 10.15, and content in the columns of W. J. Hanna at 10.15, and content in the columns of W. J. Hanna at 10.15, and content in the columns of W. J. Hanna at 10.15, and content in the columns of W. J. Hanna at 10.15, and content in the columns of W. J. Hanna at 10.15, and the following acted as pall-bearers: Message and as alter of Westage and A. J. Hanna at 10.15, and the following acted as pall-bearers: Message and an alter of Portland Island, died at her home on Saturday last.

WHOLESALE MARKET.

The following quotations are Victoria wholesale prices paid for farm produce at this week:

WHOLESALE MARKET.

The following quotations are Victoria wholesale prices paid for farm produce this week:

Potatocs (new, per ton $8.00612.00

The following portland Island, died at her home on Saturday last.

The following quotations are Victoria wholesale prices paid for farm produce this week:

Potatocs (new, per ton $8.00612.00

The following quotations are Victoria wholesale prices paid for farm produce this week:

Potat

LEGAL NEWS.

gress-Applications Arising Out of Theft Case.

day. Hearing of appeal in the Deadman's Island case was adjourned from Friday until Monday, and is still proceeding. It will probably occupy the The fire department had an unusually Walkem in Chambers on Saturday was

The Schanke Machinery & Engineering
Co, of New Westminster, are to instal the machinery. The mill will be completed about the middle of March, and will be complete in every way.

The regular weekly meeting of Victoria ledge, No. 1, I. O. O. F., was held on Friday evening, when the first degree of Odd Pellowship was conferred. There
of Odd Pellowship was conferred. There
the given.

The manager of the Home for the lamp in a barn on Moss street on New Year's day and the chemical apparatus from number two hall was hurried to the scene. Portunately the fire was extinguished without any loss. Another rather peculiar blaze occurred at the comer of Oak Bay avenue and Cadboro Day road on January 10th. The electric wires became crossed and the lamp pole caught on fire. The pole is still there.

The simmbers of the department were radely disturbed early on the morning of the 20th by a leather-lunged Celestial Twho raised such a row in the rear of the election on February 26th.

—His Worship Mayor McCandless, Richard Hall, M. P. P., H. Dallas Helmcken, K. C., M. P. P., L. G. McQuade, president of the board of trade, and Simon Leiser, composed a delegation which waited upon James Dunsnuir, M. P. P., yesterday, to ascertain his views upon the subject of building a reilway to the north each of the Mome for the Twho raised such a row in the rear of the ball that the men thought the entire Chinese quarter was in the grip of an inextinguishable conflagration. When they arrived at the scene of the first and A Friend, reading matter; Mrs. Millouding and A Friend, reading matter; Mrs. Millouding and that the men thought the entire Chinese quarter was in the grip of an inextinguishable conflagration. When they arrived at the scene of the first are for damages, not for liquidated amounts, and that the Chinese quarter was in the grip of an inextinguishable conflagration. When they arrived at the scene of the first at the scene of the first at the scene of the following donations in January: Mrs. L. J. they arrived at the scene of the first at the scene of the following donations in January: Mrs. L. J. they arrived at the scene of the first at the scene of the following donations in January: Mrs. L. J. they arrived at the scene of the first at the scene of the following donations in January: Mrs. L. J. they arrived at the scene of the first are premature, since Kircheimer thanks the receipt of the following donations in January: Mrs. L. J. they arrived at the scene of the first are premature, since Kircheimer thanks the receipt of the following donations in January: Mrs. L. J. they are actions are for damages, not for liquidated amounts, and that the menthought the entire Chinese quarter was in the grip of an inextinguishable conflagration. When they are actions are for damages, not for liquidated amounts, and that the menthought the entire Chinese quarter was in the grip of an inextinguishable conflagration. When they are actions are for damages, not for liquidated amou

The directors of the Northern Pacific Duty, $48.767.18; Chinese, $17.758, and other collections, $185.90, making a total of $66,711.08. The foreign and domestic exports amounted to $37,092.

BIRTH. The Proposal to Hold Races Is Being GIFFORD-At Ledner, on Jan. 19th, the titled to represent British Columbia BURRAIOLDER PILLAR — On Tuesday, against the Americans.