S. A. Congress.

A farewell demonstration was made in honour of Colonel and Mrs. Mapp in the Citadel on New Gower Street last night. Colonel and Mrs. Mapp leave to-day for Toronto, where they will stay for a week before their departure from Canada.

Before the meeting commenced a great parade in which some 300 persons joined was held along Water Street to the Citadel. There Colonel Pugmire was in charge and called on Mrs. Capt. Cole, as a representative of the Field Officers to address the meeting. Ensign James and Adj. Oxford spoke. Each of the speakers made reference to the work of the Colonel and his wife and to the success of the Congress. Colonel Pugmire sang, and called upon Ensign White of the Men's Social Department to read the following address:—

Our Beloved and Esteemed Chief Secretaries.—

It is with feelings of regret that we have heard of your farewell, and on this occasion desire to place on record our deep appreciation to God, who, in His All-wise Providence, has so ordained you as our Chief Secretaries these past four years, and for the privilege we have enjoyed fighting under your splendid leadership.

The unflinching determination you have from the first manifested in endeavouring to make the Cross of Calvary men and women's greatest attraction, has won the hearts of our Officers, Soldiers and Friends. Your devotion, love, zeal and enthusiasm, so persistently demonstrated, has ever been an inspiration to us all.

Your ever ready and practical assistance to those, who, by the severity of the battle, have been forced to the rear, has endeared you to our hearts, while your councils will live with us and ever be an incentive to greater effort for the propagation of the Gospel and the uplifting of the fallen.

As assistant leaders of the Territory, and as active workers, you have faithfully done what you deemed your duty, often at much sacrifice to yourself and family.

We desire to tender you our heartiest wishes for your future welfare and success in the war.

You can depend on us, dear Colonel, being true to the principles you have so earnestly and nobly contended for, and also to stand loyally by the flag.

Signed, on behalf of the Men and Women's Social Staff,

J. WALLACE WHITE, Ensign, St. John's, Nfld., Aug. 14, 1912.

Colonel Pugmire then asked Brigadier Morehan, the officer in charge of the Salvation Army in Newfoundland to present this to them.

Dear Colonel and Mrs. Mapp.—

The Staff and Field Officers, Cadets, Teachers, Local Officers, Bandmen, Songsters, Soldiers and Adherents salute you the Leaders of Our Congress for 1912, and at this the last meeting, which is to be your farewell from this part of the Territory which for four years you have, Colonel, filled the position of Chief Secretary, and Mrs. Mapp the position of Secretary for the Women's Social Work in this great command which includes the

We cannot allow you to leave us without giving you some expression of our appreciation for the great interest you have taken in the affairs of this Command during the period named.

We have been privileged to have you in our midst on several occasions. We therefore, have had an opportunity of observing something of your splendid qualities.

The first thing that stands out most prominently in your lives is that of soul-savers. Whatever character of the meeting we find ourselves in with you from the first note of the opening song right on until the singing of the Devology, you have focused everything towards the Penitent Form and with a masterly hand removed all obstacles and secured those results for which Salvation Army meetings are held.

In the seeking of the souls of men, we have watched you go for the vilest, and in so doing have you not followed in the footsteps of our Saviour and carried out the instructions of our beloved General by going for the worst?

We have found in you, out and out enthusiastic, blood and fire Salvationists. Many years ago, God touched your young hearts, and through these people called the Salvation Army you were brought from darkness into God's most marvellous light, and with a burning desire to become saviours of others, you gave up all to follow the Christ of God. We have gathered from your own personal testimonies what it cost you so to do. We rejoice that the fire is still burning upon the Altar of your hearts. Hallelujah!

If time and space would permit much could be said about your ceaseless activity, your loyalty and devotion to the cause of God under the flag of the dear old Army.

Some of us were privileged to be near you when the Salvation Army ship was called upon to pass through a stormy sea, but we beheld you upon the bridge with brave, stout hearts and your example on this occasion was a stimulus and impetus to those fighting under your Command. To God be all the glory.

In other lands there are many who love you and wish you every blessing Heaven can give, but there are none who love you more and who will follow you with greater interest to your new Command and who will pray more earnestly for you until we meet beyond the River, than your Comrades here in Newfoundland.

Ten thousand thanks for the mighty effort you have put forth during this Congress to help, bless and cheer us. We pledge to be faithful and true to God and the Army. Farewell, dear Colonel, and God be with you until we meet again.

Signed, on behalf of the Salvation Army forces in Newfoundland,
W. J. MOREHAN,
Divisional Commander.

Hr. Grace Notes.

It was in 1872 that Mr. A. F. Garland left here and not 1892 as your typo made me say in my last notes.

Hand-liners in the neighbourhood of Bryant's Cove Point and no doubt other places as well, complain that trappers are ruining them by placing their traps on the fishing ground. It is not only the size of the trap but the several moorings makes it impossible to put down a line near them. There is talk of petitioning the Government to have the evil abated.

So quiet has been the season at the new public building that a bird built its nest there and has hatched out its little ones—7 in number.

Our regatta takes place to-day. The day is a delightful one so far, clear, bright and yet cool. Quite a large number of visitors are in town and a very pleasant day seems in store for all of us.

A glance at the programme causes us a little regret at there being no fisherman's race. The fishermen are the main-stay and for our part we always enjoyed a race when none but fishermen were permitted to row.

Five boats will contest. They are the Beeslie, J. Garland, cox; Maggie, J. C. Ash; Myrtle, F. C. Archibald; Winnie, C. Pike; Mary, Wm. Carson. Seven races will be contested.

A dance will be held in the Academy Hall to-night, proceeds in aid of the K. E. Brigade.

Rev. F. S. Coffin left by the S. S. Sagoma yesterday morning on a trip to Labrador. He will visit the lower part of the shore in the S. S. Stella Maria, and expects to be absent about 4 weeks. Mr. O. V. Travers, also took passage to the coast.

If you have a horse with a gall, scratch, sore or rubbed place, get a box of Bickmore's Gall Cure and use it according to directions and you will soon notice the benefit it brings and be surprised at the rapidity with which this application will cure these sometimes obstinate troubles. You need not lay off the animal while using the Gall Cure—indeed, the motto of it is: "Be sure and work the horse." Bickmore's Gall Cure has saved much suffering in the past of many valuable horses. Price 30c. a box.

Cream of Lilies is quite the best thing for tan, sunburn, sore faces after shaving, and skin troubles of any kind. It is easily first in its line. Price, 25c. a crock.

Fr. Rawlins III of Diphtheria.

On Tuesday, Rev. Fr. Rawlins, of Cape Broyle, developed diphtheria, and yesterday news reached the city that he was very ill; also that no doctor could be had to attend him, as the medical practitioner at Ferryland was indisposed with rheumatic fever. Mr. W. D. Reid who is now at Trepassy inspecting the railway branch, heard of the circumstance and immediately got in touch with Dr. Paterson, the Company's physician, asked him to attend the rev. gentleman during his illness.
