

betes. Last January he paid a visit to some friends and relatives in Boston and had a specialist working on his case. He also tried the hospital there, but none gave him any encouragement, and he returned home.

There are at Killam's Mills siding some 700,000 or 800,000 feet of sawed lumber, which has been hauled there during the winter, when the road was down, and which is now being shipped as rapidly as possible.

There is also a large cut of lumber, probably 1,000,000 feet, at Elgin, and about double the amount as Forest Glen awaiting shipment.

Mrs. Driscoll and her son, Arnold, of Moncton, arrived here on Saturday, and are paying a visit to Mrs. Driscoll's old home at Spring Hill. Mrs. Driscoll is the daughter of Dennis Keith, and sister to J. Webb Keith, of Spring Hill.

Mrs. C. W. Hicks, of Upper Ridge, is at present quite seriously ill. The Sussex Mercantile Company are repairing their store here, and treating it to a thorough remodeling and renovating inside.

Last Thursday, at the funeral of Miss Lizzie Atkinson, the new hearse lately built by Arthur B. Hicks, of this place, made its first appearance. Since the death of Wilford H. Freese, Mr. Hicks is the only undertaker in this vicinity.

A. S. Atkinson, of this place, will next Wednesday lead to the altar Miss Nina Corey, a popular young lady of this community.

Dr. Thorne is still quite poorly, but somewhat improved. The doctor is greatly missed among his large circle of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Allen Killam, of Killam's Mills, have returned home after a lengthy visit in St. John with their two daughters and other relatives.

CAMPBELLTON.

Campbellton, April 18—Miss S. Soreby left on Monday to visit friends in Boston. Miss McMillan, of New Mills, spent Friday with friends in town.

Mr. James Pritchard leaves this week for Calgary (N. W. T.). Before joining her husband in the west, Mrs. Pritchard will visit at her old home in Summerside (P. E. I.). Mrs. Pritchard is the guest of Mrs. J. A. Flint.

Miss Eliza Murchie, of New Mills, is visiting her sister, Mrs. F. Chamberlain. Mr. H. Montgomery, of Dalhousie, spent Sunday here.

Mr. Arthur Sharpe and son, Harry, left on Saturday for Moncton, where they intend spending some time. Mr. and Mrs. J. Purves and family, who have been residing in Campbellton for a few years, returned on Tuesday to their former home in St. John.

A public temperance meeting addressed by Rev. Dr. McLeod, of Fredericton, was held in the Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening. In view of the Scott act election which is to take place on the 26th, committees for the campaign were appointed.

Rev. Mr. Teak, of Dalhousie, attended the temperance meeting on Tuesday evening.

SUSSEX.

Sussex, April 18—Miss Isabel Mowatt, of St. John, spent Sunday in Sussex, the guest of Mrs. Geo. Worden.

Mrs. Harry Vincent, of Moncton, spent Sunday and Monday in town. Miss Bull, of Woodstock, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Scott Nokes, the secretary. Mrs. James, of St. John, spent Sunday at the "New Inn."

Miss Jina, of Fredericton, is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. B. Roseborough. Miss M. A. McCreary, of Perth-Andover, spent Sunday in Sussex with Mrs. Jean Gorman.

Dr. J. N. Smith, of Hampton, was in town this week. Mr. M. C. Hartour, of St. John, was in Sussex on Wednesday. Mr. Emery Ferry, Pettitodias, spent Sunday with friends in Sussex.

Mr. Ernest Howes, of St. John, spent Sunday at his home here. Miss Ethel Corbett, of Moncton, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. James Drummond.

Mrs. Percy Lyons and child, of St. John, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Sam. Kitch, Church avenue. Mrs. Pearson, who has been visiting in St. John, returned home on Wednesday.

Mrs. Wm. Shaw and Miss Eda Shaw, of St. John, were visiting friends here at the first of the week.

ST. ANDREWS.

St. Andrews, April 18—Miss Mollie Cougle came down from St. John on Tuesday and returned Wednesday, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. P. Cougle, who has been visiting her parents here for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. McCall went to St. John on Tuesday. Miss Florence Howard has been visiting Miss Annie Britt lately.

Mr. J. W. Richardson, of St. Stephen, was in town this week. Miss O'Neill is in Boston on her annual spring business trip. She is expected home this week.

Mrs. P. B. Donahue is visiting members of her family in Boston. Miss Madge Rigby is visiting friends in Campbellton this week.

Rev. Chas. Comben is supplying for Rev. Mr. W. Mahon during his absence in the States. Miss Annie Thompson, of St. Stephen, is visiting Mrs. Albert Thompson.

Mr. Everett Dunley arrived home this week and is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dunley. Mr. J. T. Ross was a passenger from Boston on Tuesday's boat.

Mrs. Geo. F. Hibbard left on Wednesday for Boston, where she will make a short visit. A rifle club has been recently organized with Mr. Chas. Richardson as captain and Mr. Spencer Farmer secretary-treasurer.

NEWTON.

Newtown, Kings Co., April 18—Miss George Marr, who has charge of the school at Carletonville, spent Sunday at her home here.

Mrs. Arthur Lappala is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Marr, on Jordan Mountain. Arthur Coates, F. Campbell, Roy Tamlyn and Geo. Lockart returned for the week last week.

Mrs. A. Mace is quite ill. Will Venning spent a few days in St. John this week. The road between here and Sussex is very muddy, caused by the melting snow and the frost coming out. If the superintendent of roads or whoever is responsible would spend a small part of the yearly allowance on the roads at this season of the year many of the washouts could be prevented and any that have taken place could be easily filled in before the ground hardens. We trust that with the new road law there may come a new system of roadmaking and road repairing.

DALHOUSIE.

Dalhousie, N. B., April 18—Mr. Reader, of Chicago, who is installing a tractor for Mr. W. S. Montgomery, is at the Royal accompanied by his wife.

Mrs. Jules Beaudry, of Quebec, spent a few days in town some time ago and expects to return in a time to open a photography studio. Mrs. Numa Bernatchez and Mrs. Pinaud, of Campbellton, spent Monday in town the guests of Mrs. G. E. Merrifield.

Mrs. Gritum and Miss Eda Barberie paid Campbellton a flying visit on Thursday last. Mr. Jaugsapay was in town several times last week. Miss Gritum expects to spend Easter in Moncton visiting friends. The Mission Band concert under the management of Miss Lena Hadow was a grand success. Miss Louise Mercier expects to visit her aunt, Mrs. William McIntyre, of St. John, for a few weeks.

It is reported that the married ladies of Dalhousie are to give a dance in Easter Monday. If so, a good time is anticipated by all.

Miss Gordon, who has been spending the winter in Boston, is expected home in a few days. The many friends of Mrs. R. Blackall are glad to hear of the recovery of her two little daughters.

Miss Kate Harquail has returned from St. John. The church of England choir are practicing special music for Easter Sunday. Miss Violet Hilyard gave a large white party last Monday evening. Among the many guests were Mr. J. J. McCarroll and Miss Lydia Patterson, of Campbellton.

Report has it that one of our young men well known in banking circles, expects to join the order of Benedictus soon. Mr. G. B. Hallett spent Sunday in town. Rumor has it that one of Dalhousie's most fair and popular young ladies is about to be married. The lucky man who is from St. John, is certainly to be congratulated.

Mr. James LeCallais was to Campbellton last week. HOPEWELL HILL. Hopewell Hill, April 18—Rufus Wright, of the I. C. R. shops, Moncton, spent a couple of days at his home at Montville.

Mrs. Jordan Woodworth and son, Allison, of Albert Mines, left last week for Boston, where they will spend some time with relatives. Capt. James Doherty, of Chemical Road, who spent a year and a half at his home there, left Saturday morning for Boston.

Watson Dixon, of Montville, who has been in North during the winter, lumbering for Job Stiles, of Riverside, returned home a few days ago. Robert Newcomb, an old resident of this village, who was very sick with grippe for some time is able to be around again. Fred G. Moore spent a few days in Moncton this week.

HARCOURT.

Harcourt, N. B., April 15—The death of Mrs. Murdoch MacLeod at Acadiaville took place on the 12th, and funeral at Rogersville yesterday. Rev. J. B. Chapman officiating. She was seventy years old and a native of Cape Breton. Mrs. Harnett and family have gone to Richibucto. Thomas Pipe has removed with his family to Moncton, where he will in future reside. Ebenezer Ward has bought James N. Warburton's corner house and lot in Mortimer, lately occupied by James Shirley. The express office here is again closed. Robert J. Morton, who has kept it several months, has resigned.

ly to Moncton, where he will in future reside. Ebenezer Ward has bought James N. Warburton's corner house and lot in Mortimer, lately occupied by James Shirley. The express office here is again closed. Robert J. Morton, who has kept it several months, has resigned.

HARVEY STATION.

Harvey Station, April 17—John W. Coburn, of Ladysmith (N.C.), arrived last week to make a short visit to his relatives and friends here. He is the guest of The father, A. W. Coburn. Mr. Coburn is quite extensively engaged in the manufacture of lumber and is the proprietor of a large sawmill at Ladysmith. He will return to the west in a day or two.

The snow has all disappeared with the exception of a little in the woods and fencesides, but the ice in the lake is still holding on. The roads are very muddy. The importation of hay still continues. Two cars were brought in from Carleton county last week. Altogether about 300 tons of Carleton county hay has been purchased in this parish this season.

Mrs. W. E. Smith has been quite ill for the past week, but is now making some progress toward recovery. Councillor Thomas Robinson is engaged with a crew of men driving lumber on the Maguadavic lake and preparing it for loading on the cars at Maguadavic station.

Truro, April 13—Louis R. Sharpsham intends going to Winnipeg to reside. On Thursday evening his fellow employees presented him with a handsome dress suit case, suitably engraved, accompanied by a kindly address. Mr. Sharpsham intends to spend a short time at his home in Windsor before leaving for the west.

A very enjoyable parlor concert was held Monday evening. The management committee consisted of Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. W. Harris, and great credit is due these ladies. Mrs. Stanley McCulloch, Misses E. Linton, E. Smith and Messrs. Harris, Sprague, Fitch, DeForest and others assisted in the pleasant and well-organized program for the evening.

Mrs. Bert Crossman, who has been in very delicate health for some time, left this morning for British Columbia. She was accompanied by her husband and they intend remaining some months, hoping the climate will do much for Mrs. Crossman.

Miss Sadie Kirkpatrick, of Halifax, who has been visiting at her home in Truro, is expected to return to her home in the Victoria. Mr. James B. Pittblado, son of Mr. James Pittblado, who once resided in Truro, has recently been married in Los Angeles to Miss Patricia Salaberry, a daughter of the late Don Salaberry, of Capistrano. The wedding mass was played by Mrs. Wanda, of Korea. Mr. and Mrs. Pittblado intend to reside in Los Angeles.

Miss Madge Donkin is home from Boston, spending a vacation with her mother. The residence of Mr. William Stevens on the corner of St. John and St. George, is a guest with Mr. Smith Cox and family. Miss George Mason left this morning for the west. She will probably reside for a time in Gloucester.

Miss Christiana C. McCallum, daughter of Mr. W. L. McCallum, a bright young school teacher, died at her home last week after a lingering illness. Her sister, Miss Katharine, nurse at Boston City Hospital, came home, but not in time to see her alive. Miss Norma Wood, of Oxford, is visiting at her uncle's, Mr. J. B. Black, Ostlaw. Miss Inna Jamieson has returned to her duties as teacher in Brookline (Mass.) after spending a short vacation at home.

Mr. and Mrs. George McLeod, of Bible Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kent and daughter are in California. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. S. E. Gourley, ex-M. E., who is quite ill at his home. Captain Charles Putnam, of Dawson City, was in town last week. He will be away on his tour of duty in Mexico and will be away some months.

The Misses Annie Cameron and Bertha McDonald left home on Wednesday for Taunton (Mass.), where they intend entering a hospital for a course of training. Mrs. George Eaton, of "Bimburat," Matt. Island, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Wilson, Springhill. Miss May Chisholm, of Musquodoboit, is a guest with her cousin, Mrs. D. Forbes. She has also been visiting friends in Brookline.

Mrs. Mair Sibley has her two sisters with her now—the Misses Mabel and Lilla Jamieson, of Quabouctou—who will probably be her guests for several months. Mrs. F. McCreary, of West Roxbury, who has been visiting at his old home in Greenfield, has now returned to the States.

PARRSBORO. Parrsboro, April 18—Mrs. H. A. Price, who has been spending the winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dyas, took her departure for her home near New York, on Thursday. She will visit her brother, Dr. Dyas, in Amherst, on her way. Dr. and Mrs. Hayes returned from their trip to Upper Canadian cities on Tuesday. Rev. D. R. Grant made a trip to Tatamagouche last week. Mrs. Grant went to Halifax on Tuesday to visit friends. Mr. McKeen, of St. John, is in town this week.

The funeral of the late Mr. Upham was largely attended on Tuesday. Rev. Mr. Wilson, of Springfield, came down to attend at the service. The Masons, of which Mr. Upham was a prominent member, were in charge. The funeral of Mr. Kearney was also largely attended on Monday. The Knights of Pythias were in attendance and took charge of the service. Mr. Andrew Upham, who has been here on account of sickness and death of his father, has returned. Mr. Melbride, of the staff of the Union Bank of Halifax in Digby, is on duty here filling the place of Mr. Fizzle, who is spending his vacation in New York. Mrs. Bow, who has been visiting her sister, Miss Cameron, has returned to her home in Athol. The Misses Minnie and Edna Thompson have been visiting the sugar woods in Southampton for the last week, returning home on Tuesday. Gordon Yates, who has been away for some months, arrived home last week. Miss Harrison, who has been visiting Miss Adams, has returned to her home in Halfway River. Miss Myers, who has been very ill, is slowly recovering. Mr. A. Dyas and Mr. Tibbets are spending the week at Newville. Dr. McDougall has returned from Boston where he has been spending a few days. H. W. MacKenna went to Amherst on Wednesday. Mr. Broderick, who has been in Springhill for the winter, was in town on Tuesday, making some little preparations for opening his popular hotel. Miss Barwell, of Dorchester, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. J. Weldon. J. D. Brown, of Amherst, was in town on Saturday. Miss Taylor, of St. John, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Upham. Capt. Chambers, of the Hills, is in town, after having quite an experience in making his way through the ice. The steamers Springhill and Flashing had to go to his assistance. "Hello"—They say Fred kissed you last evening. "That's just like people; they always tell more than the truth or only half of it. This time they tell only half of the truth. I hope you will do me the justice to tell people that I kissed Fred the same time he kissed me."

for a course of training. Mrs. George Eaton, of "Bimburat," Matt. Island, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Wilson, Springhill. Miss May Chisholm, of Musquodoboit, is a guest with her cousin, Mrs. D. Forbes. She has also been visiting friends in Brookline.

Mrs. Mair Sibley has her two sisters with her now—the Misses Mabel and Lilla Jamieson, of Quabouctou—who will probably be her guests for several months. Mrs. F. McCreary, of West Roxbury, who has been visiting at his old home in Greenfield, has now returned to the States.

PARRSBORO. Parrsboro, April 18—Mrs. H. A. Price, who has been spending the winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dyas, took her departure for her home near New York, on Thursday. She will visit her brother, Dr. Dyas, in Amherst, on her way. Dr. and Mrs. Hayes returned from their trip to Upper Canadian cities on Tuesday. Rev. D. R. Grant made a trip to Tatamagouche last week. Mrs. Grant went to Halifax on Tuesday to visit friends. Mr. McKeen, of St. John, is in town this week.

The funeral of the late Mr. Upham was largely attended on Tuesday. Rev. Mr. Wilson, of Springfield, came down to attend at the service. The Masons, of which Mr. Upham was a prominent member, were in charge. The funeral of Mr. Kearney was also largely attended on Monday. The Knights of Pythias were in attendance and took charge of the service. Mr. Andrew Upham, who has been here on account of sickness and death of his father, has returned. Mr. Melbride, of the staff of the Union Bank of Halifax in Digby, is on duty here filling the place of Mr. Fizzle, who is spending his vacation in New York. Mrs. Bow, who has been visiting her sister, Miss Cameron, has returned to her home in Athol. The Misses Minnie and Edna Thompson have been visiting the sugar woods in Southampton for the last week, returning home on Tuesday. Gordon Yates, who has been away for some months, arrived home last week. Miss Harrison, who has been visiting Miss Adams, has returned to her home in Halfway River. Miss Myers, who has been very ill, is slowly recovering. Mr. A. Dyas and Mr. Tibbets are spending the week at Newville. Dr. McDougall has returned from Boston where he has been spending a few days. H. W. MacKenna went to Amherst on Wednesday. Mr. Broderick, who has been in Springhill for the winter, was in town on Tuesday, making some little preparations for opening his popular hotel. Miss Barwell, of Dorchester, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. J. Weldon. J. D. Brown, of Amherst, was in town on Saturday. Miss Taylor, of St. John, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Upham. Capt. Chambers, of the Hills, is in town, after having quite an experience in making his way through the ice. The steamers Springhill and Flashing had to go to his assistance. "Hello"—They say Fred kissed you last evening. "That's just like people; they always tell more than the truth or only half of it. This time they tell only half of the truth. I hope you will do me the justice to tell people that I kissed Fred the same time he kissed me."

TRURO. Truro, April 13—Louis R. Sharpsham intends going to Winnipeg to reside. On Thursday evening his fellow employees presented him with a handsome dress suit case, suitably engraved, accompanied by a kindly address. Mr. Sharpsham intends to spend a short time at his home in Windsor before leaving for the west.

A very enjoyable parlor concert was held Monday evening. The management committee consisted of Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. W. Harris, and great credit is due these ladies. Mrs. Stanley McCulloch, Misses E. Linton, E. Smith and Messrs. Harris, Sprague, Fitch, DeForest and others assisted in the pleasant and well-organized program for the evening.

Mrs. Bert Crossman, who has been in very delicate health for some time, left this morning for British Columbia. She was accompanied by her husband and they intend remaining some months, hoping the climate will do much for Mrs. Crossman.

Miss Sadie Kirkpatrick, of Halifax, who has been visiting at her home in Truro, is expected to return to her home in the Victoria. Mr. James B. Pittblado, son of Mr. James Pittblado, who once resided in Truro, has recently been married in Los Angeles to Miss Patricia Salaberry, a daughter of the late Don Salaberry, of Capistrano. The wedding mass was played by Mrs. Wanda, of Korea. Mr. and Mrs. Pittblado intend to reside in Los Angeles.

Miss Madge Donkin is home from Boston, spending a vacation with her mother. The residence of Mr. William Stevens on the corner of St. John and St. George, is a guest with Mr. Smith Cox and family. Miss George Mason left this morning for the west. She will probably reside for a time in Gloucester.

Miss Christiana C. McCallum, daughter of Mr. W. L. McCallum, a bright young school teacher, died at her home last week after a lingering illness. Her sister, Miss Katharine, nurse at Boston City Hospital, came home, but not in time to see her alive. Miss Norma Wood, of Oxford, is visiting at her uncle's, Mr. J. B. Black, Ostlaw. Miss Inna Jamieson has returned to her duties as teacher in Brookline (Mass.) after spending a short vacation at home.

Mr. and Mrs. George McLeod, of Bible Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kent and daughter are in California. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. S. E. Gourley, ex-M. E., who is quite ill at his home. Captain Charles Putnam, of Dawson City, was in town last week. He will be away on his tour of duty in Mexico and will be away some months.

The Misses Annie Cameron and Bertha McDonald left home on Wednesday for Taunton (Mass.), where they intend entering a hospital for a course of training. Mrs. George Eaton, of "Bimburat," Matt. Island, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Wilson, Springhill. Miss May Chisholm, of Musquodoboit, is a guest with her cousin, Mrs. D. Forbes. She has also been visiting friends in Brookline.

Mrs. Mair Sibley has her two sisters with her now—the Misses Mabel and Lilla Jamieson, of Quabouctou—who will probably be her guests for several months. Mrs. F. McCreary, of West Roxbury, who has been visiting at his old home in Greenfield, has now returned to the States.

PARRSBORO. Parrsboro, April 18—Mrs. H. A. Price, who has been spending the winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dyas, took her departure for her home near New York, on Thursday. She will visit her brother, Dr. Dyas, in Amherst, on her way. Dr. and Mrs. Hayes returned from their trip to Upper Canadian cities on Tuesday. Rev. D. R. Grant made a trip to Tatamagouche last week. Mrs. Grant went to Halifax on Tuesday to visit friends. Mr. McKeen, of St. John, is in town this week.

The funeral of the late Mr. Upham was largely attended on Tuesday. Rev. Mr. Wilson, of Springfield, came down to attend at the service. The Masons, of which Mr. Upham was a prominent member, were in charge. The funeral of Mr. Kearney was also largely attended on Monday. The Knights of Pythias were in attendance and took charge of the service. Mr. Andrew Upham, who has been here on account of sickness and death of his father, has returned. Mr. Melbride, of the staff of the Union Bank of Halifax in Digby, is on duty here filling the place of Mr. Fizzle, who is spending his vacation in New York. Mrs. Bow, who has been visiting her sister, Miss Cameron, has returned to her home in Athol. The Misses Minnie and Edna Thompson have been visiting the sugar woods in Southampton for the last week, returning home on Tuesday. Gordon Yates, who has been away for some months, arrived home last week. Miss Harrison, who has been visiting Miss Adams, has returned to her home in Halfway River. Miss Myers, who has been very ill, is slowly recovering. Mr. A. Dyas and Mr. Tibbets are spending the week at Newville. Dr. McDougall has returned from Boston where he has been spending a few days. H. W. MacKenna went to Amherst on Wednesday. Mr. Broderick, who has been in Springhill for the winter, was in town on Tuesday, making some little preparations for opening his popular hotel. Miss Barwell, of Dorchester, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. J. Weldon. J. D. Brown, of Amherst, was in town on Saturday. Miss Taylor, of St. John, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Upham. Capt. Chambers, of the Hills, is in town, after having quite an experience in making his way through the ice. The steamers Springhill and Flashing had to go to his assistance. "Hello"—They say Fred kissed you last evening. "That's just like people; they always tell more than the truth or only half of it. This time they tell only half of the truth. I hope you will do me the justice to tell people that I kissed Fred the same time he kissed me."

for a course of training. Mrs. George Eaton, of "Bimburat," Matt. Island, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Wilson, Springhill. Miss May Chisholm, of Musquodoboit, is a guest with her cousin, Mrs. D. Forbes. She has also been visiting friends in Brookline.

Mrs. Mair Sibley has her two sisters with her now—the Misses Mabel and Lilla Jamieson, of Quabouctou—who will probably be her guests for several months. Mrs. F. McCreary, of West Roxbury, who has been visiting at his old home in Greenfield, has now returned to the States.

PARRSBORO. Parrsboro, April 18—Mrs. H. A. Price, who has been spending the winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dyas, took her departure for her home near New York, on Thursday. She will visit her brother, Dr. Dyas, in Amherst, on her way. Dr. and Mrs. Hayes returned from their trip to Upper Canadian cities on Tuesday. Rev. D. R. Grant made a trip to Tatamagouche last week. Mrs. Grant went to Halifax on Tuesday to visit friends. Mr. McKeen, of St. John, is in town this week.

The funeral of the late Mr. Upham was largely attended on Tuesday. Rev. Mr. Wilson, of Springfield, came down to attend at the service. The Masons, of which Mr. Upham was a prominent member, were in charge. The funeral of Mr. Kearney was also largely attended on Monday. The Knights of Pythias were in attendance and took charge of the service. Mr. Andrew Upham, who has been here on account of sickness and death of his father, has returned. Mr. Melbride, of the staff of the Union Bank of Halifax in Digby, is on duty here filling the place of Mr. Fizzle, who is spending his vacation in New York. Mrs. Bow, who has been visiting her sister, Miss Cameron, has returned to her home in Athol. The Misses Minnie and Edna Thompson have been visiting the sugar woods in Southampton for the last week, returning home on Tuesday. Gordon Yates, who has been away for some months, arrived home last week. Miss Harrison, who has been visiting Miss Adams, has returned to her home in Halfway River. Miss Myers, who has been very ill, is slowly recovering. Mr. A. Dyas and Mr. Tibbets are spending the week at Newville. Dr. McDougall has returned from Boston where he has been spending a few days. H. W. MacKenna went to Amherst on Wednesday. Mr. Broderick, who has been in Springhill for the winter, was in town on Tuesday, making some little preparations for opening his popular hotel. Miss Barwell, of Dorchester, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. J. Weldon. J. D. Brown, of Amherst, was in town on Saturday. Miss Taylor, of St. John, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Upham. Capt. Chambers, of the Hills, is in town, after having quite an experience in making his way through the ice. The steamers Springhill and Flashing had to go to his assistance. "Hello"—They say Fred kissed you last evening. "That's just like people; they always tell more than the truth or only half of it. This time they tell only half of the truth. I hope you will do me the justice to tell people that I kissed Fred the same time he kissed me."

TRURO. Truro, April 13—Louis R. Sharpsham intends going to Winnipeg to reside. On Thursday evening his fellow employees presented him with a handsome dress suit case, suitably engraved, accompanied by a kindly address. Mr. Sharpsham intends to spend a short time at his home in Windsor before leaving for the west.

A very enjoyable parlor concert was held Monday evening. The management committee consisted of Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. W. Harris, and great credit is due these ladies. Mrs. Stanley McCulloch, Misses E. Linton, E. Smith and Messrs. Harris, Sprague, Fitch, DeForest and others assisted in the pleasant and well-organized program for the evening.

Mrs. Bert Crossman, who has been in very delicate health for some time, left this morning for British Columbia. She was accompanied by her husband and they intend remaining some months, hoping the climate will do much for Mrs. Crossman.

Miss Sadie Kirkpatrick, of Halifax, who has been visiting at her home in Truro, is expected to return to her home in the Victoria. Mr. James B. Pittblado, son of Mr. James Pittblado, who once resided in Truro, has recently been married in Los Angeles to Miss Patricia Salaberry, a daughter of the late Don Salaberry, of Capistrano. The wedding mass was played by Mrs. Wanda, of Korea. Mr. and Mrs. Pittblado intend to reside in Los Angeles.

Miss Madge Donkin is home from Boston, spending a vacation with her mother. The residence of Mr. William Stevens on the corner of St. John and St. George, is a guest with Mr. Smith Cox and family. Miss George Mason left this morning for the west. She will probably reside for a time in Gloucester.

Miss Christiana C. McCallum, daughter of Mr. W. L. McCallum, a bright young school teacher, died at her home last week after a lingering illness. Her sister, Miss Katharine, nurse at Boston City Hospital, came home, but not in time to see her alive. Miss Norma Wood, of Oxford, is visiting at her uncle's, Mr. J. B. Black, Ostlaw. Miss Inna Jamieson has returned to her duties as teacher in Brookline (Mass.) after spending a short vacation at home.

Mr. and Mrs. George McLeod, of Bible Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kent and daughter are in California. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. S. E. Gourley, ex-M. E., who is quite ill at his home. Captain Charles Putnam, of Dawson City, was in town last week. He will be away on his tour of duty in Mexico and will be away some months.

The Misses Annie Cameron and Bertha McDonald left home on Wednesday for Taunton (Mass.), where they intend entering a hospital for a course of training. Mrs. George Eaton, of "Bimburat," Matt. Island, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Wilson, Springhill. Miss May Chisholm, of Musquodoboit, is a guest with her cousin, Mrs. D. Forbes. She has also been visiting friends in Brookline.

Mrs. Mair Sibley has her two sisters with her now—the Misses Mabel and Lilla Jamieson, of Quabouctou—who will probably be her guests for several months. Mrs. F. McCreary, of West Roxbury, who has been visiting at his old home in Greenfield, has now returned to the States.

PARRSBORO. Parrsboro, April 18—Mrs. H. A. Price, who has been spending the winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dyas, took her departure for her home near New York, on Thursday. She will visit her brother, Dr. Dyas, in Amherst, on her way. Dr. and Mrs. Hayes returned from their trip to Upper Canadian cities on Tuesday. Rev. D. R. Grant made a trip to Tatamagouche last week. Mrs. Grant went to Halifax on Tuesday to visit friends. Mr. McKeen, of St. John, is in town this week.

The funeral of the late Mr. Upham was largely attended on Tuesday. Rev. Mr. Wilson, of Springfield, came down to attend at the service. The Masons, of which Mr. Upham was a prominent member, were in charge. The funeral of Mr. Kearney was also largely attended on Monday. The Knights of Pythias were in attendance and took charge of the service. Mr. Andrew Upham, who has been here on account of sickness and death of his father, has returned. Mr. Melbride, of the staff of the Union Bank of Halifax in Digby, is on duty here filling the place of Mr. Fizzle, who is spending his vacation in New York. Mrs. Bow, who has been visiting her sister, Miss Cameron, has returned to her home in Athol. The Misses Minnie and Edna Thompson have been visiting the sugar woods in Southampton for the last week, returning home on Tuesday. Gordon Yates, who has been away for some months, arrived home last week. Miss Harrison, who has been visiting Miss Adams, has returned to her home in Halfway River. Miss Myers, who has been very ill, is slowly recovering. Mr. A. Dyas and Mr. Tibbets are spending the week at Newville. Dr. McDougall has returned from Boston where he has been spending a few days. H. W. MacKenna went to Amherst on Wednesday. Mr. Broderick, who has been in Springhill for the winter, was in town on Tuesday, making some little preparations for opening his popular hotel. Miss Barwell, of Dorchester, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. J. Weldon. J. D. Brown, of Amherst, was in town on Saturday. Miss Taylor, of St. John, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Upham. Capt. Chambers, of the Hills, is in town, after having quite an experience in making his way through the ice. The steamers Springhill and Flashing had to go to his assistance. "Hello"—They say Fred kissed you last evening. "That's just like people; they always tell more than the truth or only half of it. This time they tell only half of the truth. I hope you will do me the justice to tell people that I kissed Fred the same time he kissed me."

for a course of training. Mrs. George Eaton, of "Bimburat," Matt. Island, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Wilson, Springhill. Miss May Chisholm, of Musquodoboit, is a guest with her cousin, Mrs. D. Forbes. She has also been visiting friends in Brookline.

Mrs. Mair Sibley has her two sisters with her now—the Misses Mabel and Lilla Jamieson, of Quabouctou—who will probably be her guests for several months. Mrs. F. McCreary, of West Roxbury, who has been visiting at his old home in Greenfield, has now returned to the States.

PARRSBORO. Parrsboro, April 18—Mrs. H. A. Price, who has been spending the winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dyas, took her departure for her home near New York, on Thursday. She will visit her brother, Dr. Dyas, in Amherst, on her way. Dr. and Mrs. Hayes returned from their trip to Upper Canadian cities on Tuesday. Rev. D. R. Grant made a trip to Tatamagouche last week. Mrs. Grant went to Halifax on Tuesday to visit friends. Mr. McKeen, of St. John, is in town this week.

The funeral of the late Mr. Upham was largely attended on Tuesday. Rev. Mr. Wilson, of Springfield, came down to attend at the service. The Masons, of which Mr. Upham was a prominent member, were in charge. The funeral of Mr. Kearney was also largely attended on Monday. The Knights of Pythias were in attendance and took charge of the service. Mr. Andrew Upham, who has been here on account of sickness and death of his father, has returned. Mr. Melbride, of the staff of the Union Bank of Halifax in Digby, is on duty here filling the place of Mr. Fizzle, who is spending his vacation in New York. Mrs. Bow, who has been visiting her sister, Miss Cameron, has returned to her home in Athol. The Misses Minnie and Edna Thompson have been visiting the sugar woods in Southampton for the last week, returning home on Tuesday. Gordon Yates, who has been away for some months, arrived home last week. Miss Harrison, who has been visiting Miss Adams, has returned to her home in Halfway River. Miss Myers, who has been very ill, is slowly recovering. Mr. A. Dyas and Mr. Tibbets are spending the week at Newville. Dr. McDougall has returned from Boston where he has been spending a few days. H. W. MacKenna went to Amherst on Wednesday. Mr. Broderick, who has been in Springhill for the winter, was in town on Tuesday, making some little preparations for opening his popular hotel. Miss Barwell, of Dorchester, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. J. Weldon. J. D. Brown, of Amherst, was in town on Saturday. Miss Taylor, of St. John, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Upham.