

Enos Scott, who employs 10 to 12 hands, and cures from 500 to 600 tons of pork and bacon annually.

Carriage Factory and Blacksmithing of James Davidson, is carried on with enterprise and attention.

The Cheese Factory of Messrs. Sinclair & Co., where 40 to 50 tons of cheese have been made last season.

HOTEL.—The Union Hotel is kept by Mr. Albert Clark in good style and is worthy of public patronage.

CLARK, ALBERT, prop Union Hotel
(see adv)

Connor, Peter, shoe maker

DAVIDSON, JAMES, waggon maker and blacksmith

DOUGHTY, GEORGE, prop Green's
Woollen Mills

Goodwin, Samuel, cabinet maker

Green, Walker, spinner

HAIGHT, ISAAC, prop gravel road

HAIGHT & WILLSON, prop woollen mills

HAIGHT, JAS W, (Haight & Willson)

Hawkins, Samuel, mechanic

Jones, Francis, (of McKenzie & Jones)

Lanning, John, gardener

McAuliff, Timothy, blacksmith

McKENZIE & JONES, P M, and general merchants

McKenzie, Jas, (of McKenzie & Jones)

Moore, J K, retired

Montgomery, Robert, retired

Norman, Wm, tailor

Ogilvie, Ezekiel, laborer

Philpott, Rich, mason

Savage, Mrs

SCOTT, ENOS, pork packer

Seaboard, Conrod, blacksmith

SINCLAIR, JOHN & Co, cheese factory

Sweedland, Fredk, blacksmith

WILLSON, SOLOMON, (of Haight & Willson)

UNION HOTEL,

ALBERT CLARK, PROPRIETOR,

Union,
Ontario.

This first class hotel is fitted up in the best style for the accommodation of commercial men and the travelling community.

THE TABLE AND BAR ARE WELL SUPPLIED.

 Good Stabling and every attention paid to guests.