

How St. John People Celebrated Christmas

Monday an Ideal Holiday and Was Enjoyed to the Full.

Christmas Charity Particularly Noticeable -- How the Institutions Kept the Day -- Many Presentations.

Christmas was celebrated with appropriate ceremonies in the churches, the public institutions and the homes of the people, in the stately mansion possessed of historic interest, the pretentious villa of the suburbs and the attic rooms of the very poor.

Sunday came in, draped in the solemn colors of misty weather, the kind of day to emphasize the solemnity of home gaily decorated with evergreen, holly, laurel, ivy, mistletoe, with glittering Christmas trees, bright colored paper chains, the glow of candles and paper lanterns, and the radiant faces of the children.

At the Cathedral, high mass was celebrated at 6 o'clock Christmas morning. Pontifical mass was celebrated at 11 a. m. and again at 5:15 p. m.

At the Protestant Orphan Home, St. Vincent's Convent, St. Patrick's Industrial School and the Wiggins Institution the children were given a grand feast, and remembered with gifts of useful articles and toys.

At the Salvation Army shelter, on Prince William street, many free meals were given on Christmas Day.

At the Evangelical Home, the officers of the Army of the Lord, a good dinner, provided them with a tree decorated in proper style, and yesterday arranged games and all kinds of fun for their benefit.

ed with us for the past two years, and during that time have never uttered a responsible word of reproof. We were made by your people, in fact we feel you have almost done too much in your energetic zeal for the furtherance of the cause. We know that "true labor" will always be rewarded and the Master's "well done" be a fitting recompense for labors here below.

This is the season of cheer, of "peace, good-will to men," when we remember our friends with gifts, but it is not the value of the gift we want, it is the thought that goes into it which prompts it. With this in mind, I have much pleasure, on behalf of the members and congregation of the LUDLOW ST. BAPTIST CHURCH, in presenting you with a purse, as a slight token of our appreciation and esteem.

We trust that the expending of the gift will be as great a pleasure to you as the giving has been to us, and that you will ever feel you have the love, confidence and best wishes of the members of the LUDLOW ST. BAPTIST CHURCH.

West St. John, N. B., Dec. 25th. Rev. Mr. Robinson replied in fitting terms and feelingly referred the many tokens of loyalty and respect shown by the members of his congregation, as well as by citizens of all denominations during the 2 years of his pastorate. He expressed the hope that the Opportunity Circle has made comfort bags for sailors and garments for the poor. The young girls in the Willoughby Circle are performing many little acts of kindness. St. David's Circle has distributed towards a bale for the northwest and another for Campbellton. They sent a present to the Korean girl whom they are supporting and sending out letters of comfort to the sick and shut-in. of the J. E. Wilson Company's foundry was presented with a dozen silver tea spoons by the workmen. Mr. Wilson gave to each of his employees a turkey and a pair of gloves.

The staff of the Nickel Theatre presented a beautiful ebony W. H. Golding and Mrs. Golding a handsome antique brass and onyx parlor lamp. The presentation was made on the stage of the theatre after the last performance on Saturday evening. Members of the orchestra and house staff gathered on the stage and invited Mr. Golding before them. Then Mrs. E. Jones, a choical director of the theatre acting for his fellow employees, told Mr. Golding what sort of white man the boys thought him, and made the presentation. Mr. Golding in reply referred to the hearty co-operation which his staff had always given to him. The coming year would probably witness the removal of the theatre, and such a step in advance would hardly have been possible without the assistance of his fellow workmen. The Nickel staff has remained practically intact during the four years of Mr. Golding's connection with the theatre as manager.

Miss Bessie D. Worden, organist of the Baptist church, presented a handsome Christmas gift from the choir of the church. The gift took the form of a comb, mirror and brush set in French silver.

On Saturday the clerks at the post office presented George Harrison, the messenger, with a handsome double gold watch chain as a token of their esteem and a reminder of the season.

At the Clifton House the staff presented the proprietor, H. E. Green, with a beautiful ebony cane with a gold handle and gold ornamentation. Mr. Green remembered the employees in a suitable manner. To Mr. and Mrs. Green the gentlemen guests at the hotel presented a large hammer-headed brass jardiniere with figured ornamentation for the inscription and figured brass handles. In the jardiniere were a fine selection of beautiful growing plants.

Christmas at the General Public Hospital was celebrated in the usual manner. Christmas trees were set up in a number of wards. The weather added a cheery note. A hearty dinner was served to all able to partake of it, and in the afternoon the patients were treated to a variety of church and other organizations distributed presents to those whom the nurses reported had no friends able to send reminders of the day to them.

Christmas in Fredericton. Fredericton, Dec. 26.—Christmas was well celebrated here notwithstanding the unusual weather conditions prevailing.

On Christmas Eve there was an unusually heavy rainstorm which took off all the snow there was and continued on Sunday. Then the weather turned very cold and the wind blew a gale so that today there was good ice for skating and the horse racing on the river. Conditions were fine for curling and the formal opening of the Arctic rink for the season took place tonight with a good sized crowd in attendance.

Services in the churches on Sunday were largely attended there being appropriate sermons as well as seasonal musical programmes.

Ex-Ald. E. M. Sprague who has been ill with pneumonia, was much improved yesterday and it is hoped that he will be completely recovered in a short time.

Lady Tilley will leave this week for Ottawa where she will spend the winter.

Thomas E. Dyer and Mrs. Dyer went to Fredericton on Saturday to spend the holiday.

W. W. Raymond who has been attending McGill, is in St. John for the holidays.

Blanchard, of McGill University, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Mahon, Carvel Hall.

Donald Blair, of McGill University is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Randolph, Fredericton.

W. A. Landry, I. C. Landry and H. Landry, students at McGill, spent Christmas at their home in Dorchester, and will arrive in St. John today.

Alvan Adams arrived in the city yesterday from Boston to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Adams, Dufferin Row, Lancaster. Mr. Adams is accompanied by his son.

Business Was Good. The St. John merchants who cater to the Christmas trade did a large business this year than ever before, which, as they say affords another evidence of the growth of the city in wealth and population. Most of the stores showed a decided improvement in the decoration of their show windows, and in the general display of their wares.
