

PRINCE, E. E.

St. Andrew's University and Fishery Investigations in the Sea.

Memorial Volume of Scientific Papers: Quincentenary of the University of St. Andrew's, September, 1911.

Biological Stations.

Forty-fourth Annual Report, Department of Marine and Fisheries, Ottawa, 1910-11 (1911), Fisheries, pp. xiii-xv.

Gives a synopsis of the season's work at the three Biological Stations in Canada, viz., at St. Andrews, N.B., at Departure bay, B.C., and at Go-Home bay, Georgian bay, Ont.

SETON, ERNEST THOMPSON.

Notes from Pembroke, Ont.

The Ottawa Naturalist, January, 1911, vol. xxiv, No. 10, p. 175.

Records the rare occurrence at Pembroke of the Black Squirrel, the Double-crested Cormorant and the Woodcock.

TOWNSEND, CHARLES W.

A Labrador Spring.

12 mo, pp. xi + 262, with numerous half-tone plates. June 1910, Dana Estes and Company, Boston, U.S.A.

Includes ornithological matter of much interest. (Omitted by mistake from the Bib. of Can. Zool. for 1910.)