

MORE SPANKING NEED OF TODAY

Character of Primary Importance in Training Child, Says Prof. James Miller

ADDRESS TO TEACHERS

Also Puts Ours of Training on the Parents in K. C. I. Address

KINGSTON, Oct. 20.—The present generation is suffering from insufficient spanking, said Prof. James Miller, of Queen's University, in an excellent address last night before the Parent Teachers' Association of the Collegiate Institute on "The Training of the Young Citizen." Dr. Miller would give the first place to the development of the child's character, the next place to the child's health, next and the last to the child's education, in his scheme for training the young Canadian. The main object should be, he said, to produce a citizen with character, health and a good general education with a certain amount of culture and the onus of the child's training should be taken by the parent, he claimed.

Discussing character, Dr. Miller said steps should be taken early to curb the child's appetite for food, money and power and to inculcate the spirit of gentleness and civility. Much of this task could be done at school but the great responsibility lay with the parents, he thought. In two things was the present generation deficient, in reverence for authority and in the lack of the spirit of service. Respect for elders, kindness to the aged, and the necessity for doing what he is told should be implanted early in the child's mind. "The present generation was suffering to a large extent from insufficient spanking," he said.

Speaking of the child's health Dr. Miller said he would consider it first, did it come to be a question of the child's health or his education. He stressed the importance of good food and water for the child. The local system of chlorinating the water was as good a plan as was feasible without great additional expense on the part of the authorities, but it was impossible to get rid of all human contamination. Simply boiling the water rendered it absolutely harmless. "As fathers and mothers we ought to carry it out," said the speaker.

The Canadian child, claimed Dr. Miller, ate too many candies. Pure ice cream was a good food but the child should exercise restraint in eating it. Fresh air and exercise were very important. The speaker feared that the schools in this country confined the children too much to stuffy rooms.

News About People and Social Events

SIX-TEAM BASKET LEAGUE GAME SPRINGS TO FORE IN CITY

Basketball will begin in real earnest in the Y. gym in a few days, a six-team league having been organized for the city last night. It is the purpose to stage three games every Wednesday night.

The teams in the league will be the Grand Trunks, The Tiger Tire, The K.V.A., the Bankers, Taplin-Baker, and an All-Star team.

On Monday night there will be a meeting to draw up the schedule. At last evening's meeting there were five teams represented.

DEMPSEY IS IN WRONG

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, denied emphatically here yesterday that he is responsible for the domestic difficulties of Al Siegal, Sigal, who is the husband of Bess Palmer, vaudeville star, charges the champion with stealing his wife and declares he has begun suit for $100,000 against Dempsey.

"Say, when I marry a girl, I won't marry an actress," Dempsey asserted vehemently. "I'll go out and get myself an honest-to-goodness girl with bloom in her cheeks. I'm not saying Miss Palmer is not a perfect dear, but she's not my type."

Remarkable Golf Played By Miss Leitch in Tourney

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Miss Cecil Leitch, the British golf champion, continued her sensational play in the Belleaire Country Club tournament Tuesday in winning her first match round on the Long Island links. She was opposed to Miss Louise Elkins, of the Oakmont Club, whom she defeated easily by a score of 8 up and 7 to play.

The match ended on the eleventh hole, but the English girl played out the bye holes in an attempt to break the course record for women of 75, held by Mrs. William A. Gavin, a club member. Miss Leitch just failed in her efforts, getting an 80 for the round.

The score represented wonderful golf, especially in view of the fact that a strong wind prevailed throughout the performance. This breeze or gale, or whatever you wish to call it, obstructed the path of the contestants on the long holes, and most of them had the hardest kind of work making their way to the greens.

This condition, however, bothered Miss Leitch not a whit. With her powerful drives she sent the little white ball rolling merrily on its way far down the middle of the fairway, and scored well without difficulty. Her driving was the feature of her match with Miss Elkins as well as the feature of the entire day's play.

Long Step for Women is U. S. Government Action

Four women, three of them residents of New York, were among the thirty-eight delegates constituting the national conference on unemployment at Washington.

The New York women were Miss Ida M. Tarbell, Mrs. Sara Conboy, Miss Mary van Kleeck. The fourth is Miss Elizabeth Christman, of Chicago.

Their presence in the conference, which included representatives of the Government, capital and labor, and the most able economists in the United States, marks a long step in the participation of women in matters of national importance.

Miss Tarbell is a champion of scientific management, and at an important labor conference she once remarked:

"Scientific management breaks away entirely from old ideas. It means better earnings, shorter hours, and, most important of all, the development of the man as a worker."

"One reason why scientific management is so important is that it requires co-operation and collective action to make it really successful. Under it every man must be heard, whether his complaint be silly or not, either as an individual or through his representative."

Mrs. Conboy made her entrance into the labor movement seventeen years ago during a strike among carpet weavers, when she was made business agent of a union. Later she became an organizer, and has been secretary-treasurer of the United Textile Workers of America since 1914. She was a delegate to the British Trades Union Congress at Portsmouth, England, in 1920, and was the first woman to represent the American Federation of Labor abroad.

Mrs. Conboy is also chairman of the State Reconstruction Committee, and occupies the same position on the advisory board of the New York Board of Education.

Miss Van Kleeck is director of industrial studies of the Russell Sage Foundation. From 1905 to 1907 she held a fellowship in College Settlements Association and investigated hours and work of women in factories in New York and child labor in tenement sections. During the war she was director of the women's bureau of the industrial service section of the Ordnance department and director of women in the industry service of the United States Department of Labor.

Miss Christman is secretary of the International Glove Workers' Union and secretary-treasurer of the National Women's Trade Union League. During the war she was chief of the staff of women's examiners for the National War Labor Board.

NURSES POISONED BY DEADLY FUDGE

Note Enclosed With Box Sent to Hospital Read "Ardent Admirer."

"FAITHFULLY MADE"

Police Believe Poisonous Candy Was Sent by Jealous Suitor

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—An exhaustive search for the sender of a box of poisoned candy, responsible for the critical illness of six nurses at the West End Hospital, was being conducted today by post-office inspectors.

The box came through the mail and was addressed to Miss Helen Rosenfeld, a 17-year-old student nurse. It contained home-made fudge, analysis of which was said to show that the deadly poison permeated all of the candy.

Miss Rosenfeld came to the United States nine months ago from Austria and has since been a student nurse in the hospital since that time. In the candy box was a typewritten note bearing the following inscription:

"From a patient who was an ardent admirer. This candy was faithfully made."

The girl invited other nurses to share the candy with her and within a few minutes all of them became ill. One of the theories advanced by the postal authorities is that, instead of a patient, some jealous suitor sent the box to Miss Rosenfeld.

What to Do For Stomach Trouble

Good Advice From One Who Had Suffered Much

Nine-tenths of all forms of indigestion or so-called stomach trouble are not due to the condition of the stomach at all, but are caused by other influences. The great contributing cause of indigestion is thin blood. Good blood and plenty of it is required by the stomach to take care of the food. If the blood is thin the stomach functions sluggish, food lies un-digested, gas forms and causes pains in various parts of the body. Instead of getting nourishment from the blood the system gets poison.

Relief from this condition can be obtained by the tonic treatment which Mr. D. Shaw, M.D., F.R.C.P., tried and now warmly recommends to others. Mr. Shaw says: "I suffered from indigestion for over four years, and have tried many of the well-known remedies for such troubles, but never obtained more than temporary relief. He trouble was aggravated by constipation setting in owing to the stomach failing to do its work, and laxatives only gave relief to the bowels and left the stomach in worse condition. The result was my blood was growing more and more anaemic, I did not sleep well at night and was growing dependent. I was in this wretched condition when a friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I got three boxes and by the time they were finished there was some change for the better. This greatly encouraged me and I continued taking the pills for some three months, by which time my stomach was all right again, my blood good, nerves strong and life was again worth living. My advice to all who suffer from stomach trouble is to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can be obtained through any medicine dealer, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

REDNERSVILLE WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The September meeting of the Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Morton B. Weese. The "Judy fruit picking and packing kept many away and in the absence of Mrs. Orvis first vice-president, Mrs. D. T. Stafford, presided. The program consisted of a reading "Unity in the Home," by Mrs. Elwood Spencer—a paper full of excellent thoughts for all. The discussion on "Salads" led by Mrs. W. H. Montgomery was very interesting. Miss Arkley favored the members with one of her delightful solos. A little talk on "Fair Work" and "God Save the King" closed the meeting.

The Institute members are much grieved to hear of the death of one of their oldest members, Mrs. George Roblin, who passed away Sunday morning in the Hospital in Toronto after a few days' illness. Others on the sick list are Mrs. D. T. Stafford, Mrs. Lorne Erickman, and Mrs. Percy Crouter.

The next meeting will be held at Mrs. D. T. Stafford's on Oct. 27th, when the prizes won by the girls at the School Fair will be presented.

A monument to the East Nisourri soldiers who died in the war was unveiled at Kintore.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Stewart, Stratford, celebrated their diamond wedding.

COUNTRY CLUB JOINS L. Y. R. A.

Decides to Link up With Yachting Organization at Directors' Meeting

G.W.V.A. INTERESTED

Put Yachting on a Sound Basis in Belleville as it Was Years Ago

Having decided that yachting shall be one of the interests of the Bay of Quinte Country Club, the directors last evening reached an important conclusion to take out a membership in the Lake Yacht Racing Association with a view to securing, if possible, the next regatta of the association for Belleville. President E. D. Finkle, of the G.W.V.A., ap- of the Veterans with regard to putting yachting on a sound basis in and about the city.

The directors heard the report of peared before the directorate and laid before that body the suggestions Mr. George K. Graham in reference to the work so far accomplished on the course of the club. He reported that good progress had already been made.

A committee was selected to have plans prepared for the proposed clubhouse which will adorn the grounds. PICTON TEAM CONFIDENT.

The Picton team, with a strong brigade of fans, arrived in town by motor shortly after noon today for their sudden-death tilt with the Hebrew Lits of Toronto, the issue to decide the Intermediate O.A.B.A. title. Both teams were confident.

What Shall I Do?

"Trish"—You will be of age at 21. It is very hard, Dear, for parents to realize that their children are grown up, so be patient with father and tactfully show him by your self-control and womanliness in other ways that you are really growing up and may be trusted to make wise choices for yourself.

"May"—Awfully sorry, but you didn't allow time enough for me to get your answer into the column. You see there are so many letters and our column is so small, that it takes three weeks or more to answer in the column. If you want a quicker answer, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope. I'm not a bit sorry that so many of you like our column so well that you write to me—I'm only sorry I can't answer faster. Don't accuse anyone of lying to you, but just tell the young man there must be some mistake, for you understand he has taken "such-and-such" a girl out, as of course he had a perfect right to do. He is wise to make friends of different girls and go with them till he finds out the one he likes best.

"Jeanne"—You hesitate to marry a man because he is partly bald. If you are marrying a man for the amount of hair on his head, for pity's sake stop before it's too late! If you are marrying him for what is inside of his head, a little baldness is a small defect. By way of contrast read "Only a Steno" in tomorrow's column. You are mighty lucky, Jeanne, that a "wonderful fellow" has asked you to share a home with him.

"Bobby"—The boy was selfish to want you to confine yourself to him. Perhaps he goes with the undesirable girls because he is peevish at you. If he is a real gentleman at heart, he will soon tire of them and perhaps ask for your friendship again. Of course he ought to have several girl friends too. Be friendly with him, but stick to your resolution.

"V.N.A."—Yours is a real difficulty. Relatives are often thoughtless in running in so much on their city friends. Be as tactful as possible, but plan a campaign of "tit-for-tat." How would it do for a while to visit around among these relatives on every holiday or Sunday you possibly can, and make kindly suggestions about their homes, clothes, etc? Perhaps they have not realized that they were criticizing you. Possibly you have been tired and too sensitive. When they suggest and criticize, say, "Is that the way you like it? I like it the other way best. How nice that we're not all alike—there'd be such a sameness in life." If your husband feels as you do about this, you can easily work it together. If on a particular day you suspect that they may come, leave your home locked and stay away till they have left the city.

"Pussied"—The young lady is trying to tease you, and perhaps succeeding. The best way to avoid being teased is to be good natured about it and think no more of it. If a boy wants to be called William, he should act like William; if he acts like Bill, he will be called Bill. Some of us, it is true, have to go through life with an unfortunate nickname. It's like a truned-up nose—we don't like it, but it sticks to us. But if we really have the goods we get by in spite of it.

"Undecided"—The color for the boy is pink, for the girl is blue. Just why it came to be, I've never found out.

"Midget"—When girls give a party to which they invite boys, it is perfectly proper to give the invitation by a note.

The Fall Weather Hard on Little Ones

Canadian fall weather is extremely hard on little ones. One day it is warm and bright and the next wet and cold. These sudden changes bring on colds, cramps and colic, and unless baby's little stomach is kept right the result may be serious. There is nothing to equal Baby's Own Tablets in keeping the little ones well. They sweeten the stomach, regulate the bowels, break up colic and make baby thrive. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

OVER $200,000 PAID IN TAXES

Today Saw Heavy Donation by Citizens of Belleville at Call of Officials

LAST DAY AT "PAR"

Larger Receipts Expected as Levy for 1921 Was Heavier Than Before

Today saw a heavy payment of taxes into the city treasury. The exact amount taken in this morning was not known, although it was large. Up to last night the tax collector's office had taken in $178,000 in addition to many cheques that had not yet been totalled. These would perhaps reach forty thousand dollars.

This was the last day for payment at par and the receipts were ahead of those for the year 1920, but as the levy is more heavy this year and larger receipts were to be expected.
