Mr. R. E. McLatchy, Inspector of Customs, was in town on Monday on official business.

The schooner "Laura M" arrived in port on Monday from New York with a cargo of hard coal for Mr. A. M. Wheaton.

The monthly meeting of The Daughters of the Empire will be suspended until September. By order of Chapter, Frances B. Elderkin (Secretary).

The spring term of the Supreme Court has been in session at the Court House, Kentville, this week. His Honor, Chief Justice Harris, presiding.

The work of extending the water mains in the new section of the town at the East end has been begun and will be completed as rapidly as possible.

Dr. Primrose's many friends will be pleased to know that he is improving in health and expects to resume his practice shortly with his son who is now on his way from India.

The King's, Hants and Annapolis Exhibition, which is to be held this year at Windsor, will open on Tuesday, Oct. 4th and last three days.

Mr. E. J. Delaney has purchased the old Bank of Montreal building and will remove it to a site south of his present residence and fit it up as a tenement. The building is a good one and will make a comfortable dwelling.

If friends of the Wolfville boys whose names appear on the tablet unveiled on Wednesday afternoon desire to secure extra copies of the program of the day's proceedings they may do so on application to THE ACADIAN, a number still remaining on hand.

Mr. E. J. Westcott began last week the erection of a building in the rear of his store to be used as a garage and McLaughlin service station. The building will be of concrete and wood veneered with brick and will be finished and ready for use as soon as possible.

The Wolfville baseball team played a friendly game at Hantsport with the team of that town on Wednesday afternoon, the score being 26-9 in favour of Wolfville. Hantsport has a good bunch of players and the game was not so one-sided as the score indicates. The best of feeling prevailed throughout.

The annual bulletin of Acadia Collegiate and Business Academy has been received at this office. It contains a fund of useful information regarding this deservedly popular preparatory school for boys attractively arranged and generously illustrated. Organized nearly a hundred years ago the Academy has to its credit a very long list of students who have made good in the world's activities and is today better prepared than ever to undertake the important work of fitting boys and young men to be of real service in the world. The Academy has just closed a most successful year and its principal and friends are anticipating great things in the year to come.

SCHOOL MEETING'S NOT SECRET

To the Editor of THE ACADIAN.
Dear Sir:—The printed word carries with it a wonderful force and a tremendous power for good or evil, leaving on the mind of the reader, as it does, an indelible impression. An inexact or unreliable statement made in print carries with it all the ear-marks of truth and may be quoted as a fact years after it is written. It is both natural and easy to believe what we read and so we are alarmed at the statement made by Elaine La Faye (naturally we wonder what nice old gentleman masquerades under this fanciful nom de plume) in last week's Acadian that the School Board hold secret meetings. This is either a fact or not a fact. The Chairman of the School Board and other members assure me that every meeting of the Board—Committee or otherwise—is open to the public and that their only complaint is that the general public do not attend as much as they would like. Occasionally when Town Hall is occupied the Clerk's Office is used. Even the tenders for the new School Building were opened and read with rate-payers present. One is led to wonder in amazement: Why is a Town Councilor? With no emolument, no honor, no praise they freely give their time, their skilled services, for what? Apparently to be the butt of destructive and disgruntled criticism, but in reality to bestow upon us the best they have to offer for the upbuilding and development of our own loved community.
