PARLIAMENT OF CANADA.

Grit Tactics-Mercantile Agencies.

By Telégraph. OTTAWA, Nov. 1.— Politicians ing use of the holiday to do some live, canyassing.

The Opposition members, reporters and sympathisers, dog the steps of doubtful members, announcing defections from the Ministerial ranks, and offering heavy bets on Grit victory. This has been the line of action for days past.

Blake insists on remaining silent till Sir John speaks, which is considered cowardly, the general feeling being that it is only fair that Sir John should hear all that is to be brought against him before replying.

Unless there ensues unexpected desertions from the Government ranks the informal majority is certain.

Single Ministerial ranks, and offering the ministerial ranks and the mines of the case of the considered cowardly, the general feeling being that it is only fair that Sir John should hear all that is to be brought against him before replying.
