

BUCKEYE MOWER.

The Subscriber again offers Agriculturalists the

Cossitt Bro's Buckeye Mower

AND THE

Cossitt Bro's Ithaca Self-Dumping Wheel Rake.

ONE CAR LOAD NOW ON HAND.

The superior quality of these MOWERS is now a fact so fully established by actual test, that it is needless to say more than refer to the 150 we have sold in three years past under severe competition with Agents for the other Machines on the market.

Those who use these Mowers AFFIRM with satisfaction their marked superiority in lightness of draft, easy adjustment of Cutter to uneven surface of soil, and superior material and workmanship, insuring almost absolute freedom from breakage. Improvements on this year's stock.

These RAKES stand admittedly at the head of the best of Self-Dumping Wheel Rakes. This year's Stock has 24 Teeth each. Our sales last year was about 40 without sending out canvassers. We again offer them on LIBERAL TERMS, and especially CHEAP for cash.

Learn the price before you buy any other. Come and examine.

SUDDEN DEATH at PETTICOAT. At Petticoat on the 1st inst., Mrs. Josiah Carter died very suddenly, at half past twelve o'clock, from heart disease from which she has in the past suffered more or less, though she had been in good health previously.—Times.

PERSONAL.—Dr. M. Miller and Mr. John Miller, merchant, both of New York, sons of Rev. Geo. Miller, a venerated Methodist Minister stationed in this parish about 30 years ago, re-visited Mount Allison this week and expressed much interest in the signs of progress they saw.

An investigation into the origin of the fire that consumed the house of Mr. Stephen Ayer last week, took place yesterday before Justice Cahill, W. W. Wells, Esq., appearing for the Queen Insurance Co., and W. J. Gilbert, Esq., for Mr. Ayer. The evidence from Mr. Ayer, Mrs. Ayer, Mr. Johnston and others was taken and the Justice determined that there was no evidence but that she was the cause of the fire may have been accidental.

PUGWASH ITEMS.—In view of the failures, strikes, &c., which prevail in business communities, the people here congratulate themselves that they have depended so much on mother-earth, as there is every prospect of an abundant return for their labor.—Our young men are improving the interval between haying and harvest by laying in a supply of the fine mackerel, with which the harbor abounds. A great number have been taken.—Mr. Donald McLeod of this place met with a serious accident by the upsetting of a load of hay he was drawing in, the wheels passed over his legs, inflicting a very severe wound. Under the care of Dr. McIntosh he is doing well.

WESTMORLAND FEVER.—Dr. Bower and Mr. Rufus Fowler have been seriously ill with typhoid fever, but are now happily recovering.—Mr. J. G. Moir is building a new house at Mount Whately. Messrs. Gilbert Carter and Smith Carter are also erecting residences for themselves.—Mr. James Fillmore has accepted the position of Steward at Mount Allison.—The crops are all looking well, particularly potatoes. Haying has commenced.—Capt. Weeks at Bay Verte has quite a number of horses. He has two teeth of a hippopotamus picked up at Timber River, Batford, the saw, some four feet in length, of a saw fish, sharks heads and skeletons and other marine curiosities without number.

FROM PORT ELGIN.—Business is very dull.—Mr. John McCully, late of Oxford, is building a cottage for himself.—Mr. Harris Chapman has been doing a good business in carriage making.—Mr. Calvin Bent, merchant, is about disposing of his store business, to engage with Messrs. Brecken & Hicks in a hatching and shoeing business.—The Port Elgin Woolen Mills are turning out some very handsome specimens of homespun cloths in black and white, orange and black and brown mixtures that are taking the market well. It speaks well for the quality of the work that the custom word on hand has accumulated up to seven tons, although they have a part of the time driven their mills at night.

The Stewards of the Intramural Mission are requested to attend the meeting of Tuesday morning next at Sackville, as previously notified.

OTTAWA, Aug. 4.—Tenders for 100 miles west of Winnipeg on the Pacific Railway range as low as $6,000 per mile. The lowest bid is that of John Ryan, of Perth, Whitehead comes next, it is said, with $6,800 per mile; Skeel next at $7,700. It is said that the tenders will be cut up and the Government assume the providing and laying of rails.

A BLOODY AFFAIR occurred at Pittsburg, Pa., on Thursday night. John D. Weiss attacked with a razor a woman named Irwin, with whom he had been living, and after badly cutting her about the head and face, escaped through the rear entrance of the house. He was pursued by officers, but he got away. He was taken to a hospital and is now recovering. The police, who returned the shots, killing Weiss instantly. The woman will probably recover.

OUR readers will find in another column the advertisement of Mr. D. D. Betts, the Amherst Hair Dresser. This spring he was compelled to make in his Salon numerous improvements, which now enable him to execute work in a style that is not surpassed in the city. One of the most prominent features in this shop is a clean towel for each and every customer. Now the night trains are so running as to enable his old customers of this locality to call upon him without losing much time.

ROCKLAND STATION.—One of the most terrific thunder storms passed over here to-day. Hail stones fell in great quantities, some as large as a robin egg. In many instances doing serious injury to the crops.—The potato rust has made its appearance in this vicinity.—A large amount of freight is being landed at the station and a great number of passengers are obliged to go all the way to Dorchester station in order to get these badly signed and delivery of the goods. This makes it very inconvenient and especially so, as there is a station and warehouse duly completed and ready for use here. Why is there not an Agent appointed? Surely there must be need enough for one!

A FENIAN INFORMER'S DEATH.—The London correspondent of the Cork Examiner writes:—"It has been ascertained that the body found under the viaduct of the Meenagh Railway at College street, Camden Town, in January last, was that of Pierce Nagle, the Fenian informer. The Scotland Yard authorities have in their possession several documents which identify the body which leaves doubt of its identity. The statement that Nagle was battered to death with an iron bar is totally wrong. A large cheese knife, as grocers use, had been run through his groin, and upon the point, which penetrated several inches beyond the stomach, was fixed a paper containing his name, and the information that his life had been taken as the penalty of the suffering his treachery and perjury had caused. Three arrests made at the time, but not a clue obtained, and the prisoner was discharged. A watch, gold guard, and several pounds in money were found on the body.

Spring Hill Troubles.

(From our Correspondent.)

Aug. 2.—On Thursday week, a meeting of the Miners took place at the Rink to consider the reductions in pay made by the Company, and a Committee was appointed to draft a memorial to the Directors. A night or two after, at another meeting, the Memorial was adopted and approved unanimously. It was sent to the Directors and they were given till 1st of August to consider it, and if they did not recede the late order reduction of pay, before the 1st of August, it was determined to strike. The Directors exhibited no signs of "backing down," and on Thursday the Miners struck. In order that your readers may understand the situation I may say, that when the Mines opened in 1873, the coal cutters wages were 50 cents per box. This rate was reduced to 45, then to 40, and then to 37 cents. On Jan. 1st, 1878, last another reduction was made to 35 cents. Each box contains 24 bushels. A fair day's work is 4 boxes. This would give $1.32 per day wages. Out of this deduct oil and powder found by the miner himself and his wages would not be about $1.15. Outside men had their wages at the same rate, being since 1st January about 90 cents per day. You may say this is good wages? No it is if men had continuous employment, but from 1st of January till 1st of April, the Miners only worked half time. In May, they made on an average 13 days work. In June they made only 13 days work. July, they made a larger output, probably in anticipation of a strike. Thus it will be seen that unmarried men cannot earn much more than their board, while married men are expected to live and keep their families on an average 50 cents per day. As if these wages were not low enough the Company has given notice, they intend to reduce wages 10 per cent. on 1st August.

Happenings at Hopewell.

Tea Meeting.—Mining.—Stock-Raising.—B. & C.

The Base Ballists of Hopewell Corner are becoming quite proficient with bat and ball, and have recently won two games over the club of Hillsboro' and the Cape. They do some splendid playing.

The Tea Meeting in Oulton Hall on Thursday, July 31st, was not as well patronized as it deserved. The ladies, as is their wont, got up a first class entertainment, the tables looked very inviting, and the good things provided were both rich and abundant. After tea the programme consisted of Music, Readings, Recitations, and telling donations from Anderson, Egan, and Rev. W. C. Hamilton, S. C. Wells, and R. Wilson. The financial results were between $40 and $50.

Mining operations are about to be begun in two places in the parish of Alma, one on the Brock road and the other on the McKinley farm. It has long been known that Alma was rich in copper deposits and the prospects now is that the parties who have leased the property mean business. Mr. McHenry has a strong belief in the discovery of immense quantities of Phosphate of Lime. Things are looking up and we have good reason to hope that the long-looked better times are in the near future.

Several John gentlemen of means propose locating here with a view of going into the stock raising business, and have made proposals for the purchase of several farms. Rugar has it too that a well known and able financier is likely to open a branch office here in a short time. Those competent to express an intelligent opinion think there is an excellent opening for such a business, as our returns show something like an annual expenditure of a half million dollars.

The Baptist Church at Hopewell Corner has a new bell whose silvery tones ring out its weekly call in prayer.

The new Methodist Church at Point Wolf is under contract to be finished in October. It is to be 36x36, and when completed will be a neat little structure.

The business outlook is certainly improving, and the indications are that shipbuilding and lumbering will be more largely engaged in during the coming winter than for some time past. The crops are excellent and the weather unusually fine.

LONDON, Oct., August 4.—Joseph Dostoevsky, the Russian writer, was convicted of a criminal assault on a little girl six years old, was sentenced by Judge Elliott to twenty lashes with the cat-o'-nine-tails. About eighteen months ago he was convicted of a similar offence at Delavaro for which he served six months in the Central Prison. In passing sentence Judge Elliott expressed his repugnance to corporal punishment, but as the previous conviction had had no deterrent effect in this case, he thought it his duty to have recourse to it. In addition to the stripes, Dostoevsky gets three months' imprisonment.

FROM ST. JOHN.

THE RECEPTION OF THE VICE-REGAL PARTY!

Special to Chignecto Post.

St. John, Aug. 6.—The city is brilliantly illuminated. Every street and office on King, Canterbury, Germain, Princess, Prince William, and a score of other streets, as well as King Square, Market Square, &c., lighted up. Many of the transparencies, mottoes, &c., are beautiful. The Governor General is delighted with the appearance. The torchlight procession was a great success. About a thousand Firemen, Volunteers and others turned out. Engines gaily decorated. Not the slightest accident to-day or to-night so far. Extensive preparations being made for the Drawing Room to-morrow evening. Gov. General went down harbor in a tug this p. m. and visited Thomson & Co's ship, "The Marquis of Lorne."

FIRE FROM LIGHTNING.—A little before 10 a. m. yesterday, a sharp thunder storm passed over Sackville. The barn of Dr. P. R. Moore was struck by lightning and almost instantaneously blown up from one end to the other. The wind blew strongly from the northwest and in a few minutes the end of the kitchen next to the barn was burning. A force of friendly neighbors were promptly on hand to render assistance, but as it seemed utterly futile to attempt to save the house with the heat and flames borne upon it from the burning barn, their efforts were directed to saving the furniture. While some of the spectators were wondering why Dr. Moore's property had been selected for the lightning's sport, the wind suddenly shifted from northwest to the eastward and a heavy shower accompanied the change. Then with strenuous efforts a good supply of water and ladders the further progress of the fire was arrested. The barn was entirely consumed, the end of the kitchen destroyed and several doors and windows of a good deal of furniture damaged or destroyed. Such a change of wind in a squall is very unusual; nothing else could have saved the house. The premises were insured, but the barn was not covered for more than one fourth its value.

The schooner "Herbert Dudley" arrived in Toronto last week with a cargo of coal from Cape Breton, N. S. The vessel was chartered by Messrs. Howland and sent to the Lower Provinces with flour about the middle of May, and she took as her return cargo, soft coal from the Glace Bay Mines in Cape Breton. It will be interesting to many to know that this coal, which is acknowledged to be the best this side of the Atlantic, may be seen at Burns' wharf, foot of Yonge street; and it has been laid down much cheaper than the American. The Messrs. Howland have several other vessels on the way with coal, it being their intention to bring fifteen or twenty cargoes from the same mine before the close of navigation. It is a pity that the coal is not going to burn this coal, it being very superior for steam-raising purposes. It is stated that it was used by the cable steamer "Faraday," and pronounced to be the best obtainable on the Atlantic coast and very nearly as good as the Welsh coal.—Mail.

AT N. E. Margaree, on Friday night, a man named William Benton, said to be insane, struck his wife with a horse shoe while she was asleep and fractured her skull. Benton then left the house and went to the woods. Search was made for him but he was not found until Saturday evening, when he came out and went to his brother's house. He is still at liberty. His wife lies in an unconscious condition, but hopes of her recovery are entertained. She has a family of four or five children.

NATIONAL CONVENTION of Bankers met at Saratoga on Tuesday, 1000 were present.

From Abram Mand, of Littleton, Mass.

"I have for several years suffered severely with Dyspepsia, accompanied by weakness and nervous irritability, which made life a burden to me. Nothing but the simplest nutrient could remain in the stomach without pain, sourness and windy eructations, uncomfortable feelings in the head, bad taste in the mouth, catarrhal symptoms, inactivity of the liver and bowels, general debility, and a nervous state of extreme susceptibility, made up of a diseased condition of the system to experience benefit. After taking three bottles of PERUVIAN SYRUP, at once I began to experience benefit. After taking three bottles all these bad feelings have left, my health is restored, and I enjoy life as well as ever. Most cheerfully do I recommend 'Peruvian Syrup'."

Sold by dealers generally.

HEALTH IS STRENGTH.—To prevent or conquer disease is one of the grandest achievements ever aimed at by man; and Bryan's Pulmonic Wafer will cure coughs, colds, tickles in the throat and pulmonary complaints, as sure and pestilence will destroy. Severe colds if not attended to sooner or later lead to incurable consumption, and the strength of the strongest soon falls if neglected. The readiness and ease with which it is known that the cure of these complaints is "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafer," which have been thoroughly tried for the last twenty years, and have never been known to fail. Singers and public speakers will also derive great benefit from the use of them. Sold by all medicine dealers at 25c. per box.

The Invigorating and Nutritive properties of Robinson's Phosphorized Biscuits, or Cod Liver Oil with Lactate Phosphate of Lime are such as would indicate its sufficiency to "sustain the body in the performance of various functions," with the aid of but little solid food. Hence its superior merit in the "Wasting Away" of "Consumption tendency," in "Consumption itself," as well as in "General Debility," in cases of "Prostration" and "Exhaustion." Prepared solely by J. H. Robinson, Pharmaceutical Chemist, St. John, N. B., and for sale by Druggists and General Dealers. Price $1.00 per bottle; six bottles for $5.00.
