SPORTOGRAPHY
BY "GRAVY"

A correspondent with a thirst for information wants to know who originated commercial baseball. That he belongs to Harry Wright, and his Cincinnati Red Stockings were the first regular aggregation of professional players, is a fact that is well known. Harry Wright had been a famous cricket player before he took up baseball. It was in the early 60's that he organized the Red Stockings, at first an amateur nine. Among the famous names of the amateur period were those with Harvard, won by Cincinnati 20 to 17, and the National Club of Washington, which defeated Wright's nine 53 to 10. Until 1868 the laws of the game forbade remuneration to players, but in 1868 this rule was altered, and Wright was the first to take advantage of the commercial possibilities of the game. He got together a team of star players from many cities and in 1869 made a tour that extended from the Atlantic to the Pacific. They played 57 games on this tour and won all but one, which was a tie. They scored a total of 2,299 runs against 574 for the enemy. And this club, remember, was the Cincinnati Red Sox! They whipped the Troy Haymakers, perhaps the second professional club; the Cleveland Forest City, Harvard, the New York Mutuals, the Washington Nationals, the Philadelphia Athletics, Rockford, St. Louis, San Francisco and other famous clubs of the period. The Red Sox remained undefeated until 1870, when the Brooklyn Atlantics took their measure, 9 to 7. That summer they also came near to defeat by Harvard, but were saved by chasing in seven runs in the ninth after two men were out. Soon after this Harry Wright went to Boston and in 1874 accompanied the Boston club to England. With the formation of the National League in 1876 Wright became manager of the Boston, and won the pennant in 1877 and 1878. Cincinnati made a poor showing in its first year with the National League, finishing last, and dropped out of the circuit. The Red Sox returned to the fold in 1878, but dropped out again in 1881. Cincinnati returned to the league in 1890. The American Association placed a team in Redville the following year, but it was soon transferred to Milwaukee. The Red Sox, although the most ancient of professional clubs, have never won a pennant, and it is small wonder that the fans of the Ohio city have become a disgruntled and discouraged bunch.

GREEKS LOSE IN SEVENTH; BANGOR WINS FROM ST. CROIX

PITCHER SHANKEY. CATCHER BIEN.

FREDERICTON 5, MARATHONS 4.
Special to The Standard.
Fredericton, Aug. 14.—Fredericton and St. John each had a big inning here today, but Fredericton had another little one, which produced a lone tally, that was sufficient to win the score being 5 to 4. More was playing in the game owing to wrangling, while Shankey was hit hard in latter stages and the Marathons made bobbles at critical times. A home run by Koeny in the seventh was one of the features.

The St. John team missed the morning train and came here on a special train. Empire Labelle has quit the league and didn't show up today. Sandy Staples, a local man, started to umpire, but gave up the job early at third, made a bobble and the bases were full. Riley sent a fly to Duggan in left field, Bien made a break for the plate as the Fredericton lead was made the catch, and Duggan's throw was a little too long for Murphy to set Bien.

Pinkerton's grounder took a bad bound away from Koeny and another run came across. O'Brien hit one through the infield and Charles, who was running for Pinkerton, was nipped at third. York put up a pop fly that came down to Dave Morey's hands but kept on going right to the terra firma, and the fourth run of the inning was scored by O'Brien, who cut across from shortstop to the plate without touching third while Empire Staples' back was turned. Empire Staples quit in disgust, claiming that O'Brien and other players were taking advantage of the fact that there was not a professional umpire in charge of the game. Then it was that Play-ers Phelan and Ramsey were called on by Fredericton got one of the runs back in their half when Duggan hit safely to centre field and came all the way home when Riley lost Con-ley's short fly after a hard chase. It was a great piece of base-running on Duggan's part.

The lucky seventh produced victory for Fredericton. Callahan sent a roller to Pinkerton on which Hughes fozzled. He stole second but remained on first. Murphy was retired. Pinkerton to Flaherty. Morey produced a hit, which scored Callahan, but then not caught between first and second and was an easy out. Frank Koeny then uncorked his home run to the plines. Ganley sent a fly at Pease. It looked like a fairly easy out, but Bob kept on hiking. Pease dropped the ball and then pegged to left field in an effort to get Ganley at second, and Ganley brought up on third. Pat Duggan hit one that almost took Shankey's underpinnings away from him and which Hugh Pinkerton couldn't handle. Ganley tallied and the score was tied. Duggan stole second easily. Harry Stone came through with a wallop to centre, then ambled down to second, but Conley raised a foul fly that Riley got back of the carriages on the third base line.

The Greeks looked dangerous in the ninth when, with two down, York and Shanky got on, on infield hits, but Pease ended the game by forcing Shanky at second with a grounder to Conley. Either Phelan or Dedrick will pitch for Fredericton at St. John tomorrow. The box score follows:

BANGOR, 9; ST. CROIX, 2.
Bangor, Aug. 14.—Bangor took the second game from St. Croix today by the score of 9 to 2. McPhee was on the mound for the visitors, and although he had fine control he was hit rather freely and this coupled with errors gave the game to the home team. Conney pitched fine ball allowing but seven hits including a home run in the first by Parker which should only have gone for a single but the ball took a bad hop and got away from Hart.

The visitors scored in the first and third. In the first Parker got a home run. Trautritt got to first on an error by Tewhey but was doubled up when by Jacobson hit into a double play. After the third, when they scored their second and last run, on two singles and a sacrifice hit, Conney was never in danger and had the visitors at his mercy.

Bangor scored four in the fifth. Boardman walked and went to second when Matthews singled to left. Boardman and Matthews worked a double steal. Hart singled, scorify both runners, going to second on the throw in. Singles by Dutton and Wakefield sent Hart and Matthews over the plate. There was nothing until the eighth. Dolan scored when he singled to centre, stole second and came home when Matthews hit to Parker who was slow in getting the ball over.

It looked as if the visitors would score in their half of the ninth. Jacobson singled. Vance went out to Matthews, and Watt singled to left. Jacobson going to third, Wildes hit to Tewhey, who jumped into the air and pulled down his liner with one hand, and untried a good game. With two on, Gross was an easy out, Connaughton to Dutton.

Sockalexis, the old American leaguer, was the umpire. The Indians still seems to have his eye on the ball, for on balls and strikes he had little difficulty in calling them and umpired a good game. He will work the rest of the week.

The batteries tomorrow will be Howard for St. Croix and Wallace for Bangor. Wallace was suspended last night by the directors of the Bangor Club for indifferent ball playing, but will be back in the game tomorrow. Reed, who was suspended last night, will be back in the game tomorrow.

KENNEL CLUB HOLD MEETING

George P. Allen presided at a meeting of the New Brunswick Kennel Club last evening when more than 30 members assembled and enthusiastically decided to appoint a committee to arrange for the holding of a dog show during the month of October. It is intended to secure the best available American Judge to judge the classes for the different breeds. Judging from the interest displayed, the success of the show is already assured and members of the club are already getting dogs in shape for the meet. Nost P. Sheraton has purchased a valuable Irish terrier bitch which will arrive today by Dominion Express from Dr. Mooney's kennels in Upper Canada. Mr. Sheraton's purchase is by Champion Thorncroft Dictator ex Bridget O'Rourke, the celebrated $1,000 terrier owned by Mr. Flaherty of Montreal.

D. Laurence MacLaren, of Paddock street, has cabled for an English bull bitch by Champion Blunderbus, the dog which was recently purchased by Thomas W. Lawson of Boston for $1,000. The bitch is ex Champion Coad-jutor, an English dog which has figured prominently in bench shows in England.

A third valuable bull dog is being brought here by H. Mont Jones from the Dreamworld kennels owned by Thomas W. Lawson of Boston.

GRAND CIRCUIT RACING
Detroit, Aug. 14.—There were only three races on today's Grand Circuit programme, but they furnished plenty of excitement. There was a whipping finish in almost every heat, and the winning margins always were narrow. Two of the three entries in the first heat were included in the original card, were scratched and the race was declared off.

Marfield took the 208 trot in straight heats. View Elder was returned winner of the 212 pace after five heats, and Grand Marshall captured the 218 trot in four.

BARRY ACCEPTS CHALLENGE

Boston, Aug. 14.—The cable dispatch yesterday giving the information that the champion sculler of the world, Ernest Barry of England, had accepted the challenge of Frank B. Greer of this city to scull for stakes of $2,500 a side and the title came as a big surprise to local oarsmen.

While Greer was talking racing for the big title, Eddie Durnan of Toronto came along and being the American champion he informed Greer that he was willing to give him a race for the title and $1,000 a side, but Greer preferred to race for $500 a side and not contest for the championship. Durnan called the Boston Globe last Saturday night before leaving for his home in Toronto to inquire if Greer had posted his deposit, but learned that the Boston man had failed to comply with the established rules governing the making of such matches.

The fact that Barry replied to Greer's printed statements without the posting of forfeit only tends to show how anxious the Englishman is for the match and how willing he will be to give Greer the chance he states he has been longing for.

As nearly as can be learned from Greer's friends, there has been no official move made to raise the money required to back the Boston man. From $4,000 to $5,000 would be required.

Barry's answer is in the form of an acceptance of the challenge and allowing $250 for expenses, gives Greer's friends the chance they claim they have been looking for. Oarsmen are asking if it would not be a wise act to match Greer against Durnan, and in case he won it would be far easier to raise the needed funds to back him for the world's championship.

There need be no delay in negotiations for the race with Durnan, for he is ready to face Greer on Sept. 13 or 20, and that would give Greer ample time to go across, in case he beat the Canadian, or, better still, he could post his forfeit and arrange for a race early next season, as was suggested by William Haines, coach of the Union Boat Club, who has been instrumental in agitating the Barry-Greer match.

THIS DATE IN RING ANNALS
1911.—Sam Langford defeated "Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien in 5 rounds at New York. The bout was scheduled for 10 rounds, but was stopped in the 5th to save the Philadelphia from further punishment. The present crop of white heavyweights haven't scrambled each other in their anxiety to meet the Boston "tar baby," but "Philadelphia Jack," although too light for a heavyweight, was made of different stuff. He would fight any body—once and during his fighting career met Fitz Johnson, Kid McCoy, Tommy Burns and other top-notchers.

FREDERICTON HERE TO DAY 3.15 O'CLOCK

The Fredericton ball team will arrive in the city this morning to battle with the Marathons on the North End grounds this afternoon, in a game which will commence at 3.15 o'clock. The Fredericton team have been out on a winning streak this week, and if they win this afternoon from the Greeks they will top the league, and will try hard to go in the lead, the Phalen, their new pitcher, or Dedrick will do the twirling for the visitors, and Tarbell or Charles will pitch for the locals, and it is altogether likely that Tarbell will be the man. Both teams realize the importance of the game today, and while Fredericton Marathons are just as determined that the boys from the Capital will remain in the second place. It should be a royal battle from start to finish and some fast baseball may be expected.
