

27 MORE NEW BRUNSWICK MEN ON HONOR ROLL

IMPRESSIVE MEMORIAL IN ST. MARY'S CH.

Service Last Evening in Honor of Capt. Frank R. Fairweather and Others who Gave Life to Cause.

A large congregation attended the memorial service in St. Mary's church last evening which was most impressive in its character, the occasion for which was the death on the field of battle of four members of the church—Captain Frank R. Fairweather, Private Ernest Mellor, Private Frank Pinney and Corporal Arnold Whippley, all of the 26th Battalion.

Lieut.-Col. J. L. McAvilly was among those present. The services were conducted by Rev. R. Taylor McKim. J. N. Rogers rendered the solo "When I Have Crossed the Bar." During the sounding of "The Last Post," and the playing of the Dead March in Saul, there was many a tearful eye, and throughout the evening the proceedings were marked by an earnestness and reverence that showed the entire congregation were of one mind in a desire to honor the brave men who have fallen in a just cause and to extend true sympathy with those they have left behind. The order of service included hymns 566, 331, 280, 582; special sentences beginning with the words: "I am the Resurrection and the Life," said the Lord; he that believeth in Me, though he were dead yet shall he live," general confession, absolution, Psalm 93; special lesson, Isaiah 40, 1-11; Revelation 7, 9 to end.

Rev. Mr. McKim called attention to some of the facts concerning the lives of the dead heroes. In referring to Captain Fairweather he said he had been a vestryman of the church and took great interest in all church work. "His loss will be keenly felt," he said, "not only by us here, but by the citizens generally. I personally, have pleasurable recollections of him when he was with the firm of Tilley and Fairweather, and can vouch for his helpfulness, integrity and kindly character. As has been recently remarked, 'Man of his ilk can ill be spared at this time.' He sacrificed a comfortable home, wife and child, all for the love of right."

The speaker spoke of the other men who had so nobly given up their lives for the cause. Private Mellor, he pointed out, was an Englishman, coming here soon after the war began and leaves his wife and three small children. He was a member of the Sons of England.

Private Pinney was born here and brought up in the church, having been baptized in St. Mary's. He was deeply attached to the Sunday school, very popular and his smiling face will be greatly missed.

Corporal Whippley was married and leaves, besides his wife, one daughter. He, too, was much liked and wrote many letters home, all of a cheerful kind, and never complained about the soldier's life. He was promoted to corporal just before the engagement in which he fell. "Probably," said Mr. McKim, "Captain Fairweather was heading these men as he himself, was laid low. It is indeed hard for the mothers, widows and children left behind to bear their sad lot."

The text of the sermon was from Mark 15, 31—"He saved others," "This is an epitaph," said the speaker, "that could be written upon many a plain wooden cross that marks the grave of some brave officer or soldier upon the battle-scarred fields of France and Flanders. Tonight we of St. Mary's church are to pay a last tribute to the brave men of the Fighting 26th, Captain Fairweather, Private Mellor, Private Pinney and Corporal Whippley. It is not often that one church in this city is called upon to give up four of her bravest and best members; no other church in St. John, to my knowledge, has had four men called upon in a single week to pay the supreme sacrifice. This service is unique in the history of St. Mary's. I feel sure that if your rector, Archdeacon Raymond, were here tonight he would have felt keenly the loss of four of his noble boys, boys that he looked upon as his sons. These four men counted not their lives dear, but cheerfully laid them down a sacrifice for others.

"We look upon these men as heroes, and they rightly deserve the title; they endured much, they suffered much, and they died nobly. The wife of one of the boys said to me: 'It seems so hard to give him up.' Oh, I often think that the sorrowing widow, the sorrowing mother, are none the less heroic than these brave men that they have so freely given. It is their lot to sit at home and while away the lonely hours, anxiously waiting for word of their loved ones.

"Oh, if beside the dead stumbled the pain! Oh, if the hearts that bled slept with the slain! Oh, if the grief died;—but no. War will not have it so.

"The spirit of self-sacrifice has been wonderfully demonstrated by hundreds of our brave Canadian lads—men who at home seemed just ordinary fellows have become heroes when tested in

MOLLY RAISED ALMOST $4,000 AT BIG FETE

Military Molly's Fair which Closed Saturday Night was Pronounced Success—The Priz Winners.

Military Molly's big fair was brought to a close Saturday night and despite the bad weather was well attended, although it is estimated that at least another thousand people would have been there if the weather had been fine. The gross receipts for the three days were $3,859.86 and after all the bills are paid there will be a good sum left for the Patriotic Fund.

The members of the Rotary Club presented Miss Belle Tufts, who acted as Tipperary Mary at the Torryburn fair and Military Molly at the fair just closed, with a handsome pearl peridot necklace, as an appreciation of the splendid work she did for the fair, by the sale of floss she added to the fund very nearly $200.

The lotteries were all drawn by Military Molly. The tickets were placed in a large churn, well shaken up and then Molly drew out the winning numbers. The drawings resulted as follows:

New York, Sept. 22.—The record of today's session on the stock exchange promises to form a part of the important history of that institution. Trading assumed the huge proportions of 1,525,000 shares, making the fourteenth consecutive five-hour day in which operations have exceeded one million shares.

Most from the outset the movement was led by United States Steel, which scored a gross or extreme gain of 4 3/4 points to the unprecedented price of 114 5/8. Steel's contribution to the day amounted to about 20 per cent. of the whole.

New maximums were made by other market leaders, including Anaconda Copper at 97 7/8, Utah Copper at 93, and Inspiration Copper at 64 3/4. Central Leather was among the less conspicuous issues to break into new ground at 69 3/4, as was also Stutz Motor, a newcomer on the board, which touched 76.

Trading differed from that of the two days immediately preceding, in that little irregularity was perceptible at any time. The movement was one of almost steady advance, although rails, which helped to buttress the market of the forenoon, sold off quite generally at the close. Prior to that time New York Central, Reading and Canadian Pacific had shown gains of two points each, with a point or more for Union Pacific, St. Paul, Coasters and some of the minor roads.

Equipment, shipping shares, Petroleum, with Texas Company up seven points, helped to swell the enormous total. Unclassified shares of the more obscure variety augmented the number of different issues dealt in, these exceeding any session of the past three weeks. Realizing sales and short selling were almost continuous, but their effect, except in

ROLL OF HONOR

Several thousand officers and employees of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company enlisted for active military duty with the Canadian Expeditionary Force, and the majority of them are now in Europe, bravely battling for Canada and the Empire. As particulars of Army Reservists are not available, these lists of those who have given up their lives for their country or been wounded in action are necessarily incomplete, and do not therefore indicate fully the extent to which the Company's officers and employees have participated in the great struggle.

MAY BE ANOTHER MILK SHORTAGE.

It is just possible that St. John will have to face another milk shortage in a few days as the farmers are not satisfied with the outcome of the recent settlement with the dealers and a meeting of the Kings County producers has been called to meet at Sussex tonight.

It is claimed by the farmers that the St. John dealers have not lived up to their promise to pay the 40 cents per can which they intend to have that price the year round or stop sending it. It is said that some of the dealers paid the forty cents for two weeks and some not that long.

It is understood that on Saturday a delegation of the farmers called on the Primecrest Farms to see if their offer of 40 cents for 75 per cent of the output still held good and received the information that it did.

GOES TO SALONIKI.

Mrs. A. E. McGinley received word on Saturday that her sister, Miss Ethel F. Bradley, of Montreal, had sailed from Southampton on September 17 in charge of a selected party of 20 nurses for service at Saloniki. Miss Bradley, who was well known here, went across to England in March, 1915, as a nursing sister, and was attached to No. 1 Canadian General Dr. MacLaren's hospital at Etaples, France. She was there for over a year and the last few months of her stay she was in charge of the X-ray department. On the completion of the large special Canadian hospital at Ramsgate she was transferred to that institution and now again her work has been recognized in sending her to Saloniki with this detachment of nurses.

THE awful crucible of war. Thousands of them have manifested this splendid spirit of self-sacrifice. They wear no Victoria Cross, but may we not believe that He who died on the Cross of Calvary to save them will give them a share of His death and resurrection and they shall wear a crown that fadeth not away? We cannot all die to save others, but we can all live to do so if Christ be our inspiration, our strength. Then when death comes perhaps angel hands will inscribe on our tombstone in letters invisible to human eyes the words 'He saved others.'

On the King's Business.

To Automobile Owners in St. John, N. B.: Gentlemen—We need ten cars and drivers to carry the recruiting officers to recruiting meetings to be held in the County of St. John during the next ten evenings, one car each evening. Be good enough to telephone to the office of the undergeneral, Main 520. I am sure it is only necessary to mention this need for a ready response.

Yours truly,
L. P. D. TILLEY, Major,
C. R. officer for New Brunswick.

LOUIS H. CORTRIGHT LEAVES FOR SOUTH

Well Known Advertising Man Accepts Important Position with Alabama Newspaper.

Mr. Louis H. Cortright, for some years advertising manager for Manchester Robertson Allison, Ltd., left on Saturday evening for Birmingham, Alabama, where he will assume the management of the service department of the advertising section of the Birmingham Daily News. The town in which Mr. Cortright will make his new home has a population of about one hundred and thirty thousand, and The News has a circulation of some forty thousand, so that the field to which he goes will afford somewhat larger opportunities than in St. John. Mr. Cortright has been in the advertising business for many years. He came to this city from Auburn, New York, where he was engaged in the advertising business on his own account. Previous to that he was with the Syracuse, New York, Herald, and before that was advertising manager on the Newport News at Newport, Virginia. He came to St. John in 1905 as advertising manager of The Telegraph, and remained with that paper for some four years, transferring to The Sun with which company he remained for one year until The Sun was sold. On the amalgamation of The Sun and The Telegraph, Mr. Cortright joined M. R. A.'s staff as advertising manager, and has been there ever since. His work has been very favorably regarded by those in touch with advertising, and he has been looked upon as one of the ablest men in his particular line in this part of the country.

On the King's Business.

Mrs. Cortright and family will remain in St. John for about a month, going South as soon as they get their household affairs arranged.
