MIXED METAPHOR.

Curious Cases of Confusion in Use of Figures of Speech Collected.

Curious instances of a misuse of tropes and other figures of speech by British parliamentary orators are not difficult to find in any collection of speeches from that source. Following are specimens from what were probably extemporaneous efforts: "Sir, we are told that by this legislation the heart of the country has been shaken to its very foundations." "I am only too thankful that we have removed one of these miserable barbed-wire entanglements and that we find ourselves in smooth waters at last." "The secretary of the education department was the father of a statement of which the bottom was knocked out by those who followed him in the second reading debate, yet the honorable member for St. Pancras has thought fit to trot it out again." "Among the many jarring notes heard in this house on military affairs, this subject at least must be regarded as an oasis." "The interests of the employers and employed are the same nine times out of ten—I will even say ninety-nine times out of ten." "Our tongues are tied, our hands are fettered and we are really beating the air to no purpose." "I will now repeat what I was about to say when the honorable member interrupted me." "The West Indies will now have a future which they never had in the past." "A thorny subject which has long been a bone of contention among us." "A slumbering volcano which at any moment a spark might set aflame." "The chancellor of the exchequer has denuded us of every rag of the principles which we have been proclaiming from the house." "Ah! The honorable member opposite shakes his head at that. But he can't shake mine!"

PREFERRED MARRIAGE TO EXAMS.

FREDERICTON, July 6.—Miss Winnie Fox, of Southampton, came here a couple of days ago to take the normal school entrance examinations. Her lover, Wm. J. McGuire, of Queensbury, followed her and persuaded the young lady to skip the exams and get married instead. She agreed and the ceremony was performed yesterday by the Rev. Willard McDonald. It appears that Mrs. McGuire is but 17 years old. Her parents have been opposed to her marriage, as they thought she was too young.

THE DAYLIGHT STORE.

Other things have happened at the park this year. The bears have been surrounded with a regular bower of flowers, the avenue leading to the park from Sandy Point road has been widened to a respectable width and there have been several picnics.

And now comes the worst of all: some one has seen a wild cat. What a miserable animal this wild cat must be to sneak about the park with all those signs staring it in the face. There are some, however, who say that the cat occasionally answers to the name of Tom and makes its home at the park barn.

Tonight there will be a big event. Two elderly gentlemen will participate in a matched race on the lake between 6 and 7 o'clock.

FISH MARKET.

The fish market tomorrow will be exceptionally well supplied, with prices moderate.

The retail quotations are as follows: Salmon—14 to 20 cents per pound. Halibut—10 to 15 cents per pound. Cod and haddock—5 cents per pound. Mackerel—12 and 15 cents each, scarce.

Shad—20 and 30 cents each. Boneless cod—12 cents per pound. Finest haddies—7 cents per pound.

The Fisheries Department have been having splendid luck of late, making large catches. One night this week four boats averaged 40 fine fish each.

THIS EVENING.

Meeting of the Fabian League, Banquet—Chippewa vs. Portland, Victoria grounds. Adjourned meeting of the Grand Temple of Honor of New Brunswick at eight o'clock.

A sub-committee of the common council, composed of Messrs. C. W. Ker and Maxwell with Director Cushing, have had under consideration for some time a new system of watering the streets. The new system of watering is the sprinkling of the streets by hose attached to hydrants. A test of the proposed system was made at two o'clock this afternoon at the water and sewerage office, corner Carnation street. The sub-committee will probably recommend the adoption of the system to the board of works.

NEWS FROM THE PARK.

Many Violations of the Law—Stories of a Wild Cat.

There has been lively summer at Rockwood Park, and a Policeman Knox has had his hands full. He has had several violators of the park laws in court and the magistrate has enlightened them on the seriousness of their acts, and as to the fine they were liable to. Several were summoned for allowing dogs to run at large, one man was accused of allowing four crows to pasture on park property, one and his case has not yet been heard, fished in the lake, and now the latest is a charge against Miss Helen Good, of 16 Elliott row, who Mr. Knox complains, broke a branch from ornamental tree in front of the restaurant.

Other things have happened at the park this year. The bears have been surrounded with a regular bower of flowers, the avenue leading to the park from Sandy Point road has been widened to a respectable width and there have been several picnics.

And now comes the worst of all: some one has seen a wild cat. What a miserable animal this wild cat must be to sneak about the park with all those signs staring it in the face. ## A QUEER STORY

Man Says He Was Chased by a

Crowd at Three O'clock in the Morning.

Charles Collins was the only occupant of the police court bench this morning. He was locked up between three and four o'clock this morning by Officer Silas Perry, charged with wandering about the streets and not giving a satisfactory account of himself.

Collins pleaded not guilty and explained that he had been to Fairville to spend the evening and on his way home had been held up by a crowd who had followed him to the City road and that he had appealed to the police for aid. He resided, he said, with his sister, on Winter street. He did not know who the parties were who chased him, but it given a chance could get witnesses to prove his statement.

Officer Perry said he met Collins on City road between two and three and he told him several people were chasing him. The officer made a search of the locality and saw Collins cross the Wall street bridge and enter Winter street. He did not see anybody in sight and later when he again found Collins on the City road he locked him up.

Collins was remanded.

COKE O'BRIEN AGAIN.

Well now Character Turns Up Again Looking Prosperous.

The good people of the city are entertaining in their midst a distinguished visitor, one who has at various times attracted considerable attention and has distinguished himself in many ways. The gentleman referred to is Joseph, better known as "Coke" O'Brien.

"Coke" arrived in the city at noon yesterday, fashionably attired and smoking a long cigar. He sported about all day and was again at it this morning. "Coke's" history is a remarkably checked one, but it is sufficient to relate his movements during the last year. He was locked up a number of times for various offenses. He escaped, walked to Musquash and there told some story that the people of that vicinity raised a purse for him and he continued his journey to Boston. There "Coke" prospered and during the winter he returned with ninety dollars in his pockets. He was arrested, but after being in jail for a few weeks was allowed his liberty. He was then to be taken to the workhouse, but he was not seen about St. John till yesterday.

DEBTORS MOURN.

J. L. Schiefer and Wife Said to Have Skipped to Parts Unknown.

J. L. Schiefer came to St. John some months ago and posed as a building contractor. His wife opened a millinery store on Waterloo street and for a time all went well. Now Schiefer and his better half are among the missing. He is supposed to have a number of creditors who would very much like to have a settlement with the Schiefers. Several large St. John concerns are out money, while one gentleman who does business up the line is $500 in the hole.

Schiefer secured the contract for the erection of the consolidated school at Kinston, and is said to have made a good job of it, at the expense of others. His wife secured several jobs. He and now there are liens on the buildings.

WEIGHT OF ICE.

Things to Remember So That You Can Break Even With the Ice Man.

"Humph! It doesn't look as if there were twenty pounds of ice in that chunk and it don't feel as if it weighed much either," remarked a lady the other day over in Fort Rouge as she took in the piece of dripping "cooling" block.

Many a person just now believes that the ice man is taking advantage of them and would be a wise idea for all who have no faith in the man with the tongue to take the following table up in their own minds. It will be a guide and will tell you exactly what size your block of ice ought to be if it is delivered in 15, 30 or 50 pound pieces:

15-pound piece—2x12x 1-4 inches; 10x 7x 1-2 inches; 11x7x 1-2 inches; 12x6x 1-4 inches; 12x6x 3-4 inches; 12x6x 1-2 inches.

30-pound piece—2x12x 1-4 inches; 10x11x 1-4 inches; 11x11x 1-2 inches; 11x11x 1-2 inches; 11x11x 1-2 inches; 11x11x 1-2 inches.

50-pound piece—2x12x 1-4 inches; 10x11x 3-4 inches; 11x11x 1-2 inches; 11x11x 1-2 inches; 11x11x 1-2 inches; 11x11x 1-2 inches.

CONSERVATIVE VICTORY.

LONDON, July 6.—A by-election yesterday at Chertsey to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John A. Pyle (conservative) resulted in the election of Lord Bingham (conservative), who polled 5,425 votes against 4,876 cast for Mr. Sadler, the liberal candidate.

The campaign was fought almost wholly on the question of admitting Chinese labor into the Transvaal.

GEN. BOOTH CHIDES CANADIANS.

LONDON, July 4.—The Canadian Salvationists sit together at the meetings at the Salvation Army Temple in the Strand, and when singing a hymn yesterday General Booth detecting that they sang a slightly different tune, instantly waved his hand to stop them and he said to the Canadians: "We will sing it your way when we come to your country. You must sing it with the band now."

Dr. John Kerr, in his new book of "Memoirs," recalls a number of humorous stories. Among them is a story of the "argumentatively" of Scott, who, calling on the minister and being told to go home and return the next day when he was sober, replied: "Man, minister, when I'm sober I dinna care a d—n for religious conversation."

ADMISSION TO THE U. S.

On July 1st this year, the United States immigration laws were slightly changed. One change, however, has been severely criticized. It is that which requires an alien, with the exception of natives of Canada, Mexico, Cuba and Newfoundland, to pay $2 before he can enter the country, whether he is on a short trip or intends to remain. A native born Englishman, Irishman or Scot who perhaps had resided in Canada for years would be required to pay.

Formerly any person who had lived for a year in Canada was looked upon by the American immigration authorities as Canadian. It was immaterial what country he claimed as his native land. If he spent a year here he could pass alone.

TOURIST INJURED.

Yesterday a gentleman and his wife who declined to disclose their identity and who are supposed to be tourists, called at Rippey's store on Union street, west side, to make some inquiries concerning Caledonia attractions. After leaving Mr. Rippey's store the gentleman referred to in some way sprained an ankle and was assisted to walk to the ferry boat.

BASBALL.

In the West End League last evening the Jubilees defeated the Shamrock by a score of 6 to 2, in one of the fastest games of baseball that has been played on the League grounds. The batteries for the Jubilees were the old reliable Lee and Cook, for the Shamrocks, Adams and Copeland. Tonight the C. A. A. and Martelloes will face each other.

Last evening the young men at Westfield and vicinity assembled in force and for a time made matters lively about Mr. Miles' residence in an effort to assure that gentleman and his wife of the best wishes for a prosperous and happy journey through life.

O'NEIL'S GOOD WORK.

The Boston Globe in its account of Tuesday's Boston-Washington game, says:

"O'Neill made the most brilliant fielding play on a long foul fly, which he nailed after a hard run. He was applauded by the fans, and a moment or two after, when Selbach struck out, the crowd renewed its roasting of the ex-senator."
