

Attempt at Blackmailing.

Last April, Mr. Edward F. Waite, son of Capt. Edward Waite, St. Lawrence street, married an English lady named Caroline M. Kent. He took her home to his father's, where they have since resided. Mrs. E. F. Waite was born in Kingston, England, in May, 1853, and is about 21 years of age.

Thursday a Boston detective named Holden visited the family and made the preposterous charge of bigamy against Mrs. E. F. Waite. He asserted that she was 30 years of age, and in February, 1862, was married to a man named Waller, by Rev. A. H. Hardman at Picou, N. S.; that she left her husband some time since and came here to live; that her husband had traced her here and was then in the city; that she has two children, a girl of 11 years old and a boy of 9; and that Waller was willing to hush the matter up and leave her alone on the payment of a certain sum of money. Capt. Edward Waite, who is one of our wealthy and most respected citizens, expressed at once his utter disbelief in the story, and refused to listen to any such proposal. Mrs. Waite while indignantly denying the marriage, also refused to sanction the payment of any money and declared her willingness to go before the courts if necessary, to prove her innocence of the charge.

Yesterday afternoon Waller took out a warrant for her arrest on the charge of bigamy and she accompanied Marshal Parker, who served the writ, to the Municipal Court, where a special hearing was given in the case by Judge Morris. Waller made the statement given above, and offered to produce testimony to prove her identity.

Mrs. Waite makes the following statement: Her maiden name was Caroline M. Kent. She came to this city from Truro N. S., in 1871; never saw the man Waller before, and denied absolutely the whole story of the marriage.

Judge Morris decided to adjourn the hearing to Wednesday next, and placed Mrs. Waite under $1,000 bonds, which was immediately given by her husband, Mr. Edward F. Waite, and Capt. Edward Waite her father-in-law.

The case is a very rare one. Mrs. Waite has a large circle of acquaintances and enjoys to a high degree the respect and esteem of all. She has the hearty sympathy of her friends, and her husband, Mr. Edward F. Waite, feels perfectly confident of thoroughly exposing what he considers as simply a case of attempted blackmailing. A. A. Strout, Esq., has been retained for Mrs. Waite.
