

and Managers shall be capable of exercising such other power and authority for the well governing and ordering of the affairs of the said corporation as shall be prescribed by the Rules, Orders and Regulations of the said corporation.

V.—And be it enacted, that nothing herein contained shall have the effect, or be construed to have the effect of rendering all or any of the said several persons hereinbefore mentioned, or all or any of the members of the said corporation, or any person whomsoever, individually liable or accountable for or by reason of any debt, contract or security, incurred or entered into for or by reason of the said corporation, or for, on account or in respect of any matter or thing, whatsoever relating to the said corporation.

VI.—And be it enacted, that it shall not be necessary to the validity of any act performed by any married woman, as a member of the said Corporation, or to her becoming such, that she be thereunto specially authorized by her husband; any law, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

VII.—And be it enacted, that nothing herein contained, shall affect or be so construed to affect in any manner or way the rights of Her Majesty, her heirs or successors, or of any person or persons, or of any body politic or corporate, such only excepted as are hereinbefore mentioned and provided for.

VIII.—And be it enacted, that this Statute shall be deemed a public Act, and shall be publicly taken notice of as such by all judges, justices of the peace, and other persons whomsoever, without being specially pleaded.
