TEACHERS MEET AT KENTVILLE

Interesting Topics Discussed

The Teachers Institute of Kings Co., met at Kings County Academy, Kent-ville, last Friday, under the direction of L. A. DeWolfe, Director of Rural Science, and Inspector Davidson.

Mr. Davidson called the meeting to order with an attendance of 75 teschers.

After a few remarks Mr. DeWolf outlined topics that were of interest to all the teachers as follows; "Where To Get Help", "Cornish Geography," "Arithmetic", "Boy Scouts", "Health" and "Question Bos",

Mr. O'Brien gave a short address on work in connection with Boy Scouts, Mr. Dunlop spoke on debates and the benefits derived from them when considering topics connected with school work. Questions were asked and answered about writing and the best methods, and the Palmer Method was favored. Principal Trask, of the County Academy, tald of the prizes offered by James Sealy, M. P. P., for the best oration on any subject, by any high school boy in the County of Kings on or about December 14 - First prize a gold medal, 2nd, prize a silver medal.

The afternoon session began at 1.30 with a full attendance. Mr. De-Wolf in his usual pleasant way solved many varied problems connected with school work.

Miss Millicent Chase of Kentville, presented a petition for the re-establishment of a County health nurse. The assembled teachers showed their hearty approval of this step by passing the resolution and signing the petition to be presented to the County Council at its next seasion.

Principal Trask gave a short address on the advisability of supporting the

IMPROVEMENTS AT THE ROYAL HOTEL

Mr. Truman S. Sanford, the proprietor of the Royal Hotel of this town, is displaying commendable enterprise by making additional improvements to his well conducted and popular hostelry. Under Mr., Sanford's supervision the Royal has undergone many changes which have received favorable comment from the travelling public.

For some time back he had has under consideration plans for extensive remodelling and increased accommodation, which he has not so far been able to proceed with on account of difficulties imposed in consequence of the to proceed with on account of difficulties imposed in consequence of the flow. It is now he has in progress a work which will add very materially to the efficiency of his house and provide the better for the comfort of his numerous patrons. The most important feature of an un-to-date hotel is its kitchen accommodation, and to this Mr. Sanford is now devoting his attention. An addition has been made and is now being fitted up with all modern conveniences which will make this department equal to that of any establishment of the kind on the line of the D. A. R.

Ample sample rooms are also being installed in the basement which will be appreciated by the commercial man, with whom the Royal is justly popular. In the spring Mr. Sanford contemplates increasing his dining room accommodation by extending the width throughout the entire length. The extension will be enclosed in glass and give a very pleasing effect. It is also his intention to install hot and cold running water in a number of the rooms. Mr. Schriord's enterprise is most commendable and deserves the fullest recognition of our citizens.

COST OF ADVERTISING OFFSET BY DEMAND

The Associated Advertising Clubs of the World have stated that during 1922 a billion dellars was expended for advertising in the United States and Canada. This expenditure has brought forth comment. There are some who contend that advertising is an economic waste and that if the manufacturers did not have to spend gigantic sums to sell in competition with one another the ultimate consumer would be able to purchase commodities at a much lower figure. Advertising is hut a mode of education in which the lengwless of consumer would be able to purchase commodities at a much lower figure. Advertising is hut a mode of education in which the lengwless of consum.

WANT ACTION ON OLD HOME SUMMER

(From The Morning Chronicle)

(From The Morning Chronicle)

(We want some action by whatever source is responsible for the Old Home Summer in Nova Scotia for 1924, as we are organized and prepared to assist in every way possible to make it a very great success, "said John F. Mastern, Secretary of the Canadian Club of Boston, on his arrival in Halitax yesterday, "So important has this wonderful movement for the development of Nova Scotia become to our people abroad, that I understand that the proposed increased steamship service between Boston and Yarmouth and the restoration of the Bluenose train on the D. A. R. is now contingent upon the Old Home Summer being properly organized and put over," said Mr. Masters, "We want to help you" continued Mr. Masters, "and I have been sent here specially to find out what is to be done by the Government of the Province and who is to take leadership in this matter. The time is short and organization for a project so widespread uppromising such invaluable results mest be undertaken immediately. The Canadian Club of Boston organized an Old Home Summer Committee some time ago for the purpose of co-operating with Nova Scotia in this matter, and I, as secretary, have been specially delegated to interview Premier Armstrong. New York and other important centres where Nova Scotians are living in any number are all pressing for some action. Our people all over the United States are planning now to come, only awaiting some official proclamation of the dates for the celebration, the transportation arrangementa and what accommodation is available. I am to report the result of my visit to Nova Scotia on Saturday, Immediately after my return to Boston.

AN INTERESTING ILLUSTRATED LECTURE

The Orpheum Theatre was packed to capacity on Sunday evening when Miss Boswell, of Ottawa, Inspector of the Victorian Order of Nurses, gave an illustrated lecture on the activities of that worthy and valued institution Mayor Phinney presided and the Scout Band was present and rendered a number of selections which were greatly enjoyed. The lantern slides and motion pictures illustrated the different phases of the work which is being carried on by the V. O. N. and were interestingly described and explained by the lecturer. At some points the condition of the firm was such as to make the pictures slightly indistinct, but on the whole the audience was well pleased. At the close Mr. B. O. Davidson, on behalf of the local executive, thanked Miss Boswell for her services, Mr. Evans for the use of the theatre and its equipment, and the band for their very efficient assistance Short addresses appreciative of the splendid service rendered the community by Miss Harry were given by Rev. R. F. Dixon and Rev. Dr. Hemmeon, and the meeting closed with the National Anthem led by the Band.

FUNERAL OF MRS. HALIBURTON

The remains of the late Mrs. Hah-burton, whose sudden death in New Mexico was reported in The AcADA. Last week, arrived in Wolfville on Tues-day morning and the funeral took place on Wednesday morning. The service was held at St. Johns church and was conducted by the Rector, Rev. R. F. Dixon. Rev. J. H. MacDonald, D. D., assisted in the exercises and delivered the address in which he paid a fine tri-bute to the departed, especially em-phasizing her gentleness and kindness of character. Interment was made in St. John's Cemetery by the side of the late Capt. Louis Hailburton, who pre-deceased his wife about eight years ago.

At the annual meeting of the Maritime Board of Trade held in Halifax last September a resolution was prassed and a committee of three appointed to confer with a view to co-ordinating, co-operating or amalgamating the tourist effort of the Maritime Provinces. A meeting of this committee was held at the Brunswick Hotel Moncton, last Thursday evening. Those present works Premier Armstrong, of Halifax; Premier Stewart, of Charlottetown; j. O. Byndman and P. W. Clarkin, Charlottetown; C. B. Allan, secretary treasurer of the New Brunswick Tourist and Resources Association, and C. C. Ayard, Predicting to the New Brunswick Association. An informal discussion took place, the feeling being that the three Tourist Associations (Prince Edward Island is about to organize one) should keep in touch with each other with a view of making the most of the tourist effort for the Maritimes. If is probable that the three tourist associations may work together in advertising; in distributing literature and in other ways. After the policies for the year 1924 have been decided upon by each association, representatives of the three organizations will likely get together in order to see what can be done in the way of co-operation and co-ordination. It is expected that the Maritime drive for tourists for 1924 will exceed all previous efforts.—Sack-ville Tribune.

DEATH OF DISTINGUISHED WO-

Nova Scotians in every part of the Province will hear with regret of the death at "The Bluffs". Clementsport, on Monday morning of Mrs. Irene Elder Morton, wife of Albert Morton, aged 85. Mrs. Morton was a poetess of some reputation, only recently having published a book entitled "Idylls of the Day". In recognition of her fine poetic conception and her loval devotions to things Nova Scotian. Acadia University conferred upon her last year the honorary degree of M. A. Mrs. Morton has been ill for some time, suffering from jaundice, but her death even at her advanced age will be none the less regretted by people who knew her Provincewite. She had a very ettractive disposition, and was a very close and appreciative student of the history of her native Province do of Canada. There

TORONTO, Nov. 27—The days of Longfellow's "Evangeline" as a selection in the school books of Ontario and probably of other Canadian Provinces appear to be numbered.

An agitation has been started by the Rev. Dr. Cody, chairman of the Board of Governors of Toronto, University, to remove the poem from all Canadian school books, in many of which it has hitherto held an honored place, on the ground that it creates anti-British feeling.

ground that it creates anti-British recling.

Disections to "Evangeline" rest on three counts: First, that the Acadians were notoriously disloyal, negected warning after warning, and abused the indulgence of the British authorities: second, that the poem exaggerates the cruelity and severity of the deportation; third, that the expulsion would not have been decided upon except for the insistence of New Englanders and that it was John Winslow of Boston who actually directed the deportation.

While many Canadian educators conderm "Evangeline" they hold Longfellow blameless. The American poetgot his inspiration for Evangeline and
