

Edmund Wigg sworn ^{primary} oath when attending on the Market Square to his grocery near to the Old School House ^{primary} was charged with people saw a little distance near to the scales the prisoners striking at each other. shortly after they both appeared in front of the grocery when they renewed the combat both striking each other, the Witness is a Constable and commanded the peace saying unless they desisted he would commit them, they again separated when he saw the Cumberd man take his the Constables Cheese Knife and advanced toward Kelly saying what he would do with it, Kelly as Witness thinks or thought drew from his pocket a Pocket Knife and threatened also, when the Cumberd man threw a stone larger than a Mans fist which struck Kelly on the face, the blood flowed at this time Constables they got from the scene of Witness saw the Cumberd man looking another stone

O. M. Wigg J.D. Edmund Wigg

M. M. Wigg J.D.

Information and evidence for the Kelly case
 Wigg J.D.
 Kelly 26 May 56