DALHOUSIE NEWS.

Dalhousie, N. B., Feb. 11.—Miss Vera McInerney was called to her home Monday by the sudden death of her sister.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Seely was the scene of a pleasant evening on the 6th inst., when 24 girl friends of their youngest daughter, Carol, called upon her and presented her with an address and a beautiful ring stand and a fancy basket of chocolates.

The evening was spent in games and luncheon was served. Mr. and Mrs. Seely and family have resided in Dalhousie for seven years, where they have made many friends.

Mr. Seely resigned as town marshal and has moved to St. John, his former home.

Mrs. Walker, of St. John, spent Sunday with her father, John Almon, in the public school, was confined to her bed on Monday with a cold.

Geo. LaBelle has gone to Quebec to take a business course. Mrs. William Gallop gave a pleasant evening to a party of friends of Mr. McCoy, who will shortly be transferred from the Royal Bank here to a more responsible position elsewhere.

Mr. McCoy has won a host of friends during his stay in town. He was accompanied here during the last year.

FOUR MEN AND $5000 FOR A STAR

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 11.—Manager McGraw, of the New York Giants, thinks so well of Claude Hendrix, the Pirate pitcher, that he has offered four players and $5,000 for the pitcher who led the National league last season. Whether McGraw's offer was only a "feeler" or was made in good faith, is not known here, but the offer was made to Barney Dreyfuss and was turned down. McGraw did not mention the names of those he intended turning over to Pittsburg.
