century in Italy or Rome, when men called Inquisitors, who pretended to have science and authority from God. were gathered together to decree the immobility of the Earth. Before hem stood a prisoner. Genius illumand his face. He had outstripped is times and his fellowmen and re-ealed the secret of a world. He was He shook his bald and ven-lead. The soul of that subime old man rose in rebellion against would have forced him to deny the truth that God had taught him. But long oppression had tamed his form-Frightened by the threats n he was at the point He raised his hand to swear, even he, the immobility of the arth. But as he raised his hand he feed his weary eyes to the sky which e had scanned during long nights, o read in it a line of universal law; ey caught a ray of that sun which the knew to be fixed in the centre of the revolving spheres. Remorse pricked his heart, and a cry in his own despite escaped from the depths of his soul: "Still it moves!"

This pen-picture by Mazzini is re-called by the cable which announced that a Chair had been founded in a Roman Catholic University towards the eradication of Socialism. The Church is in danger of making the laws-10c. package.

KELLOGG'S TOASTED

There was a day in the sixteenth same mistake that it did with Galileo And it can no more prevent this Giant of Progress than it could prevent the truth that the world is in motion.

Let Mazzini continue: Do not forget that all great revolutions are fulfilled by virtue of a law ordained of God to guide the motion of human affairs, and recognize that which is seething around you to-day is a great revolution, not a mere revolt. Its development is at work in the hearts of every people. In spite of every and everything militates in its favour —its persistent cosmopolitan character, its audacity, its eloquence, its self-sacrifice, its martyr's crown. To stand apart and fight against it is to Whether its doctrine is or is not stand apart and light against to story of the stand apart and light against god's will and to part oneself from Humanity, the interpreter and executor of His comrades; it is self-destruction. Remember that every social revolution must be either that every social revolution must be either that the standard of the social revolution are social revolution and the social revolution and the social revolution are social revolution and the social revolution and th ter and executor of His comrades; it is self-destruction. Remember that every social revolution must be either with you or against you, and that if you ally religion to resistance you wreck religion without profiting your cause. Remember that the Church—the congregation of the faithful when it is not an instrument of progress becomes a corpse. That your mission is to bless and not to curse, and that according to St. Paul, we portions in the States of late years and all the force and power of the Roman Catholic priesthood have been used in a vain effort to reduce its One Fr. McCarthy told his follower that any members of his parish tha had voted the Socialist ticket had sev ered all connection with the Churc. and are guilty, of apostacy to their God! That's pretty strong! Then on the other hand is Rev. Father Vaughan who says that our present day stringgles, our present day evils and our situation of unrest and o rivalry, of class hatred, and of fights for higher dividends are in no small measure the outcome from apostacy from God. If the Socialist seeks to remedy these evils I do not quite so how his acts can be called apostacy from God. from God.

When in our local political battle the weapons of war grow dull, the proverbial 'red herring' of Confederation is unearthed. So the opportunity Socialism take every opportunity flinging Atheist in the teeth of i adherents. One of the greatest diff. Socialist is the refusal on the part his opponents to give an accurate statement of what Socialism means and what the purpose of Socialism is n the amount of truth which it reall contains.

In the first place it will be conce ed that the movement must be under pominational. Being a world-wide in fluence all classes and creeds are united in it. On none of its plat forms does Religion appear, nor is i discussed anymore than it is discussed in our Council of Higher Education. . . . . The usual logic that yo are met with is something like this Marx is a Socialist; Marx is a Atheist. Therefore all Socialists ar Atheists! It requires only the slightest knowledge to see what have would be played with its critics Socialists were to apply such a per verted logic to them and their creed Socialism is not necessarily of posed to Religion because it leave o the individual perfect freedom eason out his own conclusions i specting the Creator and His Crea (Continued in Wednesday's issue.
