

AN INDISPENSABLE ADJUNCT*To Every Dressmaking Business isThe Metropolitan Catalogue of Fashions,

Which, as a
 Repertory of Current Styles, is the Finest and Most Complete ever Published.

THIS MAGNIFICENT PUBLICATION is a semi-annual résumé, within whose covers are included all the styles in fashionable use for ladies and children at the time of its publication. A comparison of two successive numbers shows that the later edition, while possessing large additions in the way of novelty, retains a noticeable proportion of the engravings shown in the previous volume. As purveyors of modes, we find that many styles take a strong hold on public taste and frequently outlast two or three seasons in popularity. Again, in our position as designers of Fashions it occasionally happens that we introduce a style which does not at once attract public favor—which, in fact, requires time to grow into general esteem. Some there are which leap at one bound into public admiration; but these are indeed as erratic as comets—to-day a wonderful attraction, to-morrow gone and forgotten. All these and other similar circumstances are duly considered in the preparation of the work under discussion; the end kept permanently in view being to have it contain every fashion in vogue for ladies, misses and children, as issued up to the date of its publication.

Having been prepared in view of much handling (being especially calculated for the sales-counters of Agents), this Catalogue is excellently adapted to the needs of Dressmakers and Manufacturers of Ladies' and Misses' Clothing.
