

Sir,
 In reply to Mr Nelsons memorial relative to his having been unfairly dealt with by the Medical Board here, we have to state that the whole tenor of his memorial is untrue, his ability getting him to practice was not acknowledged, he was not advised to go to one of the American Universities,

The Board acknowledged this gentlemen progress in the elements of his profession as far as his opportunities of acquiring it went, but finding his progress not such as to entitle him to a Licence, he was by the
