AN EXPENSIVE ENTERPRISE. In a few weeks the Canadian branch of the Royal Mint will be ready for business. The building as Hamil, North Chatham, about three completed, with the grounds and the walls, will have cost close upon $400,000. The equipment, furnishings and machinery will probably bring the bill to considerably over half a million. Four of the officers have already been engaged. The Canadian master of the mint, Mr. Bonar, starts out with a salary of $5,500, and the contract provides for increases to $6,contract provides for increases to $6, 500. Mr. Cleve, the superintendent, is now paid $3,500, but will later receive $4,500. Two foremen have salaries of $1,200 to start with and promise of increase. These four officers will thus draw some $12,500 a year, with certain expenses additional.

Surrounding the luckless victim were the yelling fiends exulting in any sign of suffering or weakness exhibited by their suffering and defenceless captive, as some newly devised touture was applied to the quivering flesh. Their devilish imgenuity at these times seemed to know no bounds, as they danced howling and yelling, around the wretched being in a surfeit of hellish delight, till at last the poor tortured body sank into insensibility, protound unconsciousness, oblivious rest, and such are the soothing ministrations of kindly nature to the overburdened body; nature, who in her tenderest care and maternal solicitude, will not permit us to suffer beyond a certain point. Excessive pain cannot last long, and human anguish wound up to its utmost quivering pitch, at last finds a lethal calm.

As I listen to the sighing and meaning of the wind, it seems changed to the feeble cries of anguish of a tortured and departing soul; the head in helpless weakness sinks upon the scarred and pulseless breast. Listen! A sigh! A last soobling gasp! Silence! Hush! — a soul has field to the unknown. On, on, and on beyond the darkening night it wings its way; nor shall it rest till that brilliant far-off speek shall broaden wider and wider, till at last the glorious light of the Master, that reaches from

FIGHTING IN MOROCCO.

Bombards Fidallah.

Casablanca, Aug. 24.—Twelve Frenchmen were wounded during the fighting Wedfesday. They include Capt. Detulles of the foreign legation. A battery of 75 millimetre guns was disembarked from a transport and used shrapnel with tremendous effect upon the enemy. The Arabs again showed reckless courage. They would ride close up to the French camp, dismount and fire persistently until they were disperse by the shell fire from the cruiser Glore.

The cruiser Gueydon has bombarded the port of Fidallah, to the north of Casablanca. The smugglers of arms had their headquarters at Fidallah.

Tangier, Aug. 23.—The Government troops, under command of Elmerani, the uncle of the Sultan, have been defeated by the Kmass tribesmen. Elmerani retreated in the direction of Aleasar.

Alcasar. Elmerani's defeat means there is danger of the hill tribes looting Alcasar. Three days ago Raisuli, who is holding Caid Sir Harry MacLean prisoner, was not more than eight miles from Elmerani's headquarters.

Paris, Aug. 23.—Vice-Admiral Philibert, commanding the French naval forces off Casabhanca, telegraphs that while the Moors were advancing on the French camp near Casabhanca Wednesday morning under the cover of a fog, the fog lifted and permitted the French batteries ashore and affoat to shell the Moors with deadly effect. Statesman Favors Policy of Nations Giving Up Colonies.

Stuttgart, Germany, Ang. 23.—An interesting discussion of the colonial question developed at the International Socialists' Congress, which is now in session here.

Dr. David, one of the German delegates, expressing the views of the majority, said that colonization was necessary as a means of civilization, but that the present method of conducting colonial wars purely for conquest, followed by the exploitation of the country for the benefit of capitalists, must cease.

Mr. Quelch of London referred to the Peace Conference at The Hague as "a gathering of thieves and murderers who are endeavoring to organize easier methods for the carrying out of crimes."

TARIFF MODIFICATIONS.

Progress Being Made In France-Canadian Treaty.

London, Aug. 23.—The Standard's Paris correspondent says the Franco-Canadian tariff negotiations are progressing satisfactorily. French efforts are devoted to obtaining modifications in the intermediate tariff. France is particularly anxious to succeed because this is the first treaty Canada has proposed in deference to the sentimental regard of the French-Canadian.

BUILD 'EM IN BRITAIN.

Battleships Ordered In England for Foreign Power. Foreign Power.

London, Aug. 23.—A foreign Government, supposed to be Russia, says The Chronicle, has awarded to a British firm of shipbuilders a contract for several battleships, cruisers and gunboats, a record insurance of nearly $35,000,000 has been effected on the building and launching risks, the policies covering two years. This is an apt description of constipation. It's an unnatural condition to begin with, and it's more, because it brings about blood deterioration, interferes with digestion, renders you susceptible to infectious diseases and causes anaemia. Not so much a purgative as a natural stimulant to the bowels is what you need. You get it in Dr. Hamilton's Pills, which increase liver activity, restore the bowels to perfect action and positively cure constipation and its attendant evils. Third Department Created For Self-Geverning Colonies.

London, Aug. 23.—In the House of Lords, Lord Elgin announced that it was proposed to divide the Colonial Office into three departments, instead of four, as now. One is to be a Dominion department, exclusively for business of the self-governing colonies; the second for crown colonies; the third for legal and financial business; the last to have seven assistants under the Secretary of States, for duties arising out of the Imperial Conference. Mr. Just, joint secretary of the conference, is to be appointed. Dynamiters Get Busy.

A similar attempt was made to blow up the same train at Duffield the day before. The dynamiters escaped, but the sheriff is on their trail.

Two Fires at Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, Ang. 23.—Two fires yesterday, caused by the explosion of gasoline in clothes' pressing establishments, caused damage estimated at $250,000, and for a time threatened the entire east end section of this city. The three-storey brick building was destroyed, and 14 employes were rescued from the windows by firemen.

The second fire, before it was under control, wiped out seven buildings.

Four men were hurt during the fighting of the fire. Get their feet wet, catch cold or cramps, and give mothers an anxious time. Buying Apples by Weight.

Mr. Jackson, Canadian agent at Leeds, England, says: "British fruit buyers are gradually adopting the method of purchasing fruit by weight instead of by measure, and this will be to the benefit of Canadian shippers, as apples from this country are heavier in proportion to bulk than those imported from other countries. Mr. Jackson predicts a serious shortage in the English apple crop and a bumper market for Canadian fruit.

The Old System of Drill Aloft to Be Reinstated.

In consequence of reports having been made to the Admiralty of seamen in some of His Majesty's ships having refused to go aloft in rough weather, it has been decided to reinstate the old "mast and sail" system of instruction in the harbor training ships.

This system was abolished about seven years ago, and with is went the old Cruiser Squadron, consisting of fully-rigged steam ships, in which youths were sent to sea before being passed out into the ships in the first line. The sailing brigs Nautilus and Liberty were also dismantled.

In the place of this system a new one was introduced by which boys were first sent to sea in the ships of the Particular Service Squadron, consisting of first-class armored cruisers. Sail drill, running aloft and such things were consigned to the limbo of the past, as having no place in an age of steam and steel.

The objections of many distinguished naval officers were overruled as being obsolete. They said that drill aloft trained the men in confidence and daring, and that its abolition would result in a falling off in those qualities in which the British bluejacket has always been supreme. But the objectors were ridiculed.

Now the authorities have discover that the naval officers were right, at the obsolete "mast and sail" drill to be reinstated.

Vancouver Island Settlers' Act, a Previnical Act, is Constitutional.

Vancouver Island Settlers' Act, a Previnical Act, is Constitutional.

The Privy Council has recently given judgment in McGregor v. Esquimsult and Nanaimo Railway Co. The appeal has been allowed with costs. The above mentioned decision ends a unique contest between the British Columbia Government and the C.P.R. to test the validity of the Vancouver Island settlers' act, a provincial act passed in 1904. It is a test action on behalf of hundreds of settlers and involves the title to the surface rights, minerals and timber on the 160 acres each now held under that act within the belt of land granted to that railway in the days of its control by Robert Dunsmuir, father of the present Lieutenant-Governor.

The C.P.R., which has acquired that company's rights, is not unwilling that the settlers should have the surface, but the company claims absolute title to the minerals and the timber under the grant of the lands within the railway belt by the Dominion Government. Although failing at the trial, the company was successful more appeal to the full court of British Columbia upon the contention that the act of 1904 was unconstitutional, presuming to grant to settlers lands not within the jurisdiction of the Provincial Government, on behalf of Donald MeGregor and the other settlers, appealed to take this course, having in that act promised to "assert and defend the grant and the rights of the settlers at the expense of the Crown." The act defined settler as "one having, prior to the date of its passing, 1904 occupied or improved lands within the railway belt with the bonafide intention of living thereon."
