MANNERS IN PUBLIC SERVICE

Mayor Dunn, of Chicago, has inaugurated some reforms and is striving to introduce others which have been very widely discussed throughout the world. His latest order is for politeness on the part of all public officials. He is making an effort to establish better standards of conduct and deportment for the guidance of city employees in their dealings with the public, which should lead to an improvement that will be widely appreciated. The Mayor has addressed a communication to the heads of his city departments, asking them to co-operate towards this end. Three of these officials have been constituted a committee to frame rules and regulations, Brusque and curt behavior towards the public is to be forbidden. All persons in the city's employ will be required to show courtesy toward visitors, to give civil answers to all civil questions and in general make themselves agreeable both in dress and deportment. Citizens who have business to transact in public offices outside of Chicago do not need to be told that there is room everywhere for the proposed improvement. The attitude of many public employees toward outsiders too often is one of reluctant tolerance. Politeness costs nothing, but it is none the less valuable for that reason. To insist that the city government and all public employees be mannerly and obliging is to give them a clearer conception of their duties and increase materially their general efficiency.

SUCCESS FROM ADVERTISING.

The part which advertising plays in the success of the merchants of our time is shown strongly in the business career of Senator Fulford, whose death from injuries received in an automobile accident has caused widespread regret. Senator Fulford made a fortune of $15,000,000, and his success was the result of judicious advertising. Other men have had things equally as worthy as his pink pills, but many of the others have shrunk from spending such large sums as he invested in giving publicity to his wares.

This is beyond question the day of the advertiser. As a matter of fact, advertising has become a business in itself, and among its workers includes many of the best minds of the land. In these days of keen competition no great success is possible to the merchant who neglects or refuses to advertise.

Continued success in advertising depends upon two points. First, the wares advertised must be such as will hold public confidence; secondly, the advertising campaign must be conducted with skill and energy. In former days merit alone was sufficient; to-day requires merit and an intelligent telling of that merit.

The St. Petersburg Russ takes a view of the recent peace settlement which is very wise. The treatment of France by Germany has left a scar behind which may yet seek revenge. "What would have happened had Russia now, after her defeats, a European power, such as Germany, to deal with? God has not punished us; He has given us a lesson and a reprieve. But if we do not use this to repair the sins which have come to light, the punishment will certainly come, and we shall have doubly deserved it."

PICKPOCKETS

The police have been warned to be on the lookout for three suspicious characters who arrived here last Tuesday evening from Detroit on the 1118 Wabash train. The party consists of two men and one woman, the latter is supposed to be a shop-lifter and the two former pickpockets.

Up to the present the police have been unable to locate them. They did not register at any of the hotels and it is supposed they have taken quarters in a private boarding house. The information received said that they would bear watching.

TURNERVILLE.

The Dawn Mills choir rendered excellent music at the Lindsay Road Church on Sunday night. Miss Annie Stocking was a Chatham visitor last week. The farmers are busy harvesting their sugar beets. We are sorry to report that Jonah Carpenter is very sick. Miss Joan Hall, of Chatham, was visiting her sister, Miss Jessie Hall, our popular teacher, last week. Quite a number from here attended the harvest home at Shiloh on Sunday and Monday. Mrs. William Crowder was the guest of Christopher Buckingham on Sunday.

GOING AHEAD

The Thornton and Douglas Firm is Making Rapid Strides Along the Road to Success

It is said that Stratford now has one of the best men's furnishings retail store in Ontario. This claim is made by competent authorities for the T. & D. premises in what was formerly the Woods Fair Block. With its handsome quartered oak fittings, and with every convenience obtainable, it is a credit to the firm and to Mr. D. Eason, the contractor.

This week sees the Thornton & Douglas clothing establishment in full swing at the firm's new stand on Ontario street. People who have not visited the store can have but little idea of the transformation wrought by the busy staff of mechanics who remodelled the premises with a view to their occupation as a gent's furnishings store.

Of the clothing displayed, nothing need be said more than that it is up to the T. & D. standard, which has become synonymous with the highest type of excellence. The clerks are always obliging and courteous. One impressed with the number of lady buyers who visit this store, where they are made to feel perfectly at home.

It is impossible to describe the store in its completeness, and it should be unnecessary, as most people have a chance of seeing it for themselves. The business has been established here since 1888, and Stratford people are well acquainted with the clothing principles for which it stands.—Stratford Herald.

The above refers to a concern which is well known in this city, and the account gives proof that the firm is making rapid progress in other cities as well as in Chatham.

DISTRICT DOINGS. THAMESVILLE

Oct. 17.—A very sad death occurred Sunday in the person of John Cummore, aged 53 years and nine months. Funeral took place Tuesday. Services were conducted by Rev. J. A. Ayeart.

James McKerracher, a prosperous farmer of Botany, was married last Wednesday, Oct. 11th, in Caledonia, to Miss Julia Griffith, of Stratford, by Rev. Mr. Smith, of Alton. Mr. and Mrs. McKerracher will reside in Botany, where they will be at home to their friends after Nov. 1. A movement is being made in town to reorganize the Literary and Art Club. This club has had two successful terms and it is hoped will have a more successful third year. Last year literature, art and music was taken up. This year the members propose to spend the time principally on Canadian history. A final report is given at the close of the season, which is looked forward to with pleasure and interest.

John McEachern, who was so severely kicked by a horse, is getting around again. The I. O. O. F. Lodge has bought the Heller corner property, on which they intend building some time soon. Rev. Mr. McInnis occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church, Ridgeway, last Sunday night in the absence of Dr. Munro. Rev. Mr. Munro's son, Rev. Gustavus Munro, preached in the Presbyterian church, Thamesville.

The thank offering in the Presbyterian church this year exceeded $40. Thomas Cummore, from Detroit, is in town attending the funeral of his brother.

Dr. Dell Marr, from Ridgeway, passed through the village yesterday.

How a Wound Heals.

If you have run a pin into your thumb or received a bayonet thrust precisely the same thing takes place. A myriad of white corpuscles, those tiny "first aid" cells (the phagocytes) from the surrounding blood vessels and lymphatic glands at once come hurrying to the rescue. They begin to clean up whatever wreck there has been made in the skin and muscular tissue. They eagerly absorb into themselves or cluster oppositely about all foreign matter that has been introduced into the wound. Then they proceed to pile themselves tier upon tier around it like the many little sentinels about a broken bastion. Later they gradually join together and solidify into the layer of new skin which appears beneath the sloughed off scab. They are at once workmen and repairing material.—A. E. MacFarlane in McClure's.

Demand for Mi-o-na Stomach Tablets Continues to Increase

Although Mi-o-na was introduced in Chatham but a short time ago, it is to-day outselling all other medicines for the cure of indigestion and stomach troubles.

Mi-o-na almost invariably cures all forms of indigestion and stomach troubles except cancer.

It gives such health and strength to the weakest stomach that all the food is readily converted into nutrition, so that it gives nourishment and health to the whole system.

JOE MURPHY IN "KERRY GOW."

An announcement that was received with enthusiasm is the visit of Joseph Murphy here next Monday night, Oct. 23rd. "Kerry Gow" still does faithful duty as a vehicle for Mr. Murphy's humor. This conscientious actor, who gives his best effort at each stage of his performance, and so is loved the secret of the lasting popularity and prosperity of the only legitimate Irish actor now before the American people.

The most natural scenes ever played upon the stage are in "Kerry Gow," showing the blacksmith shop in full operation. The force and race scenes with trained pigeons fluttering around the stage, anxiously waiting to receive and deliver messages, the result of the great horse race.

As to Reporters.

No man is more unreservedly called a shameless liar than the newspaper reporter, and no man considers the slanders against him more lightly. His conscience is usually clear, his motives disinterested, his knowledge of human nature comprehensive, his sense of humor keen and his knowledge of his traducers complete.

AIDED THE REVOLUTION.

Former President of the New York and Bermudez Asphalt Company Admits That It Was So.

New York, Oct. 18.—General Francis W. Greene, former president of the National Asphalt Co., was examined yesterday before United States Commissioner Olmsted in the action instituted by the Venezuelan Government against the New York and Bermudez Co. to recover $11,000,000 because of the latter organization's alleged assistance of the Matos rebellion in 1901.

Rufus B. Cowing, Jr., representing Venezuela, asked this question: "State whether, when you returned from Europe in 1901, you knew John M. Mack, Avery D. Andrews and Arthur W. Sewell, or any of them as representatives of the National Asphalt Company, or any of the allied companies, were in communication with M. A. Matos, or were aiding him with money, or in any other manner?"

"My knowledge," replied Gen. Greene, "of this matter comes from what was told me by Messrs. Mack, Andrews and Sewell. When I returned from Europe in October, 1901, I was surprised to learn from them that during the war they had decided to support Matos in his contest with Castro. I told them that I thought they had made a great mistake because what they had done was not acting in good faith with the State Department."

"In Washington, which up to that time and largely on representations made by me to Secretary Hay, had supported the Bermudez Company to such an extent as to enable it, to continue in possession of its property. I also told them my opinion that Matos could not succeed."

CAPTURED BY TRIBEMEN.

Two British Officers Carried Off in Morocco—A Cowardly Escort.

Tangier, Morocco, Oct. 18.—Two British marine officers have been captured and carried off by the Anjera while returning to Ceuta from the British repair ship Assistance, recently wrecked in Tetuan Bay. They are Capt. John E. Crother and Lieut. Edward A. S. Hutton of the Royal Marines.

They had an escort of 21 Rif tribesmen and were attacked by half a dozen Anjeras under a brother of Valente, the brigand chief, who was recently arrested at Tangier. The Rifis fled and the two officers were overpowered. The same band lately assassinated the Governor of Ceuta and his son. The Minister of Foreign Affairs, Mohammed El Torres, has opened negotiations with their captors, whose object, supposedly, is to secure a ransom.

A correspondent of The Daily Mail at Madrid says that, fearing an attack by a British torpedo boat, the bandits of the Anjera tribe (Morocco), released the two British officers, Capt. Crother and Lieut. Hutton, who have arrived at Ceuta.

COAL MINERS STRIKE.

Three Thousand Go Out in Sympathy With the Driver Boys.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 18.—The strike of the driver boys at the Jeddco collieries of G. B. Markle & Co., which occurred a few days ago, resulted yesterday in the strike of 3,000 employees of the Markle Co. The boys quit work because they claimed that the wages they were receiving were under the standard. A committee waited on the officials of the company and asked to have the matter adjusted.

The superintendent of the company declined to consider their grievances, on the ground that they had quit work before properly lodging their complaint. Thereby violating one of the awards of the strike commission. A mass meeting was held Monday night, and it was decided by the miners to suspend all work yesterday.

NUNS INJURED IN RUNAWAY.

One May Be Fatally Hurt—Their Carriage Was Wrecked.

Windsor, Oct. 18.—Sister John the Evangelist, superior of St. Mary's Academy Convent, and Sister Rose, also of the convent, narrowly escaped death yesterday in a runaway accident. Their horse, new one, took fright as they started from the academy and dashed down Ouellette avenue. At Chatham street the mother superior jumped from the carriage and fell heavily on the pavement. She is not certain yet that she may not be fatally injured. The driver was badly cut and bruised. The carriage was wrecked.

TORONTO LIVE STOCK.

Receipts of live stock at the City Cattle Market yesterday were very large, totaling 122 cars, composed of 1,033 cattle of which 244 sheep and 98 calves. Notwithstanding the heavy deliveries, the market held a better class of stock, which was a decided improvement on that of Tuesday. Not alone was this noticeable in regard to the quality of the stock, which was of a better grade generally, but the market had a snap about it, which was in striking contrast with some recent market days. There was a noticeable absence of the eastern or "southern" stock and their place was largely filled by a better class of stock. It cannot be said that the buyers are extended to any appreciable advance in prices, in butchers of the best, grades there was a demand, which would have absorbed considerable more of that grade if it had been forthcoming.

Butchers.

Of exporters there was a small supply, indeed it is questionable if there was more than a car load of the market, which would be properly classified as such. Mayne Wilson & Hall sold 11 extra line cattle to William Leckie for export purposes. Mr. Leckie paid from $4 to $4.50 per cwt. for them.

Feeders and Stockers.

H. Murphy reports a good trade for the best feeders, weighing from 1000 lbs. up. There was also a fair trade for the best feeders, weighing from 1000 lbs. up. There was also a fair trade for the best feeders, weighing from 1000 lbs. up.
